Tradition

Ohio State first fielded a football team in 1890. In 1913, the Buckeyes began Big Ten play. Over the years, the Buckeyes have either won outright or shared 29 Big Ten titles and have captured seven national championships.

People

Ohio State has produced 160 first-team All-American, 30 Academic All-Americans and 18 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholarship winners.

Excellence

A perfect 14-0 season, a Big Ten co-championship, an undisputed National Championship, four first-team All-Americans, the National Coach of the Year and 19 players on the Big Ten's All-Academic Team in 2002.

This year's Ohio State media guide is dedicated to Dr. Robert J. Murphy, longtime team physician for the Buckeyes, and to Marv Homan, who served for the Department of Athletics for more than 40 years as sports information director and ambassador for Ohio State athletics. They represent the tradition, people and excellence that is Ohio State.

MEMBERS OF THE MEDIA

As Ohio State begins its 114th season of intercollegiate football, the Department of Athletics would like to take this opportunity to thank those members of the media who over the years have covered Buckeye football. We have enjoyed working with you and look forward to doing so again during the 2003 season. This media guide has been prepared to assist you in your coverage of the Buckeyes. Every effort has been made to ensure both its accurateness and its thoroughness. Hopefully, this publication will allow you to glean more information about all aspects of the Ohio State football program and The Ohio State University. This publication also contains important information relative to interviews with Ohio State players and coaches, as well as instructions for applying for single-game and season credentials. Any questions in either area should be directed to Steve Snapp at 614/292-6861 or snapp.1@osu.edu. Again, thank you for your coverage of Ohio State's 36 varsity teams.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

In order to qualify for a credential, an applicant must represent the recognized news organization requesting credentials. Please direct all credential requests to Steve Snapp, assistant athletics director for athletics communications. Requests should be made in writing and on company letterhead and can be faxed to (614) 292-8547 or e-mailed to Snapp.1@osu.edu. Confirmation of your request will be made upon receipt. Credentials are limited to members of the working media who are assigned to cover Ohio State football. Every effort will be made to fill each request. Credentials are for adult use only and are non-transferrable.

ROAD REQUESTS

Please direct all credential requests for Ohio State's road games to the host school's sports information director.

MORE ON CREDENTIALS

Season credentials will be mailed in mid-August, while single-game passes will be mailed 10 days before the game. For those members of the media covering a team visiting Columbus, credentials will be sent to the opposing school's sports information director for distribution at that school's weekly media luncheon. All requests made the week of the game will be held for pickup until 5 p.m. Friday at the Ohio State Athletics Communications Office in Room 124, St. John Arena. Credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. Friday will be available at the Ohio Stadium Will Call window (Gate 21)Saturday, beginning three hours before kickoff.

OHIO STADIUM PRESS BOX

The Ohio State Press Box is on the west side of Ohio Stadium. The Press Box elevator is located between Gates 21 and 23. Television photographers shooting from the photo deck should exit the elevator at the "CD" level. Writers and other members of the electronic media, including radio play-by-play crews, should exit at the "PB" level. The Press Box opens three hours before kickoff and remains open as long as necessary following the game.

PHONE LINES

Those members of the media wishing to order their own phone line can do so by calling University Phone Services at (614) 292-8648.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Those persons receiving photo credentials will receive a letter of authorization that must be exchanged at the base of the Press Box elevator for the actual credential. Photo credentials are to be properly displayed at all times and are good for Press Box access both before the game and at halftime, but not during the game. Photographers are required to stay behind the 12-foot restraining line that surrounds the field. Additionally, photographers are not permitted in the team bench areas (that includes the area immediately behind the benches).

RADIO REPORTS

Non-originating stations are restricted to 60-second reports between quarters and at the half. Live reports while the game is in progress are not permitted. This policy also applies to Ohio State's away games. Violators of this policy will have their credentials revoked.

TRESSEL AVAILABILITY

During the season, Coach Jim Tressel will hold a weekly press luncheon each Tuesday at the Buckeye Hall of Fame Cafe, located at 1421 Olentangy River Road in Columbus. Lunch will be served at 11:30 a.m., followed by remarks from Tressel, interviews with the coach and selected Ohio State players. The media luncheons will begin Aug. 26 and run through Nov. 25. Transcripts of the press conference will be available on the athletics web site (ohiostatebuckeyes.com) following the luncheon. During the season, Tressel also will meet with the media on Thursdays following the conclusion of practice and meetings. All additional requests for interviews with Tressel should be directed to Steve Snapp.

BIG TEN TELECONFERENCE

In addition to his media luncheon, Coach Tressel is available on the Big Ten Conference's weekly teleconference at noon Tuesdays. Contact Sue Lister of the Big Ten Conference (847-696-1010) for access to the teleconference.

INTERVIEW POLICY

All Ohio State player interviews must be arranged through the Ohio State Athletics Communications Office. Generally speaking, Ohio State players will be available following practices and meetings on either Sunday or Monday (depending on the off-day) as well as Tuesday, then not available again until after the game on Saturday. Players will return calls to out-of-town media Tuesday nights. We ask for the cooperation of the media in not phoning the players at home or interviewing them at times other than those designated.

PRACTICES

The Ohio State football team practices at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center on Olentangy River Road. Practices are closed, but photographers may shoot the first half hour on Tuesdays.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

The Ohio State locker room is closed. Coach Tressel will meet with the media as soon as possible after the game in the interview room, which is located on the third floor of the southeast tower in Ohio Stadium (enter the doors protected by the canopy and take the elevator to the third floor). Following the completion of his remarks, requested Ohio State players will be available in the interview area. The head coaches' postgame interviews take place simultaneously in Ohio Stadium, but typed quotes from both sessions are included in the postgame media packets distributed in the Press Box.

WEEKLY RELEASE

Ohio State's weekly release and stat package, which includes notes and depth charts, is available each Monday on the Ohio State web site (ohiostatebuckeyes.com). Releases are not mailed.

RADIO CALL-IN SHOW

Throughout the season, Coach Tressel's weekly radio call-in show can be heard each Thursday at noon on WBNS Radio (1460 AM The Fan) in Columbus. The Tressel show is replayed each Thursday evening at 7 p.m. on the 74-station WBNS statewide network. Paul Keels, the radio voice of the Buckeyes, and Kirk Herbstreit are the hosts.

WEEKLY TV SHOWS

Buckeye Replay (30 minutes of game highlights) and Buckeye Football Weekly (with Coach Tressel) are televised each Sunday morning during the football season. WBNS-TV is the outlet in Columbus, with Buckeye Replay kicking off at 11 a.m., followed by Buckeye Football Weekly 30 minutes later. The shows can be seen, too, in Youngstown (WYTV), Fox Sports Net (statewide) and around the state on the Ohio News Network (ONN). Jeff Hogan is the host.

OHIO STATE WEBSITE

Ohiostatebuckeyes.com is the official web site of the Ohio State Athletics Department. Ohio State football releases as well as a wide variety of athletics department information can be found on the web, including links to all 36 varsity sports.

PHOTO REQUESTS

Still photography requests of Ohio State players and coaches must be faxed to 614-292-8547 or e-mailed to osuathleticsphotos@osu.edu.

OSU ON THE ROAD

The Ohio State team and travel party will depart Columbus early Friday evening for each of this year's four away games. The Buckeyes will fly to three of the four Big Ten sites via Miami Air. The Buckeyes will bus to Michigan. In each case, the team will return home immediately after the game. Generally speaking, the team will hold meetings and conduct a walk-through at home on Friday and will not practice at the away site. Below is a list of hotels where the team will be staying.

Ohio State Football Notes

OHIO STATE SETS DIVISION I-A RECORD WITH 14 WINS

- The Buckeyes are coming off their best ever year – a perfect 14-0 season that included the Big Ten's first consensus national championship since Ohio State turned the trick in 1968 with a spotless 10-0 record. The 14 victories by Ohio State is an NCAA Division I-A record.

- The Buckeyes return 51 lettermen and 18 starters from last year's championship squad. All 11 starters are back on offense and there are six returnees on defense. Kicker Mike Nugent rounds out the list of holdovers.

- Ohio State has won 14 consecutive games, which represents the longest active winning streak in college football. Additionally, the Buckeyes have won 13 consecutive regular-season games (last year's Pigskin Classic and Fiesta Bowl games do not count) and nine consecutive Big Ten contests. The latter two streaks began with the 2001 Michigan game. Incidentally, the Buckeyes longest consecutive winning streak is 22 games. That streak began in 1967 when the Buckeyes won the final four games of the season and continued with 10 wins in 1968 and 8 in 1969.

- Last year's National Championship was the seventh won by the Buckeyes, who also captured titles in 1942, 1954, 1957, 1961, 1968 and 1970. The 1961 team was the choice of the Football Writers, while the 1970 team won the McArthur Bowl, which is presented by the National Football Foundation. The Buckeyes won both of those championships last year.

- This is football season No. 114 for the Buckeyes, who have an all-time record of 746-292-53. Ohio State first fielded a team in 1890 and posted a 3-1 record in its inaugural season. In Big Ten Conference play, Ohio State has an all-time slate of 408-155-24 since beginning league play in 1913. The Buckeyes have either won or shared 29 Big Ten titles.

- Ohio State coach Jim Tressel has compiled a 21-5 record for all games and a 13-3 ledger in Big Ten play during his two years with the Buckeyes. Tressel, who received virtually every National Coach of the Year honor at the end of last season, now has a lifetime record of 156-62-2

- Four Ohio State players earned first-team All-America honors last year: strong safety Michael Doss, linebacker Matt Wilhelm, punter Andy Groom and placekicker Mike Nugent. Nugent, the first Ohio State placekicker ever to win All-America recognition, was a sophomore. The other three were seniors. Over the years, Ohio State has had 160 first-team All-Americans. Doss has the distinction of being just the seventh three-time All-America in Ohio State history.

- Several players from last year's team will not be returning because of medical reasons. Cornerback Richard McNutt, linebacker Pat O'Neill, running back Jesse Kline and tight end David Andrews have been granted medical waivers

- Several players have switched numbers this year, including starting strong safety Will Allen who has gone from 26 to 4.

- Kicker Mike Nugent set nine Ohio State records last year on his way to earning first-team All-America recognition. One of those records was consecutive field goals made in Ohio Stadium with 15. Nugent will carry that string into the 2003 season when the Buckeyes open the season by hosting the Washington Huskies, the first of five straight home games for OSU.

- ABC-TV will televise Ohio State's season opener with Washington on Aug. 30, making it eight straight appearances on ABC by the Buckeyes beginning with last year's game at Wisconsin.

- In its College Football Yearbook, The Sporting News ranks Ohio State's offensive line as the best in the nation. The Buckeyes' offensive backfield is ranked second and the defensive line third by TSN, which also ranks the OSU coaching staff as No. 2 in the country. Individually, Maurice Clarett was ranked as the No. 1 tailback in the country, Alex Stepanovich as the No. 2 center, Chris Gamble as the No. 4 cornerback and Mike Nugent as the No. 4 kicker.

- Chris Gamble, the Buckeyes all-purpose junior, led the team in playing time last year with 412 minutes. The only player even close to that total was center Alex Stepanovich with 391 minutes.

- Maurice Clarett, despite being injured for much of the 2002 campaign, set an Ohio State freshman rushing record with 1,237 yards on 222 carries, eclipsing Robert Smith's previous high of 1,126 yards in 1990.

- Senior quarterback Craig Krenzel is 15-1 as a starter, the lone loss coming in the 2002 Outback Bowl, when he played just two series. In addition to being a standout football player, Krenzel is equally at home in the classroom, where he is majoring in molecular genetics. In addition to winning second-team Academic All-America honors last season, Krenzel also received the Socrates Award, which is presented by The Sporting News and goes to a student-athlete who excels both in the classroom and on the field of competition.

- Split end Michael Jenkins heads into the 2003 campaign with at least one reception in 26 consecutive games. Jenkins led the Buckeyes in receiving last year with 61 catches for 1,076 yards. He currently ranks sixth in both career receptions (110) and career receiving yardage (2,064) in OSU annals.

- Former OSU football standouts Tom Matte (1958-60), Cris Carter (1984-86) and Korey Stringer (1992-94) have been selected for induction the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame and will be inducted the weekend of the North Carolina State game Sept. 12-13.

2003 Season Outlook

NATIONAL CHAMPION BUCKEYES KNOW STAYING FOCUSED ON THE PRESENT IS THE KEY TO REPEATING IN 2003.

On paper, anyway, this Ohio State football team could be more talented than its immediate predecessor. The question is, can the 2003 Buckeyes duplicate the accomplishments of the 2002 squad?

Ohio State returns 18 starters from a year ago, including quarterback Craig Krenzel, who is 15-1 as a starter. Additionally, two-way sensation Chris Gamble returns, as does sophomore tailback Maurice Clarett. Gamble may well be the best all-around player in college football. Clarett is the best tailback!

All 11 starters return on offense. The defense must replace five starters, but the six returnees are of all-star caliber, especially up front, and there is a plethora of talented young players ready to step in and plug the vacancies created by graduation. Throw in All-America kicker Mike Nugent, who set nine school records last year, and it is easy to see why expectations are high in Columbus.

And it is not just Buckeye fans who feel that way. The Sporting News in its College Football Yearbook rates the Buckeyes' offensive line as the No. 1 unit in the nation, the offensive backfield as No. 2, the defensive line as No. 3 and the receivers and special teams as No. 5. That publication also rates the Ohio State coaching staff as No. 2 in the nation.

With an array of talent that includes split end Michael Jenkins, offensive linemen Alex Stepanovich and Shane Olivea and the imposing defensive line trio of Tim Anderson, Darrion Scott and Will Smith, numerous preseason publications have tabbed the Buckeyes as their choice for No. 1 heading into the 2003 campaign.

The only problem is, Ohio State is the defending national champion. The 2002 version of the Buckeyes literally came from out of nowhere to post a brilliant 14-0 record that culminated with a 31-24 double-overtime victory over top-ranked Miami in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

How do you top that?

The Buckeyes did everything right last year: They won on the road, they won the close ones (seven games by a touchdown or less), they stayed relatively healthy, they made a minimum number of mistakes, they had great senior leadership and terrific chemistry. They were a team in every sense of the word, and they played from start to finish every time they took the field.

If the Buckeyes are to repeat this year, something that has not been done since Nebraska won back-to-back titles in 1994 and '95, they will need to be more than just good on paper. They will also need to do all the other little things that they did last year. Those intangibles are the key.

Craig Krenzel is 15-1 as a starter.

"Our biggest challenge is being aware of the difficulty of our challenge," says head coach Jim Tressel, last year's national Coach of the Year. "We are proud of what we accomplished last year, but our emphasis now has to be on how much better we need to get this year."

Unlike a year ago, when the offense was as green as green can be, especially at the skill positions, and the O-line had a hard time finding five healthy bodies to put on the field for the season opener with Texas Tech, the 2003 offense appears to be set. There is talent and depth at every position.

In the scrap-iron tough Krenzel, the Buckeyes have a proven leader, whose strong-suit is knowing how to win. There is nobody better when the game is on the line.

Krenzel's 37-yard touchdown pass to Michael Jenkins on fourth-down at Purdue last fall may well have been the play of the year in college football. Without it, the Buckeyes would not have been in the championship game. In the latter contest, his 17-yard pass to Jenkins on fourth-and-14 in the first overtime kept the Buckeyes' hopes alive when it looked like their bubble had finally burst.

A molecular genetics major and an academic All-American, Krenzel threw for 2,110 yards and 12 touchdowns last year, while completing 59 percent of his passes. The 6-4 red head also ran for 368 yards and pair of touchdowns and was the leading rusher in the Fiesta Bowl where he scored a pair of touchdowns and was the offensive MVP.

Krenzel took most of the snaps last year. But senior Scott McMullen, who completed 25 of 31 passes (80%) for 315 yards and a pair of touchdowns in 2002, is a proven performer who can step in and get the job done should the need arise. Additionally, redshirt freshmen Justin Zwick and Troy Smith, each of whom threw for more than 200 yards in the spring game this past April, are outstanding young prospects.

The wide receiver position features Jenkins at split end and Gamble at flanker and includes a talented group of backups in veterans Drew Carter and Bam Childress and redshirt freshmen Santonio Holmes and Roy Hall.

Jenkins had a breakout year in 2002, finishing the season with 61 receptions for 1,076 yards and six touchdowns. The 6-5 senior – blessed with speed, size and great hands – was the Buckeyes' "Mr. Clutch" last year. He heads into his senior year with 110 career receptions and a fanciful 18.8 yards per catch average.

Gamble finished the year as the team's second leading receiver with 31 catches for 499 yards and an average of 16.1 yards per catch. His 57-yard grab in the Fiesta Bowl was the longest reception of the year by a Buckeye. A two-way starter from the midway point of the season on, Gamble, who also returns punts and kickoffs, played in 100 or more plays in each of the last four games. That number might go down this year, especially in the September heat, but when the game is on the line, No. 7 will be on the field.

After battling injuries last year, Maurice Clarett hopes to be at full strength in 2003.

In Carter, the Buckeyes have a burner that will keep defenses honest. Childress is an elusive game-breaker with the ability to turn a short hitch into a long touchdown.

The coaches are anxious, too, to see Holmes and Hall in action. Both were very impressive last year as members of the scout team and then in the spring game. Holmes is a home run threat and is highly regarded by the coaching staff. Hall, at 6-3 and a solid 228, could also play tight end from time-to-time.

Alex Stepanovich makes all the calls up front for the Buckeyes.

When the Buckeyes button up their chin straps and run the ball, their arsenal includes a trio of ground hungry tailbacks in Clarett, Lydell Ross and Maurice Hall.

The 6-0, 230-pound Clarett combines speed and power with an insatiable desire to excel. He rushed for 1,237 yards and 16 touchdowns last year as a true freshman, despite missing five games with injuries.

Clarett was at his best in the big games, rushing for 175 yards against Texas Tech in the opener and 230 against nationally-ranked Washington State two weeks later. Bothered by a stinger that greatly lessened his effectiveness late in the season, he carried the ball 20 times for 119 yards and a touchdown in the win over Michigan. He also scored a pair of touchdowns, including the winning tally, in the Fiesta Bowl.

Ross and Hall give the Buckeyes unparalleled depth at the running back position. Both can put up big numbers and have proven so in key games. With Clarett injured at Cincinnati, Ross started and had a personal best 130 yards rushing. The Buckeyes needed every yard, too, in a 23-19 win. Hall, more of a scatback than the other two, scored the winning touchdown against Michigan, skirting around right end on an option play that propelled the Buckeyes to a 14-9 triumph. He has an extra gear that allows him to blow by defenders.

Branden Joe and Brandon Schnittker give the Buckeyes two dependable fullbacks. Joe is the returning starter, but Schnittker played extensively last year and is a fine player. Joe has greatly increased his strength since the bowl game and should be much more of a physical presence this year. The fullback is primarily a blocker in Ohio State's offensive scheme, but both Joe and Schnittker possess good ball skills.

In stark contrast to a year ago, offensive coordinator Jim Bollman, who also serves as the Buckeyes' offensive line tutor, has a battle-tested group of veterans to lead the way up front.

Not only are the returnees experienced and big – their average height and weight is 6-4 and 315 — they also are versatile. Stepanovich, who is being mentioned as a candidate for the Rimington Award, can play guard and, in a pinch, could fill in at tackle. Bishop, Clarke, Douglas and Olivea (an Ouland Trophy candidate) can play guard or tackle.

Sims and Mangold played extensively as true freshmen a year ago and are exceptional young players, who will challenge for additional playing time this year. The highly thought of Coleman and Datish were redshirted last season as freshmen, while Olds has made enormous progress after coming off hip surgery. Kne is a transfer, who played in the jumbo formation last year and always gave a solid effort. Redshirt freshman T.J. Downing, who has shifted from tight end to tackle, is another player who should see playing time.

Tight end Ben Hartsock, a second-team Academic All-American last year, rounds out the starters on offense. The 6-4 senior, who will be in his second year as a regular, is one of the top tight ends in the Big Ten. He has played in 38 games the past three years and has 18 career starts to his credit. Primarily known for his blocking ability, he also is a fine receiver and has averaged 9.1 yards per catch during his career.

"We have a veteran offensive unit," says Bollman. "Our goal this year is to be better and more consistent in everything we do. Consistency is the hallmark of a good offense."

Veteran Dustin Fox is in his third year as a starting cornerback.

On the other side of the line of scrimmage, defensive coordinator Mark Dantonio must come up with five new starters. But Dantonio, an absolute master of his trade, has a solid nucleus to build around and, as noted earlier, there are a number of outstanding young players who are waiting to step in and take their place in the spotlight.

Any discussion of the OSU defense has to begin with the front four, which a year ago combined for 49.5 tackles-for-loss and 24.5 sacks. With postseason honors candidates Smith (12.5 tackles-for-loss last year), Scott (a team-best 8.5 sacks) and Anderson (a veteran of 23 starts) all back for their senior years, the only new face up front will be junior Simon Fraser. A key reserve the past two years, the 6-6 Fraser will step in at rush end, with Scott sliding over to tackle as a replacement for senior Kenny Peterson. Marcus Green and Quinn Pitcock at the tackle spots and Joel Penton, Jay Richardson and Mike Kudla at the ends make this one of the Buckeyes' deepest positions. Green, who has lost 35 pounds and is in excellent shape, is a junior. Kudla played last year as a true freshman. The other three are redshirt freshmen.

The linebacker corps has lost All-American Matt Wilhelm in the middle and speedy Cie Grant on the outside. But steady senior Robert Reynolds (62 tackles last year) returns at the other outside spot and veteran Fred Pagac Jr. (27 career games) is expected to take over in the middle. Pagac elected to have shoulder surgery prior to the Fiesta Bowl in order to ensure a healthy start for the 2003 season.

Sophomore A.J. Hawk will replace Grant. Hawk played in every game last year and finished the season with 26 tackles. He is an outstanding young football player with a penchant for making plays (14 tackles in the spring game).

Sophomores Mike D'Andrea and Bobby Carpenter will back up Pagac and Reynolds, respectively, and junior Thomas Matthews will lineup behind Hawk. When he isn't with the offense as a tight end, Stan White Jr. will play linebacker.

Hawk, D'Andrea, Carpenter and White were four of the most heavily recruited linebackers in the country two years ago. They appear to be every bit as good as advertised.

The Buckeyes' defensive line is regarded as one of the best and deepest in college football.

Gamble and Dustin Fox return at the two corner positions. Gamble was amazing last year, starting the final six games at cornerback and finishing the season with 24 tackles and a team-best four interceptions to go along with his offensive statistics. The 6-2 junior, who in the Fiesta Bowl limited Miami's Andre Johnson to four receptions, spent most of his time with the defense in the spring and should be something special this year. The hard-hitting, extremely intelligent Fox will be in his third year as a starter. He is the Buckeyes' leading returning tackler with 84 a year ago (third on the team). He also led the Buckeyes in passes broken up with 14. Sophomore E.J. Underwood and freshman Ashton Youboty (who enrolled last winter quarter) are the primary backups. Both are solid young football players.

Robert Reynolds is the Buckeyes' lone returning starter at linebacker.

The Buckeyes must find two new safeties. Last year's senior captains, three-time All-American Mike Doss and four-year starter Donnie Nickey, are gone.

Senior Will Allen is expected to take over for Doss at strong safety. Allen was the Buckeyes' nickel back last year and has played extensively the last two years. His interception on the final play of the Michigan game preserved the Buckeyes' win. Donte Whitner, another true freshman, will be the backup. Whitner, who like Youboty enrolled last winter, was recruited as a cornerback, but was moved to safety in the spring and impressed the coaches with his quick grasp of the position.

Sophomores Nate Salley and Tyler Everett are the leading candidates to replace Nickey at the free spot. Both are extremely athletic and physical. Salley emerged from spring ball with a slight edge, but both will play a lot. Everett could wind up being the nickel back. Look for redshirt freshman Brandon Mitchell to play, too. He is another player who won't shy away from contact.

The Ohio State defense was one of the best in the nation last year, finishing second nationally in scoring defense (13.1 points per game) and third against the run (77.5).

"We have lost some very good football players, but we have some very good players returning," said Dantonio. "Hopefully, we can again be an aggressive unit that dictates the tempo.

"One of the things we want to do this year is force more turnovers, and score off those turnovers."

As is always the case with Tressel's teams, there will be a great deal of emphasis placed on all phases of the special teams.

With the record-setting Nugent returning for his junior year, the place-kicking duties seem to be in good hands. Nugent set nine school records last year on his way to becoming the first Ohio State place-kicker to receive first-team All-America honors.

The Buckeyes must replace another first-team All-American punter in Andy Groom, whose booming kicks saved the day on more than one occasion last year. But senior B.J. Sander kicked very well in the spring and appears ready to take over.

Additionally, senior Kyle Andrews returns for his second year as the long snapper. His steady performance last year resulted in a scholarship at the end of the season.

There also are a number of outstanding players on the coverage units, including, but not limited to, Jason Bond, Bryce Culver, Steven Moore, Harlen Jacobs, Mike Roberts and Joe Bradley.

"Good teams have to have good special teams play," said Tressel. "We spend a lot of time in that area, because every championship team I have been associated with, has had good special teams play."

In all the Buckeyes return 51 lettermen, 24 on offense, 22 on defense and five from the special teams. It is a talented, veteran unit. But the hurdles that lie ahead are formidable, including the season opener with Washington, a key intersectional game with North Carolina State, the addition of Iowa to the schedule and trips to Penn State and Michigan.

"Our schedule is as difficult as it has ever been," warns Tressel, "and there will be a bulls-eye on our backs every week. We need to stay in the moment and focus on the task at hand."

Ohio Stadium Policies and Procedures

PROHIBITED BEHAVIOR

Patrons throwing objects of any kind or demonstrating unruly behavior are subject to ejection from the stadium. Any ticket holder attempting to enter the field of play or engaging in postgame behavior that endangers the safety of student-athletes, coaches or other fans faces the loss of ticket buying privileges in subsequent years. Attempting to climb the goal posts, cutting up the Ohio Stadium turf, jumping onto the field from AA deck, and or taunting public safety officials would all be examples of inappropriate behavior. Cameras, movie cameras and video recording equipment are prohibited in the stadium.

CONCESSIONS

Concession stands are located in the concourse areas of A, B, C, D, and the south stadium. Vendors also sell various items throughout, including hot dogs, ice cream, popcorn, nachos, soft pretzels, candy, soft drinks in souvenir cups, coffee and hot chocolate during colder games. Pizza is sold at stands near sections 4A, 21A and 22A. Hamburgers, and hot dogs are sold at Coke Trailers outside the stadium prior to kickoff.

CONTAINERS

No containers of any sort (including non-disposable thermos containers) are permitted in the stadium. Cans, bottled goods, coolers and ice chests also are not permitted.

EMERGENCY PHONE CALLS

Fans expecting emergency phone calls should register at the Cingular Guest Center located at gates 16A and 19A. Fans will receive a pager free of charge and, if paged, can return to the Guest Services Center and use a phone free of charge. To reach the Guest Services Center, call 329-0900.

FIRST AID

First Aid stations are located near sections 16A, 17A, 9B, 12B, 23C, 24C and in the south stadium at 32A. If an emergency arises, contact the nearest usher or University Police Officer for assistance.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS

Disability accessible restrooms are located throughout the stadium. Arrangements for disability seating can be made by contacting the Athletics Ticket Office (614) 292-2624 in advanced of the game. Disability seating is limited so arrangements must be made early.

LOST AND FOUND

A lost and found window is maintained at the north end of the stadium (in the rotunda) until 30 minutes after the game. Found items should be turned in to an usher or the lost and found window. A permanent lost and found is maintained in the Ohio Stadium Facility Operations office (614) 292-2646.

OFFICIAL TEAM SHOP

Official Team Shops are located throughout the stadium near sections 11A, 12A, 23A, 24A, 18C and in the South Stadium. Merchandise may also be purchased on-line at hangonsloopy.com.

OPEN FIRES

Open fires are not permitted on the football parking lots. Grills, either propane or charcoal, must be used.

OPENING OF GATES

Gates to Ohio Stadium open two hours before kickoff.

PARKING

There is no overnight parking on any University lot before or after any game. Parking lots open at 7 a.m. the day of the game, no matter when kickoff is scheduled.

PROGRAMS

Official game programs are sold in concourse A, B and C Decks within the stadium and outside the stadium at several stands and tents.

PROHIBITED ITEMS

The following items are prohibited from being brought into Ohio Stadium: food, beverages, containers of any kind, backpacks, large bags, chair-back seats, video cameras, radios without headphones, banners, signs, noise makers and umbrellas.

Some guests have special health or medical needs that require them to bring certain items into the stadium, These guests should be directed to gates 9, 14 & 25.

All bags and containers are subject to search.

RE-ENTRY

There are no pass-out checks, so re-entry is not permitted.

RECREATIONAL VEHICLES

RV's with parking permits will park on the west side of Bill Davis stadium. There is no overnight parking either before or after a game. RV owners are encouraged to use the camping area at Griggs Dam, located two miles north of Lane Avenue off of State Rt. 33 (Riverside Drive), for overnight accommodations.

RESTROOMS

Restrooms are located in the concourse areas of A, B, C and D decks and in the south stadium. Disability accessible and family restrooms are located throughout the stadium in these areas.

SMOKING

Smoking, is not permitted anywhere in the stadium. This includes restrooms and any concourse and corridor areas.

TELEPHONES

Public pay telephones are located underneath the A-deck adjacent to sections 5A, 6A, 15A, 22A, 8B and the south stands.

CASH MACHINES

There are cash machines located in sections 6A, 7A, the south stands and the Huntington Club level.

TICKETS

All persons, including children of any age, must have a ticket for admission to Ohio Stadium. The Athletic Ticket Office is open from four hours before kickoff through the end of the first half.

WILL CALL

The Will Call window for tickets on Game Day is located in the southeast corner of the Jerome Schottenstein Center and opens four hours before kickoff.

Ohio State Sports Radio Network

WBNS RADIO 1460 THE FAN

All Ohio State football games are broadcast by the Ohio State Buckeyes Radio Sports Network with WBNS Radio serving as the flagship station for the 74-station, statewide network. Paul Keels is the play-by-play announcer. Former Buckeye All-America tackle Jim Lachey serves as color analyst and ex-OSU quarterback Jim Karsatos provides expert commentary from the sideline.

"The Buckeye Roundtable Show" can be heard each Monday throughout the season from 7-9 p.m. on the Ohio State network. Joining Keels, Lachey and Karsatos is yet another former Buckeye, quarterback Kirk Herbstreit, a member of ESPN's College GameDay telecast. The show will originate from different affiliate sites around the state from week-to-week.

The "The Coach's Call-In Show" airs every Thursday during the season on the Ohio State Buckeyes Radio Network. Keels, Herbstreit and Lachey serve as co-hosts.

History
11/22/80

BUCKEYE NOTES: Returns for his third year as a starter at defensive tackle ... listed on the preseason watch list for the Outland Trophy ... tough, competitive football player with a blue-collar mentality ... won second-team All-Big Ten honors last year and should be a first-team selection this year ... anchors the inside and gives everything he has on every play ... coaches love his work ethic and mental toughness ... soft-spoken off the field, but all business once he steps between the lines ... underrated by some, but not by his teammates ... one of those players who never wants to come out of the game ... relentless ... 31-game veteran ... rated the No. 7 defensive tackle in the nation by The Sporting News ... his gesture of sportsmanship with Miami quarterback Ken Dorsey at the end of the Fiesta Bowl Game was one of the most memorable moments of a very memorable season ... 2002 RECAP: A second-team All-Big Ten selection by the coaches and an honorable mention pick by the media ... missed the Indiana and Northwestern games with a partially torn calf muscle and did not start, but did play, against San Jose State ... seven stops against Kent State was his top game in terms of tackles ... most memorable play of the year came at Illinois when he batted down Jon Beutjer's fourth-down pass (one of three deflections on the year) on the final play of the game to preserve Ohio State's 23-16 overtime victory ... also recovered a fumble at Illinois ... his sack of Michigan quarterback John Navarre at the OSU 8-yard line began a string of three-consecutive negative plays and forced the Wolverines to settle for their third field goal of the game ... also had a sack in the season opener against Texas Tech ... finished with four tackles at the Fiesta Bowl, including a half sack ... 2001 RECAP: Stepped in for Ryan Pickett, who left early for the NFL, and had an outstanding first year as a starter ... started all 12 games and improved with each outing ... finished the season with 38 tackles, including 30 solo stops ... tied for second on the team in tackles-for-loss with nine ... also had three sacks ... named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week following the Minnesota game, where he had seven tackles, two sacks and two forced fumbles ... picked off his first career interception at Michigan and had eight tackles against the Wolverines ... 2000 RECAP: Appeared briefly in seven games for a total of 18 minutes ... totaled six tackles, including two sacks ... three of his tackles and one of his sacks came at Iowa, his top performance of the year ... recorded his other sack against Michigan State ... 1999 RECAP: Redshirted ... HIGH SCHOOL: Won first-team All-Ohio honors and was a USA Today Honorable Mention All-America selection ... undefeated and state heavyweight wrestling champion as a senior ... PERSONAL: Parents are Jim and Sandy Anderson ... an older brother, Bob, played football at Baldwin Wallace and another brother, Jim, played at Wooster College ... enjoys country music and riding motorcycles.

Long Snapper
5-11, 245, Sr./Jr.
Middletown High School
Middletown, Ohio

Criminology
9/10/81

BUCKEYE NOTES: Returns for his second year as the starting long snapper ... does all the centering on punts and placements ... is extremely accurate and gets good velocity on the ball ... went through the entire 2002 campaign with NO errant snaps ... played a key role in the success of last year's kicking game (one of the best in the country) and is being counted on to do the same again this year ... a former walk-on who was rewarded with a scholarship at the end of last season ... 2002 RECAP: Took over the long snapping duties on a regular basis and did an exceptional job ... started all 14 games as the Buckeyes' long snapper ... certainly instrumental in the success of All-Americans Andy Groom (fourth nationally in punting) and Mike Nugent (seven school field goal records) ... 2001 RECAP: First collegiate action came against South Carolina in the Outback Bowl ... HIGH SCHOOL: Played defensive tackle as a sophomore and junior and moved to defensive end his senior year ... earned second-team all-league and honorable mention All-Southwestern Ohio honors as a senior ... PERSONAL: His parents are John and Judy Andrews.

83 Redgie Arden

Defensive End
6-4, 240, Jr./So.
Ironton High School
Ironton, Ohio

Undeclared
10/21/81

BUCKEYE NOTES: Promising young prospect who has played three different positions in as many years at Ohio State, but appears to have now found a home at defensive end ... recruited as a linebacker but was moved to tight end in the spring of 2002 where he remained until this past spring when he was moved to the Leo, or rush end, position ... coaches like his physical play and ability to seek out and chase down the ball carrier ... underwent shoulder surgery following spring ball so his status for the fall is uncertain ... if able to return, he should figure in an already deep rotation and position himself for future playing time ... also a solid special teams player ... 2002 RECAP: Appeared in 11 games and started the Illinois game in a two-tight end set ... had four receptions on the year, good for 50 yards and an average of 12.5 yards per catch ...three catches against Indiana was his top game ... also had a 14-yard reception against San Jose State ... earned his first letter ... 2001 RECAP: Redshirted ... HIGH SCHOOL: A first-team SuperPrep All-American ... Division IV Associated Press co-defensive player of the year ... three-time first-team All-Ohio at linebacker ...107 tackles, eight sacks and three interceptions as a senior ... first player to verbally commit to OSU in the 2001 class ... also played basketball and was a member of the track and field team ... PERSONAL: Son of Phillip and Sally Arden ... one sister, Amber ... enjoys hunting, fishing and weightlifting.

7 Chris Gamble

Flanker/Cornerback
6-2, 194 Jr./Jr.
Dillard High School
Sunrise, Fla.

Sport & Leisure Studies
3/11/83

BUCKEYE NOTES: Certainly the most versatile and arguably the best overall player in college football ... starts at flanker AND cornerback for the Buckeyes and excels at both positions ... also returns punts and kickoffs ... was chosen by his teammates as Co-MVP of last year's team, earned first-team All-Big Ten honors on defense, was a second-team pick on The Sporting News All-America team and a third-team pick by the Associated Press ... played 100 or more plays in each of the Buckeyes last four games, including 128 at Illinois ... OSU's second-leading receiver with 31 catches for 499 yards, including a 57-yard grab against Miami in the national championship game that set up a 44-yard field goal to give the Buckeyes a 17-7 lead ... the latter reception was the longest pass play of the year for the Buckeyes ... led the team in interceptions with four, all of which literally were game savers ... also had six passes broken up and 24 tackles ... began the 2002 season as the starting flanker but wound up starting the last six games at both positions ... lack of depth at cornerback, coupled with his demonstrated athletic ability in defensive drills when the receivers and defensive backs would switch positions, led the coaches to consider playing him on both sides of the ball ...first defensive action was against Cincinnati, first defensive start was against Penn State, was a regular the rest of the way on both offense and defense ... turned in a superb defensive effort in the Fiesta Bowl, holding Miami receiver Andre Johnson to four receptions, with three of those coming in the first quarter ... never seems to get tired and clearly enjoys playing on both sides of the ball ... has been compared by Coach Jim Tressel to Cris Carter (Tressel coached Carter for two years while an assistant at Ohio State in 1984 & '85) ...coaches feel he is just tapping the surface of his enormous potential, especially on offense ... 2002 RECAP: Saw his first defensive action at Cincinnati and intercepted a pass in the end zone on his first play at cornerback ... also deflected a pass in the corner of the end zone late in that game when the Bearcats were threatening to score the game-winning touchdown ... his second interception came in the end zone at Wisconsin with the Badgers driving late in the game ... his third pick, which he returned 40 yards for a touchdown, came against Penn State and was the Buckeyes only touchdown in a hard-fought 13-7 win ... fourth pick came at Purdue and ended the Boilers' final drive in a 10-6 victory ... top game as a receiver was six catches for 87 yards against Kent State ... had at least three catches three other times including Purdue ... at least one reception in every game, including a 48-yard grab at Northwestern that, at the time, represented a career long ... scored his lone offensive touchdown of the year on a 43-yard reverse against Indiana ... had a 95-yard touchdown return called back at Cincinnati, but still averaged 23 yards per kick return and 8.4 yards per punt return ... his 56-yard kick return to open the second half at Northwestern led to an OSU field goal and a 17-9 Buckeye lead ... 2001 RECAP: Played in 11 games (did not play against Wisconsin) and had five receptions, including a crucial 12-yard grab at Michigan ... two receptions for 32 yards in the Outback Bowl ... had an 11-yard reception in the season opener against Akron and a 17-yard catch at Indiana ... averaged 16.4 yards per punt return on five chances ... HIGH SCHOOL: First-team All-Florida selection ... All-Broward County selection ... considered one of the top skilled athletes in the country by the OSU coaching staff ... hauled in 65 receptions for 1,012 yards and 10 touchdowns as a senior ... returned two kicks and one punt for touchdowns ... team played in the state championship game in 2000 ... also played basketball and was a starter as a junior when his team captured the state title ... PERSONAL: Son of Latricia Gamble.

BUCKEYE NOTES: Gave the 57,200 fans on hand at the spring game a preview of things to come by totaling 200 all-purpose yards and scoring a pair of touchdowns – one on an electrifying 79-yard punt return and the other on a 23-yard pass reception ... is quick and elusive and gives the Buckeyes yet another game-breaker to add to their offensive arsenal ... heads into the fall as the backup to Chris Gamble at flanker ... his emergence will allow the Buckeyes to rest Gamble on offense from time to time without missing a beat in terms of putting a legitimate offensive threat on the field ... can run away from defenders and turn a short completion into a big gainer ... like teammate Roy Williams was redshirted last year but was very impressive as a member of the scout team and had the coaches buzzing with excitement about things to come ... four receptions for 65 yards and five kick returns for another 135 in the spring game did nothing to discourage that enthusiasm ... will probably backup Gamble on punt returns ... one of those players who is a threat to go all the way anytime he touches the ball ...2002 RECAP: Redshirted and did not see any game action, but was very impressive throughout the season with the scout team ... HIGH SCHOOL: Was a three-year starter helping Glades Central to state titles his sophomore and junior years and a 12-1 record his senior year ... had 33 receptions for 970 yards and 10 touchdowns as a senior ... was the MVP of the Outback Steakhouse All-Star Game with five receptions for 121 yards and a TD ... also played in the Cali-Florida All-Star Game ... three-sport star, who also played basketball and ran track ... the track team won the state title his junior year and the basketball team was runner-up his senior season ... his 4 X 4 team won the state title is junior and senior years ... PERSONAL: Parents are Santonio Holmes and Patricia Brown ... is a second cousin of Jacksonville running back Fred Taylor.

BUCKEYE NOTES: One of the top receivers in college football and a leading candidate for postseason honors in 2003 ... made one clutch catch after another last year, none more dramatic than his game-winning 37-yard touchdown reception on fourth-and-one at Purdue that gave unbeaten Ohio State a 10-6 lead and hard-fought victory with 1:36 to play ... Ohio State fans voted that catch as the "Play of the Year" for the Buckeyes in 2002, but his 17-yard sideline grab on fourth-and-14 in the first overtime on the national championship game at the Fiesta Bowl was a close second ... his combination of size, speed, and sure, soft hands make him a defender's nightmare ... finished the 2002 season with 61 receptions for 1,076 yards and six touchdowns, all team bests and personal highs, and now ranks sixth in OSU annals in both career receptions (110) and career receiving yardage (2,064) ... effortless receiver with the ability to catch the ball in a crowd, often times going up and over would-be defenders ... will be in his third year as a starter and heads into the fall with at least one reception in 26-consecutive games ... despite his heroics last year, he remains somewhat of an underrated player ... nobody better in the clutch ... 2002 RECAP: Was the favorite target of quarterback Craig Krenzel when the game was on the line as its frequently was in 2002 ... while his clutch catches at Purdue and against Miami in the Fiesta Bowl will forever be part of Buckeye lore in a magical season, he had equally important receptions in numerous other games, including Wisconsin and Illinois, that kept Ohio State's national championship hopes alive ...had two huge receptions at Wisconsin, including a 45-yard grab between two defenders that set up the winning touchdown in a 19-14 Ohio State victory ... his 50-yard TD catch at Illinois – on which he fought of a defender and the glare to the TV lights – gave Ohio State its first lead at 13-10 in a 23-16 overtime thriller and was his longest reception of the year ... topped the century mark in receiving yards against San Jose State (7/136), Wisconsin (5/114) and Illinois (6/147) ... also had seven catches against Indiana ... his reception total was the sixth best in OSU history, and his yardage figure ranked fourth ... named to a second-team spot on the All-Big Ten team ... 2001 RECAP: Gradually developed into one of the top young receivers in the Big Ten ... finished the season with 49 catches for 988 yards and three touchdowns ... four 100-yard games, including 172 at Penn State and 152 against South Carolina in the Outback Bowl ...had five receptions of 40-or-more yards, including catches of 68 and 66 yards in the Penn State game ... top effort in terms of receptions was 10 for 155 yards against Illinois ... had a reception in every game ... his average of 20.4 yards per reception during the regular season was third in the Big Ten, just two-tenths off the lead ... 2000 RECAP: Logged a total of 22 minutes in a reserve role, but did earn his first varsity letter ... HIGH SCHOOL: Rated as the No. 2 athlete in the state of Florida ... rotated between running back and receiver on offense as a senior ... also played linebacker and defensive back ... played basketball and ran track (200, 400 and triple jump) ... was the Track Athlete of the Year in Tampa as a senior ... PERSONAL: Parents are Geri and Michael Jenkins ... enjoys video games and movies (enjoys comedy) ... has a younger sister, Tiffany, who is a high school junior.

Molecular Genetics

BUCKEYE NOTES: An outstanding leader and winner in every sense of the word ... tough, smart and competitive ... will be in his second year as the starting quarterback and should be a candidate for all the postseason awards ... heads into the 2003 campaign with a 15-1 record as a starter, including a double overtime win over Miami in the national championship game and two wins over Michigan ...was selected as the offensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl, where he led both teams in rushing with 81 yards and also scored a pair of touchdowns ... carried the ball 19 times against Miami ... is a heady, gifted player, who seems to be at his best when the game is on the line ... repeatedly rallied the Buckeyes last year, turning in key plays in narrow wins over Cincinnati, Wisconsin, Purdue, Illinois, Michigan and Miami on the march to the national championship ... his clutch 17-yard completion to Michael Jenkins on fourth-and 14 in the first overtime of the Miami game enabled the Buckeyes to tie the score and force the second extra session ... is the first Ohio State signal caller since Cornelius Greene (1974-75) to lead the Buckeyes to consecutive victories over Michigan ... spends countless hours studying films and is a true "Field General" ... has few peers when it comes to getting his team out of a bad play and into a play that will work against whatever defense has been called ... threw for 2,110 yards (ninth best in school history) and 12 touchdowns last year and was intercepted just seven times ... had played a total of 70 minutes in 10 games heading into last year ... his 2,453 career passing yards place him 10th on OSU's all time list just ahead of Rex Kern (2,444, 1968-70), who led the Buckeyes to the 1968 national title ... has cracked the bottom of the school's career total offense list with 2,802 yard, a total that currently puts him in 18th place on that list ... is a deceptively strong runner who won't hesitate to lower his shoulder ...named to the Big Ten's All-Academic team and was a second-team Academic All-America as a junior ... also received the Socrates Award following the season ... the latter is presented by The Sporting News in conjunction with The March of Dimes, and goes to a student-athlete who has excelled in both athletics and academics during the previous year ... 2002 RECAP: Selected by his teammates as Co-MVP ... guided the Buckeyes to their first unbeaten season since 1968 and a Division IA-record 14 victories ... ran for the winning touchdown at Cincinnati with 3:44 to play, pulling down the ball, shaking off a tackler at the 1-yard line and then lunging for the end zone in a 23-19 win ... hit tight end Ben Hartsock on a 3-yard TD pass in the fourth quarter at Wisconsin, putting Ohio State on top to stay at 19-14 ... in what was arguably the play of the year in college football, he threw a perfect 37-yard touchdown strike to Michael Jenkins (into the teeth of a strong wind) on fourth down at Purdue with 1:36 to play, lifting OSU to a 10-6 victory ... came up with a key 14-yard scramble on third-and-10 in the overtime at Illinois that set up the Buckeyes' winning touchdown ... completed 59.4 percent of his passes and ranked 14th nationally in passing efficiency with a 140.90 figure ... tied a school record by completing 12-consecutive passes (his last throw against Texas Tech and his first 11 against Kent State) ... set personal highs against San Jose State, throwing for 241 yards and three touchdowns ... his 57-yard completion to Chris Gamble in the bowl game was his longest completion of the year ... had 2,478 yards in total offense, which ranks as the fifth best one-season showing in OSU annals ... 22 of his 29 completions on third downs resulted in first downs ... 2001 RECAP: Came off the bench against Illinois and completed 11 of 23 passes for 164 yards and a touchdown in his first action of the year ... made his first start the following week at Michigan and led the Buckeyes to their first win in Ann Arbor since 1987 ... completed five of just nine passes against the Wolverines, but directed the offense with a poise and presence that belied the fact it was his first collegiate start ... started against South Carolina in the Outback Bowl, but saw only limited action (two series) ... had played in just seven games prior to Illinois ... 2000 RECAP: Battled Scott McMullen for the No. 2 spot all year long ... played in seven games and completed five-of-nine passes for 57 yards ... completed two-of-five passes for 27 yards against Fresno State and was two-for-three for 16 yards against South Carolina in the Outback Bowl ... 1999 RECAP: Redshirted ... HIGH SCHOOL: Completed 60 percent of his passes and threw for 1,760 yards and 20 touchdowns as a senior ... USA Today honorable mention All-American as a senior ... PERSONAL: Parents are Allen and Debbie Krenzel ... his older brother, Brian, played football at Duke and is now in medical school at Louisville ... would like to attend medical school himself after his career is over at Ohio State (he and Brian would be the first two medical doctors in the family) ... spent this past summer doing medical research at the OSU Medical Center ... hobbies are golf (10 handicap) and fishing ... named to a second-team spot on the 2002 Verizon Academic All-America team ... became engaged this past summer to Beth Barr, an OSU senior.

Dublin Coffman High School
Dublin, Ohio

Biology

BUCKEYE NOTES: Heads into the fall hoping to land a spot in the two deep and compete for playing time behind incumbent Adrien Clarke at left guard ... is a driven player with high expectations and is willing to work hard to improve ... missed all of last year after undergoing arthroscopic hip surgery in September ... was able to resume some practice late in the year, but was not able to play... the night and day difference in what he is able to do physically since the surgery gives the coaches hope that he can be a significant contributor ... coaches like his work ethic and competitive attitude ... one of two scholarship offensive linemen in the freshman class of 2001 ... coming off a good spring showing ... 2002 RECAP: Had surgery on his hip in September and wound up sitting out the entire season ... 2001 RECAP: Redshirted ... HIGH SCHOOL: First-team Division I Associated Press All-Ohio selection ... First-team Ohio Capital Conference selection ... considered to be the No. 1 offensive lineman in the state by SuperPrep ... starting center and long snapper since his sophomore season ... played in the inaugural National High School All-Star game ... selected to play in the Big 33 All-Star game ... also a two-time state qualifier in wrestling ... PERSONAL: Son of Bob and Pam Olds ... from a very athletic family — his father played lacrosse at West Point and his mother played basketball at the University of North Dakota ... three of his uncles played college football.

BUCKEYE NOTES: Heads into the fall as the heir apparent to four-year starter Donnie Nickey at free safety ... a talented athlete with the potential to be a standout at this level ... played in all 14 games last year as a true freshman, logging a total of 34 minutes and recording six total tackles ... most of his playing time was as a member of the special teams, but he was the No. 2 cornerback behind Dustin Fox on the Fiesta Bowl depth chart ... moved back to safety in the spring and wasted little time establishing himself as the leading candidate to succeed Nickey ... coaches like his work ethic and understanding of the game ... has excellent range, is a sure tackler and has big play potential ... also lettered in basketball for the Buckeyes, joining the basketball team after the bowl game and playing in a total of 10 games (8 points on the year) ... 2002 RECAP: Earned his first varsity letter ... had six tackles (three solo and three assists) ... saved a touchdown with a PBU in the end zone against Kent State ... made a key special teams tackle against Cincinnati ... HIGH SCHOOL: A talented and highly regarded athlete, who was ranked as the nation's eighth best safety prospect by Rivals.com ... helped lead Aquinas to a glittering 14-1 record and a berth in the Class 5A state championship game as a senior ... finished the 2001 season with 76 tackles, including four tackles-for-loss ... blocked a whopping eight kicks ... alternated between cornerback and safety during his three years as a starter in high school ... also played basketball and was a starter as a junior when Aquinas won the state championship (he was named to the all-tournament team) ... competed in track in the spring and won the state long jump title as a senior ... PERSONAL: Parents are Nate and Pat Salley ... high school coach was George Smith ... enjoys writing poetry.

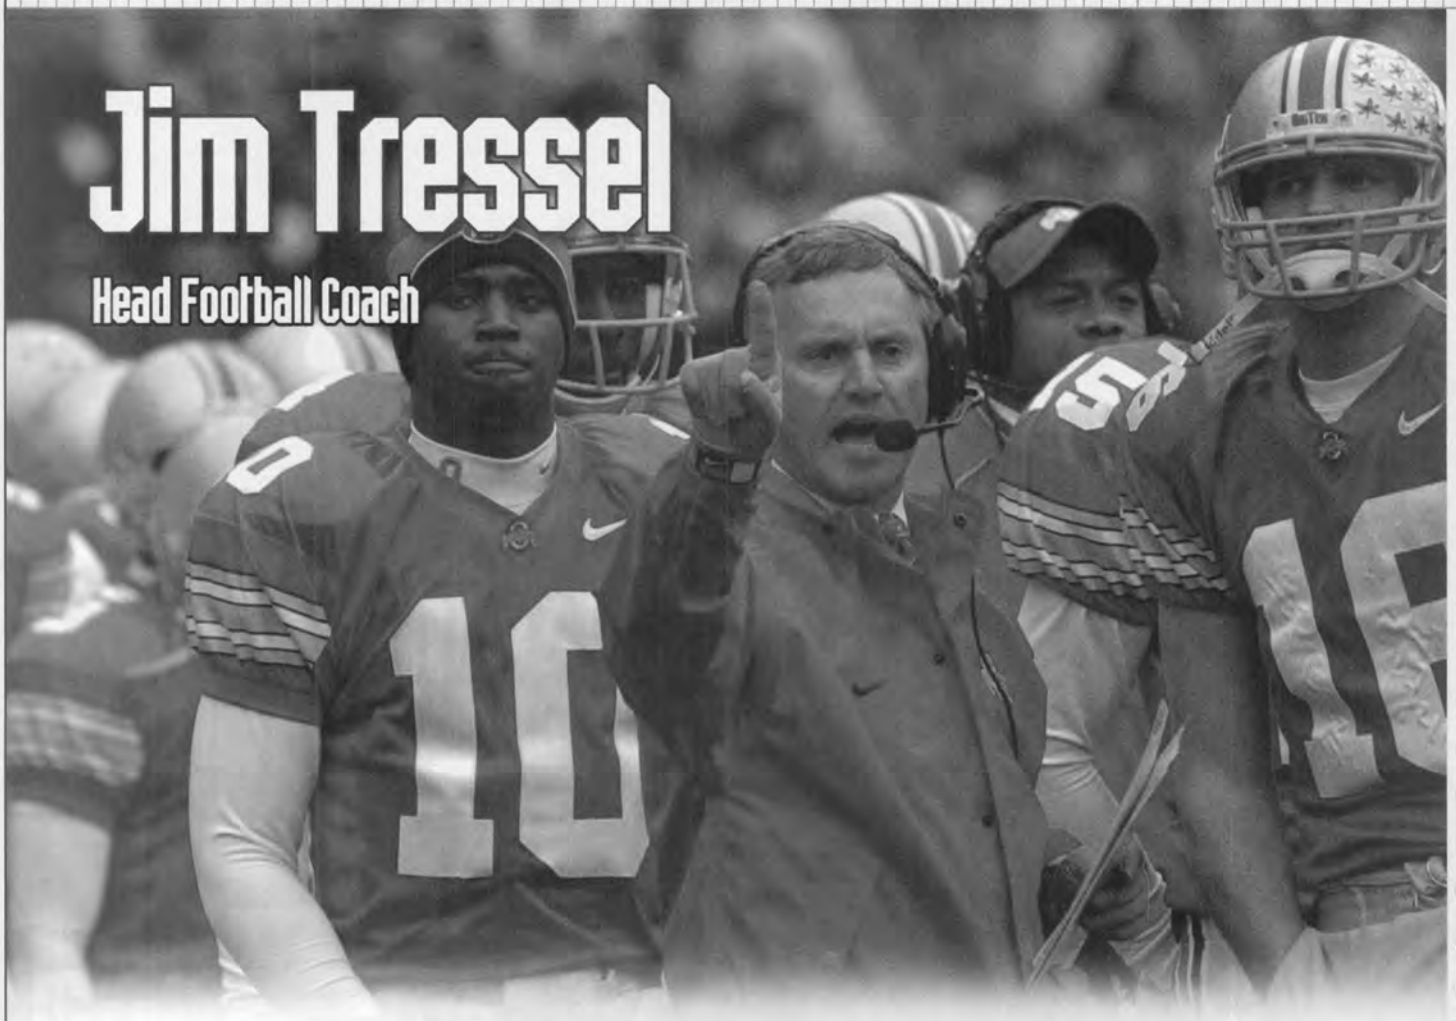
Jim Tressel

Head Football Coach



Jim Tressel has built Ohio State into a national contender almost overnight. Now in his third year with the Buckeyes, his two-year resume in Columbus includes an overall record of 21-5, a perfect 14-0 season, a Big Ten co-championship and the 2002 National Championship.

Named as the Buckeyes 22nd head coach Jan. 18, 2001, Tressel led his first Buckeye squad to a 7-5 record that included a dramatic road win over archrival Michigan in the regular-season finale and a berth in the Outback Bowl. Last year, Ohio State literally came from out of nowhere to capture the school's, and the Big Ten's, first consensus national title since 1968. The Buckeyes achieved the elusive title by posting a 13-0 regular-season record and then upsetting top-ranked Miami in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 3 in a 31-24 double-overtime thriller.

Tressel was showered with accolades following the 2002 campaign. He was named National Coach of the Year by the America Football Coaches Association (an award he won three times at Division 1-AA Youngstown State), thus becoming the first person in the history of the AFCA to win that honor at two different schools. He also received the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award from the Football Writers Association of America. Additionally, Tressel was selected as the Bobby Dodd and the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year. He also was the choice of the Touchdown Club of Columbus and the Pigskin Club of Washington D.C. as National Coach of the Year.

Prior to coming to Ohio State, Tressel spent 15 seasons as head coach at Youngstown State. He heads into the 2003 campaign with a lifetime record of 156-

Coach Tressel chats with ABC's Jack Arute following a Buckeye victory.

62-2 in 17 years. In his two years at Ohio State, he is 21-5 for all games and 13-3 in Big Ten play. The Buckeyes have won 14 consecutive regular-season and nine-straight Big Ten games heading into the upcoming season.

Tressel originally signed a five-year contract at Ohio State that would have taken him through the 2005 season. This past June he was given a new contract that runs through 2008 and may be extended for an additional three years.

"Ohio State is one of the great institutions of higher learning in this country and I am enormously proud to be the head football coach here," said Tressel upon signing his new contract. "I look forward to spending at least the next six years here and working hard to accomplish the goals that we have set for this team and our student-athletes."

At Youngstown State, Tressel was one of the most respected Division 1-AA coaches in America. His years there were ripe with success, the Penguins winning four national championships and qualifying for the Division 1-AA playoffs a remarkable 10 times. During his stay at YSU, he compiled an overall record of 135-57-2 and was a four-time pick as the Division 1-AA National Coach of the Year.

Tressel's Ohio State roots run deep.

His father, the late Lee Tressel, played, albeit briefly, at Ohio State before his promising collegiate career was cut short by World War II. As a youth, Jim grew up shagging balls for Cleveland Browns' great Lou "The Toe" Groza who also attended Ohio State. Both the elder Tressel, who would go on to become a coaching legend at Baldwin Wallace College in northeastern Ohio, and Groza, a family friend and neighbor, were lifelong Ohio State fans, a feeling not lost on the younger Tressel.

That bond grew even stronger in 1983 when Jim, in the infancy of his own coaching career, was named quarterbacks and receivers coach at Ohio State. During a memorable three-year stay in Columbus, the Buckeyes won 27 games, captured the 1984 Big Ten Championship and played in the Fiesta, Rose and Citrus bowls.

Following the 1985 season, Tressel, at age 33, left Ohio State to become head coach at Youngstown State. In addition to capturing four national titles, the Penguins also appeared in two other championship games.

Additionally, five of Tressel's teams won 12 or more games in a season, including his 1994 championship squad, which fashioned a 14-0-1 record. His 1991, '92, '93 and '94 teams all played in the national championship tilt, becoming just the second Division 1-AA school to make four-consecutive appearances in the title game.

Tressel was selected as National Coach of the Year in 1991, '93, '94 and '97. When he left Youngstown State, he was the second-most successful coach in school history, trailing only Dwight "Dike" Beede, who amassed 147 wins in a 32-year span.

But Tressel's won-lost record, as extraordinary as it is, was only part of the reason for his appeal during the Ohio State search process.

Equally impressive was the showing of the Youngstown State team in the classroom, where during his last two years a total of 67 players achieved a grade point average of 3.00 or better during the fall semester.

Tressel also was deeply involved in the Youngstown community, taking an active leadership role in a number of key civic issues and working extensively with Ronald McDonald's Children's Charities and the Salvation Army. His genuine concern for the people of Youngstown and the Mahoning Valley area made him a community icon.

"Our goal will be to uphold and build upon the great tradition that is Ohio State, and to develop each of our student-athletes to their fullest potential both on and off the field," Tressel said. "We will stress academics, athletics and community responsibility. The two greatest days in our student-athletes lives should be the day they walk across the stage to receive their diploma and the day they slip a championship ring on their finger."

Coach Tressel answers questions at a Jan. 4 press conference.

After accepting the Ohio State job, Tressel immediately hit the recruiting trail, literally going coast-to-coast in an effort to tie up any loose ends that might have resulted from the Buckeyes not having a head coach for 17 days. The result was a consensus Top 20 class.

Next, Tressel tackled the task of putting his staff together, ultimately deciding to bring in six new assistants and retain three members of the previous staff. Eight of his nine assistants are from Ohio and the ninth coached in the Buckeye State. It is a diverse group that brings NFL, Big Ten, Big East, ACC, Big 12, SEC, Pac-10 and Conference USA experience to Ohio State. The Sporting News' 2003 College Football Yearbook ranks the Ohio State staff as the second best football staff in the country.

In 2002, that staff landed one of the top recruiting classes in the nation, a group that was heralded as one of the finest ever assembled at Ohio State. Ten of those players were on the two-deep and saw significant playing time last year. The remainder of that group is expected to make a strong impact in 2003.

Tressel was born in Mentor, Ohio, where his father reeled off 34-consecutive wins as a high school coach before becoming the head coach at Massillon High School. But he spent most of his childhood in Berea, more often than not accompanying his father to football practices and games at Baldwin Wallace.

Tressel graduated from Berea High School in 1971. He played for his father at Baldwin Wallace, earning four letters at quarterback and winning all-conference honors as a senior in 1974. He graduated cum laude in 1975 with a degree in education.

Following in his father's footsteps, Jim embarked upon his coaching career in the fall of 1975 as a graduate assistant at Akron. He remained at Akron through the 1978 season, serving in a full-time capacity his last three years as coach of the quarterbacks, receivers and running backs. While at Akron, he earned his master's degree.

Tressel spent the 1979 and '80 seasons as quarterbacks and receivers coach at Miami of Ohio. He left the "Cradle of Coaches" in 1981 to become the quarterbacks coach at Syracuse, where he remained for two years before returning to his home state in 1983 as a member of Earle Bruce's Ohio State staff.

In Tressel's first year at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a 9-3 record and defeated Pittsburgh in the Fiesta Bowl. OSU scored the winning touchdown on a 39-yard pass from quarterback Mike Tomczak to split end Thad Jemison with 39 seconds left in the game. Not a bad way for the Buckeyes' new quarterbacks and receivers coach to begin his stay in Columbus.

In 1984 and '85, Tressel was given the added responsibility of coaching the Buckeyes' running backs. The '84 team won the Big Ten and played in the Rose Bowl, and Tressel protégé, junior tailback Keith Byars, finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting. In 1985, the Buckeyes defeated BYU in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

Tressel's departure for Youngstown State at the end of the 1985 campaign came as no surprise. Widely regarded as one of the up-and-coming young assistant coaches in college football, he had paid his dues and was ready for the next step.

Still, the transition to head coach was not easy. Tressel's first team lost its first four games and finished with a 2-9 record. His first win as a college coach came against Tennessee Tech, Oct. 11, in Youngstown. The score was 30-6.

But from that humble beginning, Tressel built a powerhouse.

In 1987, the second-year coach guided the Penguins to an 8-4 record and their first appearance in the Division I-AA playoffs. YSU won the Ohio Valley Conference title that year and Tressel was named OVC Coach of the Year.

In 1989, the Penguins began an incredible run of six-consecutive playoff appearances, winning three national championships and playing in four-consecutive title games between 1991 and 1994.

Tressel's first national crown came in 1991, when the Penguins defeated Marshall, 25-17, in the championship game. As a result of that victory, Jim and his dad (who died in 1981) became the only father-and-son combination in college football to win national championships (Lee Tressel won the 1978 Division III crown at Baldwin Wallace).

The Penguins lost a rematch with Marshall the following year, but won the rubber game with the Thundering Herd in 1993 for their second I-AA title in three years. They then made it three-out-of four in 1994 with a 28-14 win over Boise State.

Tressel's fourth national title came in 1997, when the Penguins defeated McNeese State, 10-9, in the championship game. Youngstown State also played for the title in 1999, but lost to Georgia Southern in the finals.

During the decade of the 1990s, Youngstown State had a combined record of 103-27-2, the most wins by any Division I-AA team and the fourth most of any I-A or I-AA program in the country.

In 2000, Tressel kicked off the millennium on a successful note by guiding his team to a 9-3 record and its 10th appearance in the playoffs. As it turned out, that was his last season at Youngstown State. But because of the positive impact he had on the school and the community, his many fans in Youngstown continue to follow his career at Ohio State.

Tressel's list of accolades includes being selected as the Chevrolet National Coach of the Year in 1993, '94 and '97; the American Football Coaches Association National Coach of the Year in 1991, '94 and 2002; and the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year in 1994 and 2002. He also was the AFCA's Regional Coach of the Year in 1987 and '93 and a six-time pick as Ohio Coach of the Year.

In a career filled with highlights, Tressel recorded his 100th career victory against Indiana State in 1997. He is the third member of his family to reach that plateau, joining his father and his older brother, Dick (currently the OSU associate director of football operations), who coached at Hamline University in Minnesota. This past season, Jim recorded his 150th win when Ohio State defeated Wisconsin. With the win over Michigan, he equaled his father's total at Baldwin Wallace. As a family, Lee, Jim and Dick have won 435 games. The family has another up-and-coming young coach in Dick's son, Mike, who will serve as a graduate assistant with the OSU defense this fall.

Jim is actively involved with the American Football Coaches Association, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Outstanding Young Men of America. He and his wife, Ellen, who is a graduate of Youngstown State, live in nearby Upper Arlington. They are the parents of four children: Zak (7/28/79), Carlee (11/23/82), Eric (9/18/83) and Whitney (8/1/85).

Coaches Tressel and Paterno before last year's game in Columbus.

Jim Bollman

Offensive Coordinator and Offensive Line, third season

Jim Bollman has completed two seasons as a member of the Ohio State football staff. Bollman is the Buckeyes' offensive coordinator and also coaches the offensive line.

In his first year at Ohio State, he played a major role in the development of All-America center LeCharles Bentley, who was named winner of the Dave Rimington Award following the 2001 season as the best center in the country. In 2002, Bollman helped first-year starter Alex Stepanovich blossom into one of the best centers in the Big Ten. This year's offensive line has been rated by The Sporting News as the best in the country.

A native of Ashtabula, Ohio, Bollman came to Ohio State from the Chicago Bears, where he spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as coach of the tight ends. He also spent the 1998 season in the NFL as tight ends coach for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Bollman played his college football at Ohio University. He won four letters as an offensive lineman for the Bobcats and was team captain as a senior in 1976. He graduated from Ohio University in 1977 with a degree in education.

Bollman launched his coaching career in June of 1977 as a graduate assistant at Miami (Ohio). In January of 1978, he was named offensive line coach, a position he held until 1982, when he accompanied head coach Tom Reed to North Carolina State.

During his three years at N.C. State, Bollman was the assistant head coach. He also coached the offensive line in 1983 and '84 and the inside linebackers in 1985.

In 1986, Bollman began a productive five-year association with Jim Tressel at Youngstown State. Bollman was defensive coordinator his first three years at YSU and offensive coordinator his last two. During his stay at Youngstown, the Penquins qualified for the Division I-AA Playoffs three times.

Following the 1990 season, Bollman was named offensive line coach at the University of Virginia. He remained there four years, helping the Cavaliers to three bowl appearances.

In December of 1994, Bollman joined Nick Saban's staff at Michigan State. He spent three seasons as the Spartans' offensive line coach. In 1997, the Spartans allowed a Big Ten-low 16 sacks.

Jim and his wife Terri, a native of Dayton, have two daughters: Courtney (8/29/81) and Stephanie (4/18/84).

Bill Conley

Recruiting Coordinator and Tight Ends, 17th season

Bill Conley is now in his 17th season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. In addition to coaching the Buckeyes' tight ends, Conley also serves as OSU's recruiting coordinator.

Conley is widely regarded as one of the premier recruiting coordinators in college football. Ohio State's 1996 class was ranked No. 1 in the country by several recruiting services and the 2002 class rated No. 2. Following the 1999 season, The Sporting News selected him as one of the top five recruiters in the country.

Conley, a native of Paintsville, Ky., and a 1972 graduate of Ohio State, has worked for three head coaches at Ohio State – Earle Bruce, John Cooper and now Jim Tressel.

This is actually Conley's second tour of duty with Ohio State. He coached the Buckeyes' linebackers between 1984 and 1987, then spent three years away from his alma mater before returning in 1991 as recruiting coordinator. During his first stint, he helped develop a number of outstanding players, including All-Americans Chris Spielman and Pepper Johnson.

Conley played three years of football for the Buckeyes, walking on as a sophomore and later receiving a scholarship from head coach Woody Hayes. He won two letters at offensive guard.

Following graduation, Conley embarked upon a highly successful high school career, posting a combined 12-year record of 78-39-3 during stops at London, Groveport and Middletown high schools in Ohio.

Conley joined Bruce's staff at the end of the 1983 season. During his four years with the Buckeyes, OSU won two Big Ten championships and played in three bowl games, including the Rose and Cotton bowls.

Conley coached at nearby Dublin Coffman High School from 1988 to 1990, but returned to Ohio State in 1991 to take over recruiting.

In 1992, Conley took on the added responsibility of coaching the Buckeyes' defensive ends. One of his protégés, Mike Vrabel, was a member of the 2002 Super Bowl champion New England Patriots.

In 1997, Conley switched to the offensive side of the ball as coach of the tight ends.

Bill has two sons, Billy (10/4/75) and Craig (3/22/82).

The Conley Family (l-r) - Bill, Craig and Billy

Joe Daniels

Quarterbacks and Receivers, third season

Joe Daniels is in his third season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. He coaches the Buckeyes' quarterbacks and receivers. In 2002, Daniels played a major role last year in the development of quarterback Craig Krenzel and split end Michael Jenkins, both of whom enjoyed their best years as Buckeyes.

Daniels is a native of Bethel Park, Pa. Prior to coming to Ohio State, he spent four years at the University of Cincinnati. He was the Bearcats' assistant head coach and offensive coordinator in 2000.

Daniels graduated from Slippery Rock in 1964 with a degree in physical education. He played running back in college and was a four-year letter winner at Slippery Rock.

Daniels launched his coaching career in 1964 as a high school coach in Johnstown, Pa. He became a graduate assistant at East Stroudsburg State in 1966 and landed his first full-time position as an assistant at the University of New Hampshire in 1967.

In 1968, Daniels took over as quarterbacks and receivers coach at Boston College. He remained there for 10 years before leaving in 1978 to become quarterbacks coach at West Virginia. He coached the Mountaineers for two years (1978-79), leaving in 1980 to become running backs coach and then QB coach/ offensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh.

Following the 1982 season, Daniels jumped to the professional ranks as receivers' coach for the Cleveland Browns. He spent three seasons with the Browns (1983-85) before accepting a similar position with the Buffalo Bills.

After two seasons in Buffalo (1986-87) and a year out of coaching (1988), Daniels returned to the college ranks as quarterback coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Akron.

At the conclusion of the 1989 campaign, Daniels returned to professional football as quarterback coach with the New York Jets. He spent two seasons with the Jets (1990-91) before entering private business in 1992.

Daniels resumed his coaching career in 1997 as running backs coach at Cincinnati. He then coached the Bearcats wide receivers for two years (1998-99) before being elevated to offensive coordinator and assistant head coach prior to the 2000 campaign.

During his career, Daniels has tutored a number of outstanding players, including Dan Marino, Ken O'Brien, Andre Reed and Ozzie Newsome.

Joe and his wife, Kathy, have two children, a son Matthew (12/16/85) and a daughter Kaitlin (6/17/87).

Mark Dantonio

Defensive Coordinator, third season

Mark Dantonio is in his third season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. Dantonio is the Buckeyes' defensive coordinator.

In his first year at Ohio State, the 2001 Buckeyes ranked first in the Big Ten in passing defense and second in scoring defense. In 2002, the Buckeye defense was regarded as one of the best in the nation, finishing second nationally in scoring defense (13.1 ppg.) and third nationally in rushing defense (77.7 ypg.). Ohio State led the Big Ten in both categories and was second in total defense (320.9 ypg.).

On the heels of the Buckeyes spectacular 2002 season, Dantonio was named as one of five finalists for the Frank Broyles Award, which goes annually to the top assistant coach in college football.

Prior to joining the Ohio State staff, Dantonio, a native of Zanesville, Ohio, spent six seasons at Michigan State, where he coached the Spartans' defensive backs. Following the 1999 season, he was promoted to associate head coach.

This is Dantonio's second stop at Ohio State. During the 1983 and '84 seasons, he was a graduate assistant on Earle Bruce's staff. He also has coached at Ohio University, Purdue, Butler (Kan.) Junior College, Akron, Youngstown State and Kansas.

An All-Ohio pick at Zanesville, Dantonio played his college football at the University of South Carolina, earning three letters as a defensive back (1976-78). He graduated from South Carolina in 1979 with a degree in education.

Dantonio embarked upon his coaching career in the fall of 1979 as an assistant high school coach at Westside High School in Anderson, S.C.

In 1980, he served as a graduate assistant at Ohio University, where he received his master's degree. He also was a graduate assistant at Purdue in 1981.

Dantonio moved to Butler Junior College in 1982 as defensive coordinator. He then spent the next two seasons at Ohio State, traveling with the Buckeyes to the Fiesta and Rose bowls in 1983 and '84, respectively.

In 1985, Dantonio coached the defensive secondary at Akron. He joined Jim Tressel's staff at Youngstown State in 1986 and remained there through the 1990 campaign. During his stay at YSU, the Penguins made three trips to the Division I-AA playoffs. In 1990, when Dantonio was defensive coordinator, Youngstown State posted a perfect 11-0 record during the regular season.

Dantonio began a four-year stint at Kansas in 1991, serving as the Jayhawks' defensive backfield coach. He left Kansas for Michigan State following the 1994 season. During his years at Michigan State, the Spartans' secondary was regarded as one of the best in the nation.

Mark and his wife, Becky, who is a graduate of Ohio State, have two daughters: Kristen (9/10/92) and Lauren (11/2/94).

Mark Dantonio was a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award in 2002.

Special Teams Coordinator, second season

Luke Fickell is the newest member of the Ohio State football coaching staff. The 27-year-old Fickell, who joined Jim Tressel's staff in April of 2002, serves as the Buckeyes' special teams coordinator and assists defensive line coach Jim Heacock in the tutoring of the Buckeyes' front four.

Fickell took over the duties vacated by Ken Conatser, who resigned following the 2001 season to accept a coaching position at the University of Kansas.

Two of Fickell's proteges in 2002, punter Andy Groom and kicker Mike Nugent, won first-team All-America honors. Nugent is the first Buckeye place-kicker ever to win first-team All-America recognition. Last year also marks the first time that Ohio State has had a first-team All-America punter and place-kicker in the same year.

Fickell came to Ohio State from the University of Akron where he spent two years as defensive line coach for Lee Owens, himself a former Ohio State assistant coach.

Fickell is certainly no stranger to Ohio State football fans. He played for the Buckeyes between 1992 and 1996, redshirting the first year and then starting the next four seasons at nose guard. He started 50-consecutive games between 1993 and 1996.

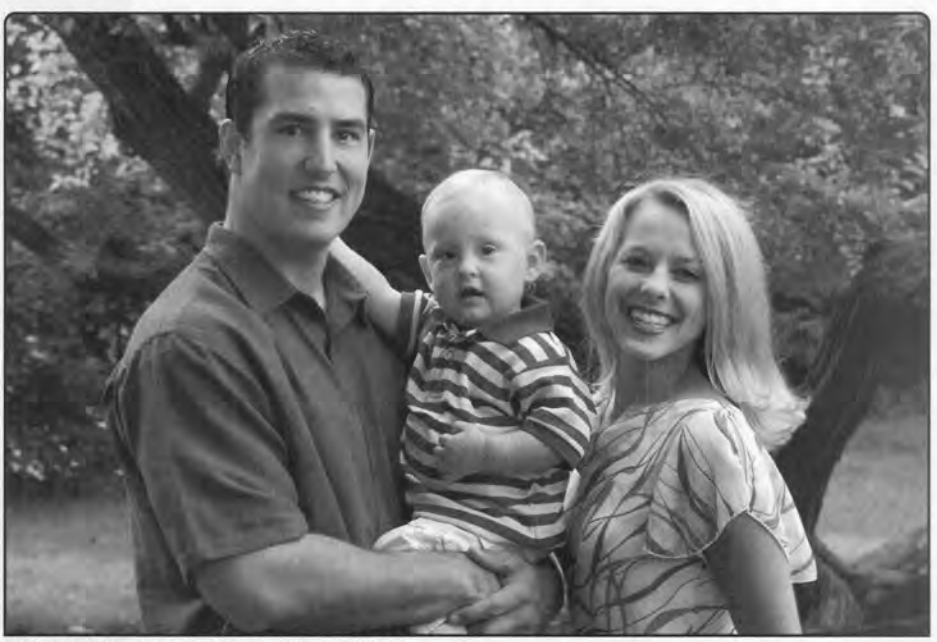
Fickell's last start was certainly his most memorable. After tearing the pectoral muscle in his chest four days before the Buckeyes were to take on undefeated Arizona State in the 1997 Rose Bowl, Fickell started and played the entire game, in the process helping the Buckeyes capture a thrilling 20-17 win over the second-ranked Sun Devils.

Fickell, a native of Westerville and a graduate of DeSales High School in Columbus, concluded his Ohio State career with 212 total tackles, including 26 tackles-for-loss and six sacks.

Following his graduation in 1997, Fickell spent a year on the injured reserve list with the New Orleans Saints in the NFL. He returned to Ohio State in 1999 and was a graduate assistant on John Cooper's defensive staff for one season.

He joined the Akron staff following the 1999 season.

Luke and his wife, Amy, have an infant son, Landon (3/2/02).



The Fickell Family (l-r) - Luke, Landon and Amy

Jim Heacock

Defensive Line, eighth season

Jim Heacock is beginning his eighth season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. He coaches the Buckeyes' defensive line and has played a prominent role in the development of several outstanding players, including Ryan Pickett, a first-round NFL draft choice following the 2000 season.

In 2002, the Buckeyes featured one of the top defensive lines in college football, a group that combined for 49.5 tackles-for-loss and 24.5 sacks. In its 2003 College Football Yearbook, The Sporting News rated the Ohio State front four as the second best unit in the land. Three players on that unit, tackles Tim Anderson and Darrion Scott and end Will Smith will likely be high draft choices in 2004.

A native of Alliance, Ohio, Heacock graduated from Muskingum College in 1970, winning three letters as a defensive back for the Muskies.

Following his graduation, Heacock was drafted by the Green Bay Packers. He also played briefly with the Cincinnati Bengals before embarking upon his coaching career in 1972 as a graduate assistant at Bowling Green under Don Nehlen.

Heacock's first full-time coaching opportunity came in 1973, when he returned to Muskingum to coach the defensive secondary. After two years in that role, he was promoted to defensive coordinator.

Heacock left Muskingum in 1978 to become defensive coordinator at Bowling Green. He spent five years there, the last three as assistant head coach. The 1982 Falcons won the Mid-America Conference title and played in the California Bowl.

Following the 1982 season, Heacock became defensive line coach at the University of Washington. During his five years at the Pac-10 school (1983-87), the Huskies played in five bowl games and were renowned for their stellar defensive line play.

In 1988, Heacock was named head coach at Illinois State University. Playing an ambitious schedule that included a number of Division I teams, he, nonetheless, built the Redbirds into a winner, posting a combined record of 16-14-2 during his last three years.

Heacock joined John Cooper's staff at Ohio State in 1996. He coached the defensive tackles the first four years and also coached the defensive ends in 2000.With the defensive line leading the way, the Buckeyes recorded a school-record tying 47 sacks in 2000.

When Jim Tressel took over as Ohio State's head coach in January 2001, Heacock was retained from Cooper's staff.

Heacock is from a football family. His brother, Jon, was named to succeed Tressel as head coach at Youngstown State, while another brother, Jeff, is head coach and athletics director at Muskingum.

Born June 23, 1948, Jim and his wife, Sherry, have two daughters Stephanie (9/10/81) and Shannon (4/11/83).

The Heacock Family (l-r) - Stephanie, Shannon, Sherry and Jim

Mark Snyder

Linebackers, third season

Mark Snyder is in his third season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. Snyder coaches the Buckeyes' linebackers. Two of his players last year, first-team All-American Matt Wilhelm and Cie Grant, played the best football of their careers and were instrumental in the Buckeyes' national championship season. Both players were taken in the NFL draft.

A native of Ironton, Ohio, Snyder came to Ohio State from the University of Minnesota, where he spent four years as the Gophers' defensive ends coach. Prior to Minnesota, Snyder also coached at Marshall, Central Florida and Youngstown State.

Snyder was an all-state selection at Ironton High School. He played his college football at Marshall, capturing All-America defensive back honors as a senior when the Thundering Herd finished as runners-up at the 1987 Division I-AA National Championships.

Snyder graduated from Marshall in the spring of 1988 and began his coaching career as a student assistant at his alma mater the following fall.

He moved to Central Florida the next year and spent two years there, the first as a graduate assistant and the second as a part-time coach working with the linebackers.

In 1991, Snyder returned to the Buckeye State as coach of the outside linebackers on Jim Tressel's Youngstown State staff. In 1994, he was given the added responsibility of special teams coordinator and inside linebacker coach. Tressel promoted him to defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 1996.

After six successful years at Youngstown State, during which the Penguins won three Division 1-AA national championships and played in four-consecutive title games, Snyder left Youngstown State for Minnesota at the conclusion of the 1996 campaign.

During Snyder's stay at Minnesota, the Gopher defense twice set school records for single-season sacks and averaged 40.7 sacks during a three-year span. While at Minnesota, Snyder helped develop Lamanzer Williams, who led the nation in sacks in 1997 and Karon Riley, the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year in 2000.

Mark and his wife Beth, who is also a native of Ironton and a graduate of the University of Kentucky, have three daughters: Chelsea (6/8/92), Lindsay (10/14/93) and Shaylee (1/22/01).

Tim Spencer

Running Backs, 10th season

Tim Spencer is in his 10th season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. Spencer coaches the OSU running backs. He has helped develop a number of outstanding players over the years, including last year's freshman sensation Maurice Clarett, who rushed for 1,237 yards and scored 18 touchdowns in a spectacular rookie campaign. He also coached 1995 Heisman Trophy winner Eddie George.

Spencer is from St. Clairsville, Ohio. One of the most sought-after running backs in the country as a high school senior, he enrolled at Ohio State in the fall of 1979 and went on to be a three-year starter and two-time All-Big Ten pick.

The Buckeyes' starting fullback as a sophomore, he moved to tailback his final two years and led the team in rushing in both of those seasons. He closed out his career with 3,553 yards rushing and still ranks third on OSU's all-time rushing list trailing only Heisman Trophy winners Archie Griffin (5,589) and George (3,768).

Spencer was the Buckeyes' co-captain and MVP as a senior. He also was MVP of the 1982 Holiday Bowl, rushing for 167 yards and two touchdowns in the Buckeyes' 47-17 dismantling of Brigham Young. During his four years at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 38-10 and played in four bowl games, including the 1980 Rose Bowl.

Following his senior year, Spencer was the second player taken in the USFL draft. He played a year each with Chicago, Arizona and Memphis before signing with the San Diego Chargers, where he was a four-year starter at fullback.

Spencer retired from professional football in 1990 and returned to Ohio State to finish his degree requirements. He received the latter in 1993 and was named to John Cooper's staff prior to the 1994 season.

During his stay at Ohio State, he has helped develop several outstanding runners, including George (a runner much in Spencer's own stead) and 1,000-yard rushers Pepe Pearson, Michael Wiley and Jonathan Wells.

Tim and his wife Gilda, who practices law in Columbus, have two sons: Cole (7/18/86) and Evan (5/26/93).

Mel Tucker

Defensive Backs, third season

Mel Tucker is in his third season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. Tucker coaches the Buckeyes' defensive backs and is one of the outstanding teachers on the staff. He has helped develop a number of outstanding players at Ohio State, including strong safety Michael Doss, a first-team All-America each of the past two years. This year, he will work with two of the best cornerbacks in the Big Ten in juniors Chris Gamble and Dustin Fox.

Tucker came to Ohio State from LSU, where he coached the defensive backs for another former OSU assistant, Nick Saban. In his only season on the LSU staff, the Tigers posted an 8-4 record.

Prior to LSU, Tucker was defensive backs coach at Miami (Ohio) in 1998. He began his coaching career in 1997 as a graduate assistant under Saban at Michigan State. His responsibilities at MSU included assisting with the defensive secondary and working with the scout teams.

After two years of learning the ropes at Michigan State, Tucker accepted a full-time position with Terry Hoeppner at Miami. The Redhawks posted a 7-4 record in 1999, including a 28-3 upset of Northwestern in the season opener.

Tucker is from Cleveland, where he earned all-state honors at Cleveland Heights High School. He was a two-time member of the Cleveland Plain Dealer's all-scholastic team and also was a standout basketball player.

Tucker played his college football at Wisconsin. He earned four letters at defensive back for the Badgers before receiving his degree in business management in 1995. He redshirted in 1993, in what would have been his senior season, after suffering a broken leg in fall camp. But he returned to action in 1994 and helped the Badgers to an 8-3-1 record and a bowl berth.

Following graduation, Tucker enjoyed a brief stay with the Hamilton Tiger Cats in the Canadian Football League.

The Tucker Family (l-r) - Joseph, Jo-Ellyn and Mel

Since leaving the playing field and turning to coaching, Tucker has enjoyed a meteoric rise to the top of his profession.

Mel and his wife Jo-Ellyn, an attorney who works in the Attorney General's office, were married in June of 1999. They have an infant son, Joseph (2/18/02).

John Hill

PROGRAM ASSISTANT

John Hill is in his sixth year as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio State. Hill, 31, works directly with recruiting coordinator Bill Conley in all aspects of the recruiting process, coordinating on-campus visits and tours, and also oversees the walk-on program. Additionally, he helps coordinate the Buckeyes' summer football camps. A native of Huber Heights, Ohio and a graduate of Wayne High School, Hill spent four years as a student assistant coach at OSU, serving in that capacity from 1994 through 1997. In 1998, Hill graduated from OSU with a bachelor's degree in secondary education. He joined the Ohio State staff as a graduate assistant in 1998, spending his first two years in an administrative capacity. In 2000, he assisted with the Ohio State offense, but returns to an administrative role this year. Hill was awarded his master's degree from Ohio State in June of 2000.

Mark Staten

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Mark Staten is in his second year on the Ohio State football coaching staff. His responsibilities include assisting offensive coordinator Jim Bollman with the offensive line.

Staten, a native of Dowagiac, Mich., played his college football at Miami of Ohio. He as a four-year starter at defensive tackle for the Redskins (1988-92) and won All-Mid-American Conference honors as a senior. He then played professionally for two years (Cincinnati and New England), before suffering a career ending knee injury at the start of the 1995 season. He was on the regular-season roster for the Patriots at the end of 1993 and beginning of 1994 as a reserve offensive lineman and long snapper.

After a brief stint in high school coaching, Staten returned to his alma mater in 2000 as a student assistant coach for the Redhawks. He remained there for two years, working with the defensive line his first year and the offensive line in 2001 as a graduate assistant.

Mark and his wife, Dana, who is a kindergarten teacher, live in Pataskala, Ohio.

Mike Tressel

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Mike Tressel is in his first year as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio State. Tressel works primarily with the defensive unit, assisting with the linebackers.

Tressel played his college football at Cornell College in Mount Vernon, Iowa where he was a four-year starter at defensive back from 1992-95. During that time he was a two-time academic All-American. He received his bachelor's degree in mathematics in 1996 and a master's degree in sports administration from the University of South Dakota in 1998.

Tressel's coaching career began as a graduate assistant at South Dakota in 1996 where he worked with the offense. He served there for two years before accepting an assistant coaching position at Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa, where he served as the offensive line coach for three years and offensive coordinator for one year.

Tressel is a native of St. Paul, Minn. where he attended Como Park High School. He and his wife, Megan, who is a school counselor in the Pickerington school district, have a 2-year-old son, Logan.

NOTE: The list contains full-time assistant football coaches based upon available research material.*

ERNIE GODFREY

Ohio State has had several outstanding assistant coaches down through the years. But perhaps none has had more of an impact than the legendary Ernie Godfrey, who spent 33 years on the Ohio State staff, assisting seven different head coaches. Ernie joined the Ohio State ranks in 1929 as an assistant for Sam Willaman. He would go on to work for Francis Schmidt, Paul Brown, Carroll Widdoes, Paul Bixler, Wes Fesler and Woody Hayes before retiring in 1961. After retirement, at the urging of Hayes, he spent 11 years working with the Buckeyes' kickers. An Ohio State graduate, he lettered in football in 1914 with the Buckeyes. Godfrey, who was on the coaching staff of five national championship teams and six Rose Bowl squads, is a member of the National Football Fourndation and Hall of Fame. The Columbus chapter of that organization is named after him.

Bob Tucker

Director of Football Operations, third season

Bob Tucker is in his third year as director of football operations at Ohio State. He accompanied head coach Jim Tressel to Columbus from Youngstown State.

This is Tucker's second stint with the Buckeyes. He was a member of Earle Bruce's Ohio State staff from 1979 through 1984, serving first as outside linebackers coach (1979-81) and later as defensive coordinator (1982-84).

Tucker is a native of Sandusky, Ohio. He graduated from the College of Wooster in 1965 with a degree in health and physical education, and received a master's from Penn State, also in health and physical education, in 1967.

Tucker began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Penn State, spending the 1965 and '66 seasons on Joe Paterno's staff while doing graduate work.

After two successful seasons (1967-68) as an assistant at Massillon High School, Tucker jumped to the collegiate ranks in 1969 as linebackers coach at Wichita State. In 1972, his final season at Wichita, he was defensive coordinator for the Shockers who finished eighth nationally in total defense.

In 1973, Tucker joined Bruce's staff at Iowa State. He spent six years as coach of the defensive ends, helping the Cyclones to back-to-back bowl appearances in 1977 and '78.

Tucker accompanied Bruce to Ohio State in 1979. While at Ohio State, the Buckeyes won three Big Ten championships and played in six bowl games, including two Rose Bowls (1979, '84).

Tucker left Ohio State after the 1984 campaign to become head coach at his alma mater, The College of Wooster. He spent 12 seasons in Wooster before joining Tressel's staff at Youngstown State in 1997. Tucker was defensive coordinator his first three years at Youngstown. He coached the Penguins' linebackers and coordinated the special teams during the 2000 campaign. The Penguins won the national championship in 1997.

Bob and his wife, Lynn, have three children: Diana (5/2/73), Michelle (9/22/75) and Scott (7/11/79).

The Tucker Family (l-r) - Lynn, Bob, Michelle, Diana and Scott.

Dick Tressel

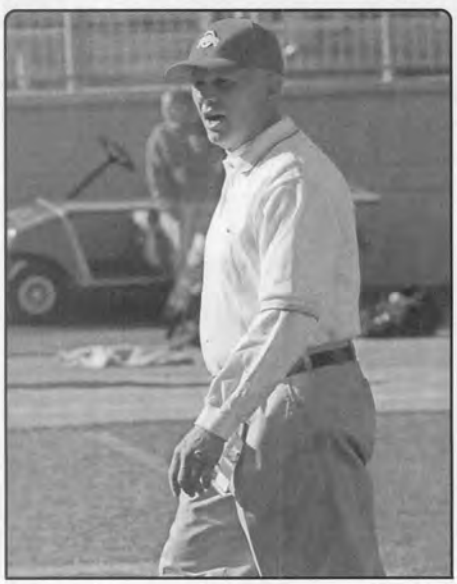
Associate Director of Football Operations, third season

Dick Tressel is in his third season as associate director of football operations. In his current role, he assists Bob Tucker in the day-to-day operations of the football program. He also monitors the academic progress of the student-athletes, coordinates community outreach and service programs and serves as a liaison between the football office and other support services at OSU.

Tressel spent 23 years at Hamline University in Minnesota, where he was both head football coach and director of athletics. Tressel compiled an overall record of 124-102-2 with the Pipers. He was the NCAA Division III National Coach of the Year in 1984, leading Hamline to the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championship.

In 1970, Tressel earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Baldwin-Wallace College. In 1976, he was awarded a master's degree in physical education from Florida State University. He received a doctorate degree from the University of Minnesota in 1996.

Tressel and his wife, Connie, have three sons, Mike (9/28/73), Ben (7/12/75) and Luke (3/15/79). Ben and Luke played football for their father at Hamline. Mike played at Cornell College in Iowa and now is a graduate assistant with the Buckeyes. Luke is a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Minnesota.



The Tressel Family (l-r) - Connie and Dick

Allan Johnson

Director of Football Strength and Conditioning, third season

Allan Johnson is in his third year as Director of Strength and Conditioning for the Ohio State football team. Johnson joined the Buckeye staff in 2001.

Johnson came to Ohio State from West Virginia University where, in two separate stints, he spent a total of 13 years as strength and conditioning coach. At WVU, he oversaw the in-season and off-season conditioning programs for all 21 of the Mountaineers' varsity sports.

Johnson also spent four seasons with the Baltimore Orioles and was one of the first full-time strength and conditioning coaches in major league baseball.

Al Johnson was the 2002 National Strength Coach of the Year.

One of the most respected and well-known names in his profession, Johnson was one of 10 strength and conditioning coaches nationwide to receive the title of Master Strength & Conditioning Coach in 2001. The award is presented on the basis of professionalism, experience, knowledge and expertise and is the highest honor a strength and conditioning coach can receive from his peers. He was named National Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 2002 and was inducted into the National Strength and Fitness Hall of Fame in June 2003.

Johnson is a native of Parkersburg, W.Va. He graduated from Glenville State College in West Virginia in 1979 with a degree in exercise science. He was an all-conference pick in both football (offensive guard) and track (discus).

Johnson spent the next two years as an assistant high school coach (football and basketball) at Federal Hocking in southeastern Ohio before going to West Virginia University to work on his master's degree.

He was a graduate assistant strength coach at WVU in 1982 and '83. Shortly after receiving his master's in sports management in 1983, he became the Mountaineers head strength and conditioning coach.

Johnson left West Virginia following the 1988 season to join the staff of the Baltimore Orioles. He remained with the Orioles through the 1992 season, returning to West Virginia in November of that year.

Johnson was selected as the Big East Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 1997, '98 and 2000. He was Region II Strength Coach of the Year in 1988.

In 1986, Johnson was selected to serve on the National Strength and Conditioning Association's Special Olympics Advisory Board.

While at West Virginia, Johnson participated in 11 bowl games, including two national championship showdowns (1989 Fiesta Bowl and the 1993 Sugar Bowl). Johnson has had several articles published in various fitness magazines, including The American Fitness Quarterly and The National Strength and Conditioning Association Journal.

He and his wife, Jan, have one son, Adam (15).

Danny Swain

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Danny Swain is in his 34th year at Ohio State and his 24th year with the department of athletics. He was named head equipment manager in 1991, succeeding longtime equipment boss John Bozick. Swain, who works primarily with football, oversees a staff of six full-time and seven student assistants. He is responsible for selecting and purchasing apparel for all 36 men's and women's varsity sports. He also works closely with the various coaching staffs to ensure the latest and best in protective equipment for Ohio State's student-athletes. Prior to joining the athletics department staff, Swain spent 10 years with the department of intramurals. Swain is a native of Columbus and a graduate of Marion Franklin High School. He and his wife, Cathy, have two sons, Chuck and Matt.

Mike Cochran

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Mike Cochran is in his third year as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for football at Ohio State.

Cochran came to Ohio State from Youngstown State, where for six years, he was the director of the Penguins' strength and conditioning program. He oversaw all 18 varsity sports at Youngstown State, including the football program.

Cochran is from Girard, Ohio. He attended Youngstown State and played football for the Penguins, serving as team captain as a senior in 1989. He played both fullback and linebacker and finished his career with 214 total tackles.

Cochran received his undergraduate degree in exercise science from Youngstown State in 1992. He then spent three seasons as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, working with the defense from 1993 to 1995.

In 1995, Cochran was named assistant strength and conditioning coach at YSU. He was named head strength coach in 1996.

Cochran was named to the Youngstown State Hall of Fame in 2000. He and his wife, Traci, have two daughters, Mikayla and Raegan.

Bernardo Amerson

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Bernardo Amerson is in his second season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Ohio State football program. He was formerly the head strength and conditioning coach for the men's basketball team at West Virginia University.

Amerson, a native of Hattiesburg, Miss, has a master's degree (2001) in special education-early intervention from West Virginia and a bachelor of science degree (1999) in sports behavior from WVU.

Amerson, a former linebacker, was a member of the Mountaineers from 1993-96, earning a scholarship and three letters his final three seasons after walking on in 1992. He twice earned recognition as the best-conditioned athlete on the WVU football team (1994-95) and participated on three bowl teams as a Mountaineer.

Amerson, born Jan. 11, 1974, spent one season with the CFL'S Calgary Stanpeders before returning to West Virginia in 1998 to work as a student assistant in the Mountaineer strength program.

As a coach, he has trained more than 30 student-athletes who were drafted or signed as free agents by the NFL, NBA and MLB.

John Lombardo

Head Team Physician, 13th season

John Lombardo is in his 13th year as a member of the Ohio State sports medicine staff and his ninth year as head team physician for the department of athletics.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Lombardo received his bachelors' degree in pre-med studies and physical education from the University of Dayton. He graduated from Ohio State's College of Medicine in 1977 and completed his residency in family medicine in 1980 at St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Dayton.

From 1981 to 1990 Lombardo served as medical director of sports medicine at the Cleveland Clinic. During that time, he served as team physician for the Cleveland Cavaliers and as a medical consultant for the Cleveland Browns, the Cleveland Ballet, Cleveland State University and Chagrin Falls High School.

During that same time period, Lombardo had extensive involvement in several international competitions, including serving as head team physician for the USA delegations at the World University Games in Yugoslavia in 1987 and the Winter Olympic Games in Calgary in 1988.

Lombardo returned to Ohio State in 1990 as Chairman of the Department of Family Medicine, Director of the Sports Medicine Center and team physician for the Athletic Department. He was named head team physician in 1993, succeeding Dr. Robert J. Murphy.

In addition to his other responsibilities, Lombardo serves as an advisor for anabolic/androgenic steroids and related substances to the National Football League. He also is past president of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine.

Born April 7, 1949, Lombardo and his wife Karen have a daughter, Erin, and two sons, Brian and Mark.

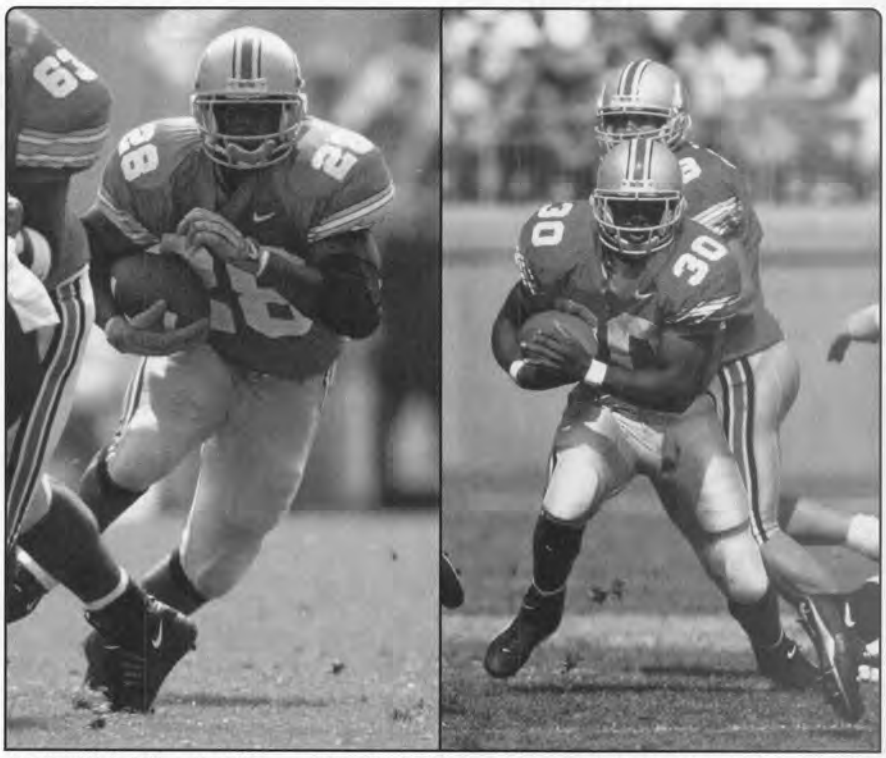
Ohio State trailed 12-9 after two quarters but outscored the Aztecs 21-0 in the second half to win 27-12 in the only previous meeting between the Buckeyes and San Diego State, Oct. 20, 2001. Lydell Ross rushed for a pair of touchdowns adding to rushing scores by Johathan Wells and Steve Bellisari in the win over the Aztecs. Ohio State is a combined 6-1 all-time against Mountain West Conference opponents. The Buckeyes are 1-0 against Utah, Wyoming and SDSU. BYU is 0-3 all-time against the Buckeyes and Air Force owns the lone victory for the Mountain West vs. the Buckeyes.



Jonathan Wells (left) and Lydell Ross combined for 120 yards and three touchdowns against the Aztecs in 2001.

Ohio State and North Carolina State will meet for the first time in 2003. The Buckeyes have a combined record of 7-6 all time against teams currently representing the Atlantic Coast Conference. Ohio State has met all but three ACC memebers. Only Maryland, North Carolina State and Wake Forest have never faced the Buckeyes on the gridiron. Ohio State last faced an ACC team in 1998, a 31-14 loss to Florida State in the Sugar Bowl. The last regular-season meeting against an ACC opponent was a 34-17 loss to Florida State in 1982. The last Ohio State win over an ACC foe was a 34-13 win over Duke in 1981 in Columbus.

North Carolina State will be the first ACC opponent to visit Ohio Stadium since Florida State in 1982.

The third meeting between the Falcons and Buckeyes will be contested in Columbus in 2003. Ohio Stadium has been the site of the contest in all three instances. The Falcons fell 17-6 in the first meeting between the two Ohio schools Sept. 12, 1992. The Buckeyes prevailed in the most recent meeting Sept. 13, 1997, 44-13. Ohio State has played current members of the Mid-American Conference on 17 occasions, winning 16 of those games. The only loss was to Akron in 1894. The Zips won that game 12-6 at the Ohio State Fair in Akron that year. The Buckeyes have five wins against both Akron and Ohio University, three wins over Miami (Ohio) and a lone victory over Toledo. With the game against Bowling Green in 2003, the Buckeyes have faced a MAC team in each of the last seven years.

Series Information

Ohio State and Wisconsin will meet for the 71st time in the series history this year when the two schools square off in Madison for the second-consecutive season. Ohio State is looking for its 51st win over the Badgers. The Buckeyes lead 50-15-5 all-time, with a 27-6-3 mark in Columbus and a 23-9-2 edge in Madison. Ohio State defeated Wisconsin 21-consecutive times from 1960 to 1980. The Buckeyes, winners in five of the last seven meetings with Wisconsin, won a hard-fought 19-14 battle with the Badgers last season in Madison. Wisconsin won the first three games of the series from 1913-1915 but has since won back-to-back games just twice, the last time during the 1984 and 1985 seasons. The Badgers are 9-31-3 against Ohio State when the Buckeyes carry an Associated Press ranking into the contest. Ohio State was ranked No. 4 in the 2002 meeting. When both teams are among the nation's Top 25, the Buckeyes have a 7-2-2 record. Ohio State is up 11-2-2 in all games when Wisconsin is ranked. From 1960-80, Ohio State won 15-consecutive games when going to battle with an AP ranking vs. the Badgers. Unranked Wisconsin broke the streak with a 24-21 win Oct. 10, 1981 in Madison over the No. 18 Buckeyes. The Badgers are winless as a ranked team in Columbus (0-7-1) and are 2-4-1 in Madison vs. the Buckeyes with an AP ranking.

Series Information

Ohio State and Iowa renew the series in 2003 after a two-season hiatus. The Buckeyes have won the last seven meetings and lead the all-time series 42-12-3. Ohio State leads 26-7-1 in Columbus and 16-5-2 in Iowa City. Ohio State owns the longest winning streak in the series, winning 16-consecutive games from 1963-1980. Iowa won the first two games in 1922-23 but has not won back-to-back games since. The Hawkeyes went 3-0-1 in the first four games of the series from 1922-25 (3-0-1 in first four games). Ohio State is 27-6 all-time when ranked among the Top 25 in the Associated Press Poll. The Buckeyes are 16-2 as a ranked team in Columbus and 11-4 in Iowa City. Ohio State also enjoys an 11-4 record over Iowa when both teams are ranked. The Buckeyes carried a No. 1 ranking into three previous meetings against Iowa. Ohio State is 3-0 in those games (21-19 in 1964; 55-13 in 1973; 49-0 in 1975). Iowa lost its only game against Ohio State as the No. 1 team in 1985, a 22-13 setback. The Hawkeyes are 5-12 all-time as a ranked team against Ohio State, including a 2-8 record in Ohio Stadium.

David Boston scored twice 1998 vs. Iowa.

The Buckeyes continued their dominance of the Hoosiers in 2002, claiming a 45-17 victory in Columbus, the 10th-consecutive win over the Hoosiers in the series. Hoosier head coach Gerry DiNardo is in his second season at Indiana. In 78 previous meetings between Indiana and Ohio State, the Buckeyes have played in Columbus 54 times with a record of 40-10-4. Indiana is 2-21-1 against the Buckeyes in Bloomington. Indiana had the majority of its success against Ohio State early in the series history. The Hoosiers started 5-0-1 from 1901-1913. Ohio State then rattled off the next four wins to set the tone for the series. Since winning games in 1905 and 1913, Indiana did not win back-to-back series games until the 1987-88 seasons. Those two Hoosier victories followed a 30-0-1 winning streak enjoyed by the Buckeyes. Since 1950, Ohio State is 42-3-2. Indiana tied the Buckeyes 27-all in 1990 and last defeated Ohio State 41-7 in Bloomington during the 1988 season. Indiana has faced Ohio State 35 times while the Buckeyes were ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 poll. Ranked Buckeye teams are 32-3 vs. the Hoosiers. Indiana has been ranked three times in games vs. Ohio State but the Buckeyes are unbeaten in those battles (2-0-1). The No. 3 Buckeyes defeated the No. 15 Hoosiers 21-7 Nov. 4, 1944 in Columbus. That was the highest an IU team has been rated against Ohio State. The No. 5 Buckeyes won 23-17 vs. No. 19 Indiana in Columbus Nov. 13, 1993. The last Indiana team outside the Top 25 to beat a ranked Ohio State squad was the 1987 Hoosiers, who claimed a 31-10 victory over the No. 9 Buckeyes Oct. 10, 1987 in Columbus. The Buckeyes were the No. 6-rated team when the squads met in 2002.

Series Information

The 2003 game between Ohio State and Penn State will mark the 11th-consecutive year the two schools have met. The Nittany Lions pulled off a come-from-behind victory over the Buckeyes in 2001 in University Park, 29-27, giving Joe Paterno career-win No. 324, and in the process allowing him to surpass Bear Bryant as major college football's career victory leader. Penn State has won 10 of 18 all-time meetings, including a 4-2 mark in Beaver Stadium. Ohio State is 6-5 in Columbus against the Nittany Lions. Ohio State earned a 13-7 victory a year ago in Columbus over the Nittany Lions to give the Buckeyes a 6-4 record against Penn State since the Nittany Lions joined the league in 1993. Before joining the Big Ten, Penn State had the upper hand with a 6-2 record over the Buckeyes. The home team has gone 9-1 in this series since 1993. The Buckeyes picked up the only road win in 1995 with a dramatic 28-25 victory. Both teams have been among the Top 10 when they have met six times. The last such meeting went Ohio State's way when the No. 1 Buckeyes won 28-9 over the No. 7 Nittany Lions in Columbus in 1998. Both teams have been ranked in eight of the nine meetings since 1993. Ohio State holds the edge 6-3 when both teams are ranked. Both teams own a win as the No. 1-ranked team. No. 1 Penn State won 63-14 over No. 21 Ohio State in 1994. The No. 1 Buckeyes evened the score over the No. 7 Lions in 1998. Ohio State is 8-8 as a ranked team vs. the Nittany Lions and own a 7-5 record in games when both teams are ranked in the Associated Press Poll.

Series Information

Ohio State and Michigan State renew the series in 2003 after taking two seasons off. The Buckeyes are 21-12 all-time against the Spartans. Ohio State has won 11 of the 18 games played in Columbus and 10 of 15 games contested in East Lansing. Michigan State has won two of the last three meetings but has just a 2-6 record in the last eight games. Ohio State's longest winning streak is an eight-game undefeated stretch from 1975-84. Michigan State's longest string of victories is a three-game streak from 1912-53. In games when the Buckeyes are ranked in the Associated Press Top 25, Ohio State has a 17-8 record, including a 10-5 mark in Columbus. The Buckeyes and Spartans have both been ranked 10 times while facing one another. Ohio State is 6-4 in those games. In the five games in which the Buckeyes have been the No. 1-ranked team during the series, the Buckeyes have a 3-2 record. Michigan State first defeated the top-ranked Buckeyes in 1974 (16-13) and then again in 1998 (28-24). The first time the teams met in 1951, the Spartans defeated the Buckeyes 24-20 as the No. 1 team in the country. The Spartans are 6-6 in games in which they are ranked, including a 4-3 mark in Columbus.

Series Information

The Buckeyes recorded a 10-6 victory over Purdue last year in West Lafayette, Ind., and have won 12 of the last 14 meetings with the Boilermakers. Ohio State has won 34 of 47 meetings with the Boilermakers overall, including a 23-5-2 mark in Columbus. Purdue is 5-11-0 in its home stadium and 1-0 in the only neutral-site meeting with Ohio State, a 30-7 win in Cleveland, Ohio, during the 1943 season. Purdue has not won in Columbus since 1988 when the Boilermakers prevailed, 31-26. Ranked (Associated Press) Buckeye teams have gone up against Purdue 26 times in the series history. Ohio State is 19-6-1 in those games, including wins in eight of the last nine games. Purdue last defeated a ranked OSU squad two years ago in West Lafayette. The No. 16 Boilermakers held off a late charge by the No. 12 Buckeyes to win, 31-27. The last win for an unranked Purdue team over a ranked Ohio State squad came in 1984. The No. 2 Buckeyes were upset 28-23 at Purdue. Ohio State holds a slight edge (3-2-1) in games played when both teams own Associated Press Top 25 rankings. Purdue has been ranked 10 times when facing the Buckeyes. The Boilermakers are 4-5-1 in those battles (2-5-1 in Columbus).

Series Information

The Buckeyes held off a late charge to defeat Michigan 14-9 in Columbus a year ago earning the Buckeyes a share of the Big Ten title and a spot in the 2003 Bowl Championship Series title game against Miami. The Ohio State-Michigan rivalry is unquestionably one of the most storied in college football history. The two national powers have met for 85-consecutive seasons – the 10th longest current streak in NCAA Division I-A history – and 99 times overall since 1897. From 1972 to 1981 the Ohio State-Michigan game determined the Big Ten champion and the conference's Rose Bowl representative. Although Michigan holds a 19-game lead in wins over Ohio State, over the last 50 games the series is even at 24-24-2. The Ohio State vs. Michigan game was moved to the final Saturday of the Big Ten season in 1935. The Ohio Stadium dedication game in 1922 was against Michigan and the Michigan Stadium dedication game in 1927 was against Ohio State. Ohio State has snapped Michigan's Big Ten winning streaks of 16-consecutive games (1998), 15 (1972) and 11 (in 1970). Michigan has snapped Ohio State Big Ten winning streaks of 17, 16 and 15 games in 1976, 1969 and 1980, respectively. Both Ohio State and Michigan have been unranked in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll just once since 1968. The only time neither team has entered the most recognized college football rivalry unranked in the last 33 years was Nov. 21, 1987 at Michigan when the Buckeyes downed the Wolverines, 23-20. Ohio State was unranked in that 33-year stretch five times while the Wolverines were out of the Top 25 twice. In series history, ranked Buckeye teams are 19-23-4 vs. Michigan. The Wolverines are 27-18-4 when carrying a national ranking against Ohio State. The two teams have met 37 times with both teams ranked. Michigan owns a 19-14-4 record in those contests. Ohio State is 1-1-1 when rated No. 1 nationally while the Wolverines are 3-0 in the series as the No. 1 team.

CHRIS SPIELMAN

"No game meant more to me. I pride myself on being ready to play every game, but when it came to playing Michigan, I was ready on Monday. When you grow up in Ohio, it is kind of in your blood. It's a game that means so much. When you lose, it is devastating and stays with you all year. When you win, there is no feeling like it. You are on air until you play them again. Winning that game my senior year was the best win I ever experienced at Ohio State."

ARCHIE GRIFFIN

The Buckeyes' three-time All-American and two-time Heisman Trophy winner never lost to Michigan, his teams going 3-0-1 against the Wolverines and, as a result, playing in an unprecedented four consecutive Rose Bowls. "As I look back on my college career, the thing I am most proud of is our record against Michigan during my four years," said Griffin.

COLUMBUS, Ohio-Even though it was an unprecedented game for an Ohio State freshman tailback, Maurice Clarett acted as if it were no big deal. Clarett became the first true freshman since 1943 to start at tailback in an Ohio State season opener.

Clarett more than did his job. He rushed for 175 yards and three touchdowns as the No. 13 Buckeyes beat Texas Tech 45-21 in the Pigskin Classic.

Clarett scored on runs of 59, 45 and 2 yards - and set up two other short touchdown runs by Lydell Ross as the Buckeyes rolled up 318 yards on the ground.

Tech quarterback Kliff Kingsbury was befuddled most of the day by the Ohio State defense and completed 26 of 44 passes for 341 yards and three touchdowns with one interception. Two of his touchdown passes and more than 140 of the passing yards came in the fourth quarter after the Red Raiders fell behind 38-7.

Kingsbury had a shot at getting the Red Raiders back in the game after they fell behind 21-7 midway through the second quarter. But he bumped into halfback Foy Munlin on a fourth-and-goal handoff at the 1 late in the half, with Ohio State's front line smothering the play.

Maurice Clarett rushed for 175 yards and three touchdowns in his college debut.

On Tech's first series of the third quarter - after Clarett burst through on a slant play for another score - Kingsbury underthrew a wide-open Nehemiah Glover on a short pass and Ohio State's Dustin Fox picked it off at the goal line.

Ohio State defensive end Will Smith was a key component in disrupting the Red Raiders' spread offense. In one second-quarter series, he sniffed out Kingsbury's shovel pass to Taurean Henderson for a 3-yard loss, almost picked off Kingsbury's pass over the middle and then rushed Kingsbury and forced him to throw a pass away.

Tech ran for just 31 yards on 20 attempts.

Smith only had four tackles but all four were for negative yardage including two sacks. The Buckeyes totaled seven sacks and nine tackles for a loss.

Clarett was Ohio's Mr. Football last year at Warren's Harding High School and also was USA Today's national offensive player of the year. He graduated from high school in December and enrolled at Ohio State for the winter quarter so he could go through spring drills with the team.

He carried four times for 10 yards and caught an 8-yard pass for a first down as the Buckeyes took a 7-0 lead on their first possession on Ross' 2-yard run.

Clarett broke two hand tackles at the line and fought off Tech's Joselo Hanson the final 10 yards on a 59-yard run that made it 14-0.

Ohio State also scored on a Ross 1-yard dive, backup quarterback Scott McMullen's 1-yard keeper and Mike Nugent's 45-yard field goal.

Kingsbury's late touchdown passes covered 36 and 34 yards to Wes Welker.

Ahead 21-7 at the half, the Buckeyes pulled away by scoring on each of their three third-quarter possessions. Clarett, who gained 100 yards on 12 carries in the first half, had seven carries for 71 yards in the period.

Krenzel was almost flawless, completing 11 of 14 passes for 118 yards and running for 34 yards - three more than Tech's leading rusher.

MISSED FIELD GOALS
Ohio State: None. Kent State: Mayle 26.

COLUMBUS, Ohio- No. 8 Ohio State scored 45 or more points for the second-consecutive game, including two defensive touchdowns, as the Buckeyes cruised to a 51-17 victory over Kent at Ohio Stadium.

Quarterback Craig Krenzel completed 12-of-14 passes for 190 yards and one touchdown after completing his first 11 passes to start the game. Combine those passes with his final completion vs. Texas Tech in the season opener, and he tied an Ohio State record for consecutive passes (12) completed at Ohio State.

The defense scored two of the Buckeyes' six touchdowns, both on interceptions. Michael Doss scored on a 45-yard interception return in the first quarter and then freshman A.J. Hawk returned his pick 34 yards for a score in the second quarter.

After Kent State went three-and-out on its first possession. Ohio State's Donnie Nickey partially blocked a punt and the Buckeyes took over at the 31-yard line. Maurice Clarett gave the Buckeyes the lead five plays later on a 2-yard touchdown run just two minutes, 44 seconds into the first quarter.

Doss then picked off a Josh Cribbs pass at the Kent State 45-yard line and returned it for the Buckeyes' second score of the game with 9:21 remaining in the first. Maurice Hall ran off the right side for 28 yards and the third OSU score of the game to put the Buckeyes on top, 21-0.

Craig Krenzel completed his first 11 passes against Kent State.

Krenzel capped a 7-play, 66-yard drive with a 7-yard touchdown pass to Clarett to give OSU a 28-0 lead 1:03 into the second quarter. It was Ohio State's first passing TD of the season against nine rushing scores. Krenzel was 9-for-9 with 104 yards after the score.

Mike Nugent gave the Buckeyes a 31-0 lead with a 40-yard field goal with 9:05 in the second quarter. Hawk scored on the second interception of the game by the Buckeyes, returning it 34-yards for the touchdown. The rookie defender gave the Buckeyes a 38-0 lead with 7:31 remaining in the first half. The last time the Buckeyes had two defensive touchdowns in a game was against Fresno State in 2000, when the Buckeyes recorded a school-record four defensive scores.

Kent State got on the board thanks to a 28-yards pass from Cribbs to Daryl Moore with 3:11 to go in the first half. It capped a 13-play, 75-yard drive. The Golden Flashes capitalized on an Ohio State fumble on the Buckeyes' next possession and added another touchdown, a 13-yard pass from Cribbs to Antonio King, just before the end of the half. Ohio State led 38-14 at intermission.

Nugent kicked his second field goal of the day, this time from 33 yards out, to put the Buckeyes up 41-14. Kent State kicker Travis Mayle missed a 26-yard field goal try wide right. Nugent then kicked a 45-yard field goal, equaling his career long, which he kicked in the season-opening win over Texas Tech, to put Ohio State up 44-14 with 14:56 to play in the game. Mayle added a 33-yard field goal with 8:25 remaining in the game to pull within 44-17.

Ohio State added a late touchdown in the fourth quarter when Scott McMullen hit Ryan Hamby for an 18-yard score with 4:09 to play.

MISSED FIELD GOALS

Ohio State: None. Washington State: None.

COLUMBUS, Ohio-Freshman tailback Maurice Clarett ran for 230 yards, including 194 in the second half, to lift No. 6 Ohio State to a 25-7 victory over No. 10 Washington State in front of 104,553 fans at Ohio Stadium.

Clarett's 230 yards rushing on 31 carries were both career bests. His rushing total was the sixth-highest single game total in OSU history and the second-highest mark for a freshman behind Archie Griffin's 239 yards vs. North Carolina in 1972.

The Buckeyes struggled in the first half and trailed, 7-6, at intermission. Washington State outgained Ohio State 189 to 109 yards in total offense in the first half, including a difference of 155 to 57 in passing yardage. Clarett had just 36 yards in the first half.

In the second half, Ohio State posted 254 yards of offense, 240 of which came by way of the ground attack. The Buckeye defense forced two interceptions and had two sacks against Washington State's Jason Gesser. The WSU senior quarterback completed 25-of-44 passes for 247 yards and one touchdown. For the Buckeyes, quarterback Craig Krenzel was 4-of-10 for 71 yards.

Mike Nugent tied an Ohio State single-game record by kicking three field goals of 40 or more yards against Washington State.

Ohio State forced a punt on Washington State's opening possession of the second half and then drove 91 yards on just eight plays for the go-ahead score, a 3-yard run by Clarett. The freshman tailback opened the drive with a 44-yard rush over the left side. He also had carries of 6 and 20 yards on the drive. The score came at 8:37 in the third quarter and put the Buckeyes on top 13-7.

The Buckeyes extended their lead, 16-7 on a 45-yard field goal by Mike Nugent with 1:57 to play in the third quarter. The kick capped a six-play, 16-yard drive. The field goal was Nugent's third of the game.

Washington State was forced to punt on the ensuing possession and the Buckeyes took a two-point gift when the snap went over the punter's head and through the end zone. The safety gave the Buckeyes an 18-7 lead with 47 seconds remaining in the third quarter.

A 1-yard run by Clarett put the Buckeyes up, 25-7, with 10:41 to play in the game. The score capped a 10-play, 66-yard drive that guzzled up 4:58 off the clock.

Ohio State opened the game by scoring on its first possession. Kicker Mike Nugent made a 43-yard try to give the Buckeyes a 3-0 lead with 13:19 to go in the opening quarter. A 33-yard pass from Craig Krenzel to Mike Jenkins set up the score. Jenkins added a 16-yard grab to finish with 49 receiving yards.

Washington State countered with a touchdown on its initial drive, moving the ball 80 yards in 11 plays. The 5-yard completion from Jason Gesser to Devard Darling gave the Cougars a 7-3 lead with 8:33 to play in the first. Darling finished the game with six receptions for 65 yards.

Nugent pulled the Buckeyes within one, 7-6, with his second 43-yard field goal of the afternoon with 12:09 left in the second quarter. Lydell Ross had a 36-yard run in the drive.

CINCINNATI, Ohio - Ohio State quarterback Craig Krenzel ran for a late touchdown as the sixth-ranked Buckeyes slipped past the Bearcats 23-19 Saturday, in front of the largest crowd to ever watch a sporting event in the city of Cincinnati (66,319).

Ohio State (4-0) was playing in Cincinnati for the first time in 91 years, against a team that had beaten the Buckeyes just twice in 12 tries - in 1896 and 1897.

Ahead 19-14 midway through the fourth quarter, the Bearcats (1-2) lost the ball and eventually the lead when Ohio State defensive end Darrion Scott leveled quarterback Gino Guidugli with a blind-side hit at the Ohio State 44.

Krenzel scored the game winner on a 6-yard run on OSU's next possession.

The Bearcats gamely came back one more time, as Guidugli led a drive from his own 20 to the Buckeyes' 15 with 1:01 left. On first down, Guidugli threw a pass to the right corner of the end zone that was dropped.

Darrion Scott forced a UC fumble to set up Ohio State's winning touchdown.

After an incompletion, Guidugli tossed a perfect throw on the fade route into the left corner of the end zone on third down. George Murray dived and appeared to have the ball for an instant before it slipped through his hands.

On fourth down with 32 seconds remaining, Guidugli dropped and threw into the middle of the end zone, but his pass was tipped away by Ohio State linebacker Matt Wilhelm and intercepted by Will Allen with 26 seconds left.

Besides his TD run, Krenzel had touchdown passes covering 20 yards to Ben Hartsock and 4 yards to Chris Vance. Krenzel was 14-of-29 for 129 yards with two interceptions.

Ohio State was without freshman tailback Maurice Clarett, who had arthroscopic surgery on his right knee earlier in the week. But backup Lydell Ross had a career-best 130 yards rushing.

Guidugli completed 6 of 7 passes for 79 yards on Cincinnati's first possession of the game, with DeMarco McCleskey scoring on a 1-yard run off an option pitch from Guidugli. The Bearcats used a no-huddle offense and frequently had five wide receivers running pass routes.

Jonathan Ruffin, riding the longest extra-point conversion streak (65) in school history, was wide on the point after. It was a miss that would loom large on the last drive, when the Bearcats were four points down.

Ruffin made a 44-yard field goal and a career-best 49-yarder, but he was well short on another 49-yard attempt.

Ohio State: None. Indiana: None.

COLUMBUS, Ohio-Maurice Clarett ran for three touchdowns to lift No. 6 Ohio State to a 45-17 victory over Indiana in front of 104,194 at Ohio Stadium.

The game was the first for Clarett after undergoing knee surgery Sept. 17 to repair a torn meniscus. Clarett carried the ball 21 times for 104 yards as the Buckeyes accumulated 461 yards of total offense, including 244 yards on the ground.

Quarterback Craig Krenzel was 11-of-16 for 152 yards, including one score. Michael Jenkins added 93 yards through the air and a pair of touchdowns as Krenzel and backup Scott McMullen combined for 217 passing yards in the game.

Ohio State scored first on a 2-yard rush by Clarett with 39 seconds to play in the first quarter. The score capped a 12-play, 50-yard drive in which Clarett carried the ball eight times for 34 yards and added an 8-yard catch to account for 42 yards on the drive.

Dustin Fox had four tackles, a deflected pass and a blocked punt against the Hoosiers.

Indiana scored on its next possession capping a 10-play, 48-yard drive with a 49-yard field goal by Brian Robertson to make it a 7-3 score with 12:16 to go in the first half.

Clarett scored his second touchdown of the game with 5:42 to go in the second quarter on a 1-yard run that was set up by a 27-yard pass completion from Krenzel to Jenkins. The drive took six plays and 44 yards.

Indiana marched 81 yards on eight plays for its first touchdown of the day that pulled the Hoosiers within a 14-10 score with 2:09 to play in the first half. Gibran Hamdan hit Tyke Spencer for the 17-yard score. Three plays earlier Hamdan threw to John Pannozzo down the right sideline for a pickup of 41 yards.

Ohio State added a touchdown just before halftime to extend its lead to 21-10. Clarett took the ball around the right side for a 4-yard score with 38 seconds to play capping a five-play, 45-yard drive.

On the first drive of the second half, Chris Gamble scored his first career touchdown taking a reverse 43 yards for the score to put Ohio State on top 28-10 with 12:25 in the third quarter.

A block of Ryan Hamre's punt by Dustin Fox on Indiana's next possession led to Ohio State's next score. Krenzel connected with Jenkins for a 4-yard TD pass to give the Buckeyes a 35-10 advantage. The drive went four plays and 18 yards.

Nugent banged in a 51-yard field goal with 1:20 in the third quarter to put Ohio State on top 38-10. It was the longest field goal of his career.

Indiana was successful on the fourth down of its final drive, scoring on a 30-yard pass completion from Eaton, Ohio, native Tommy Jones to Courtney Roby with 3:04 on the clock.

Ohio State held Indiana to 339 yards of total offense, though the Buckeyes gave up 283 passing yards while holding the Hoosiers to 56 yards on the ground. The Buckeye defense had three sacks of Hamdan totaling 16 yards. Hamdan completed 16-of-26 passes for 210 yards. Jones was 3-for-6 for 73 yards and scored one touchdown.

EVANSTON, Ill.-Freshman Maurice Clarett ran for two touchdowns, and personally outrushed Northwestern with his fourth-consecutive 100-yard game in a 27-16 OSU victory.

Clarett finished with 140 yards.

Craig Krenzel completed 11 of 22 passes for 170 yards and ran for 62 yards as Ohio State improved to 6-0 for the first time since 1998.

It was the Buckeyes' 23rd straight victory over Northwestern, a streak dating to 1971.

The Wildcats had plenty of chances to win, but they missed two field goals and had to settle for field goals on two other possessions inside the Ohio State 10.

Matt Wilhelm had 15 tackles against Northwestern.

Northwestern's defense entered the game allowing 522 yards a game, including 309 rushing.

Shut out in the first period, the Buckeyes took a 7-0 lead on Lydell Ross' 3-yard run with 13:15 to play in the first half. They added another touchdown on Clarett's 2-yard run with 2:43 left in the half, giving them a 14-9 lead.

Northwestern had a chance to recapture the momentum when JasonWright ripped off a 31-yard run and followed it with a 29-yard reception, putting Northwestern at the Ohio State 4. But the Wildcats couldn't get into the end zone, and David Wasielewski's 18-yard field-goal attempt was wide right just before halftime.

Ohio State looked like its old smashmouth self in the second half, with Clarett gaining 35 yards during an 11-play, 79-yard drive. He finished it off with a 20-yard run up the middle, diving over the goal line for the touchdown that gave Ohio State a 24-9 lead.

Northwestern lost 3 yards on the first two plays of its next series, and the game appeared to be just about over. But Basanez hit Jon Schweighardt up the middle for a 36-yard gain.

The Wildcats got a break with a pass-interference call on 3rd-and-8 at the Ohio State 45, getting a first down and 15 yards. Four plays later, Wright rumbled into the end zone.

But Ohio State answered right back with a field goal, and Northwestern never threatened again.

Ohio State: None. San Jose State: Gilliam 36.

COLUMBUS, Ohio-Freshman Maurice Clarett scored three touchdowns and Craig Krenzel threw three TD passes as the Buckeyes used a balanced attack to beat San Jose State 50-7.

San Jose State came into the game leading the nation in takeaways with 24, but Ohio State had one turnover while the Spartans lost four fumbles.

Clarett, who finished with 132 yards on 18 carries, scored on runs of 1 and 5 yards and caught a 7-yard TD pass from Krenzel. Krenzel completed 11 of 14 passes for 241 yards and also had TD passes of 40 yards to Mike Jenkins and 37 yards to Chris Vance.

Clarett and Krenzel went to the sideline midway through the third quarter after the Buckeyes scored 31 unanswered points to build a 41-7 lead.

San Jose State quarterback Scott Rislov, passing on almost every snap, completed 36 of 44 passes for 265 yards and a touchdown, setting school records for completions and completion percentage.

Head coach Fitz Hill pulled Rislov soon after he set the records.

San Jose State had zero rushing yards on 13 attempts - the fewest number of carries ever against Ohio State.

Clarett gave the Buckeyes a quick lead on a 1-yard plunge on Ohio State's first possession.

After the Spartans pulled to 10-7 on Rislov's 9-yard scoring pass to Charles Pauley in the second quarter, San Jose State turned the ball over on fumbles on its next four possessions. The Buckeyes turned three of them into touchdowns.

Mike Nugent, who kicked a 29-yard field goal on the Buckeyes' first possession of the half, kicked three field goals to tie Vlade Janakievski's Ohio State record of 15 in a row.

Ohio State rushed 49 times for 212 yards and amassed 567 yards of total offense. Scott McMullen relieved Krenzel and hit 8 of 9 passes for 114 yards to give the Buckeyes 355 yards through the air.

Craig Krenzel threw for 241 yards and three touchdowns, both career highs, in Ohio State's 50-7 win over San Jose State.

MADISON, Wis.-The fourth-ranked Buckeyes pulled out another close game on the road, edging Wisconsin 19-14 at Camp Randall Stadium.

Freshman Maurice Clarett ran for 133 yards on 30 carries to lead the Buckeyes.

The Badgers, who lost for the eighth time in their last 10 conference home games, took a 14-13 lead into the fourth quarter, but Craig Krenzel threw a 3-yard TD pass to Ben Hartsock with 10 minutes left to put the Buckeyes back in front 19-14.

Krenzel completed 12 of 19 passes for 204 yards, and Chris Gamble made big plays on both sides of the ball for OSU.

Krenzel overthrew Ryan Hamby on the 2-point conversion after the TD pass to Hartsock, but the Badgers had to use a timeout because they had only 10 men on defense.

Wisconsin also burned a timeout on a first down on offense, and those two stoppages cost them. The Buckeyes took over with 4:29 left and ran the ball nine straight times to use up the clock.

Krenzel set up the winning score with a 45-yard pass to Michael Jenkins on third-and-6 from his own 16. Jenkins outleaped B.J. Tucker and Brett Bell for the ball.

The Badgers reached the Buckeyes 29 on the next series, but Gamble, a flanker, lined up at cornerback and intercepted Jim Sorgi's pass in the end zone.

Sorgi replaced starter Brooks Bollinger, who suffered a concussion on his fourth sack midway through the second quarter. Sorgi put Wisconsin ahead 14-13 with a 42-yard touchdown strike to Orr just before halftime.

Both teams flashed their quick-strike capability in the first half. Jenkins caught a 47-yard touchdown pass from Krenzel on the second play of the game.

The Badgers responded with their own three-play scoring drive later in the first quarter when Anthony Davis (25 carries for 125 yards) scored untouched on a 41-yard run to tie it at 7.

Two plays later, Krenzel hit Gamble on what would have been an 80-yard touchdown play, had Gamble not tripped at the Wisconsin 32. The Buckeyes settled for Mike Nugent's school-record 16th consecutive field goal, a chip shot from 27 yards, for a 10-7 lead.

Nugent's 25-yarder made it 13-7 after Ohio State safety Mike Doss recovered Bollinger's fumble at the Badgers 32. Doss had 14 tackles.

Ben Hartsock caught the winning 3-yard pass against the Badgers.

Mike Doss recovered a fumble and had 14 tackles in OSU's 19-14 win.

COLUMBUS, Ohio-Ohio State beat Penn State 13-7 at Ohio Stadium to remain unbeaten. The Buckeyes improved to 9-0 overall and 4-0 in the Big Ten Conference.

Trailing 7-3 at the half, the Buckeyes needed a big play to start the second half. Chris Gamble, who started at both wide receiver and cornerback, picked off Zack Mills and returned it 40 yards, giving the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead just 2:53 into the second half.

Mike Nugent added a second 37-yard field goal with 1:05 to play in the third quarter, extending his streak to 19 in a row, including 18 field goals this season. The score put the Buckeyes up 13-7 and capped a 14-play, 72-yard drive that ran 8:21 off the clock.

The six-point advantage would prove to be enough as the Buckeye defense held the Nittany Lions to just three first downs and 58 total yards of offense, shutting out its opponent in the second half for the second consecutive game.

Penn State finished with just 179 total yards as the Buckeyes amassed 253, including 141 on the ground. Ohio State held the Nittany Lions to 81 yards rushing.

Ohio State drove 79 yards on its opening possession of the game and was threatening to take the ball into the end zone for a score, but on a well-defended third-and-goal pass play from the 5-yard line, quarterback Craig Krenzel ran up the middle to the 1-yard line where he fumbled the ball. It was picked up by Anwar Phillips and returned 58 yards to the OSU 41-yard line.

Freshman tailback Maurice Clarett had a key 30-yard gain on the drive that gave him more than 1,000 yards rushing for the season. It was the longest run allowed by Penn State this season. Clarett injured his shoulder in the first quarter and did not return, finishing the game with 39 yards rushing on four carries.

Ohio State used four backs to account for 141 yards on the ground. Lydell Ross had 21 carries for 40 yards. Craig Krenzel completed 13-of-20 passes for 112 yards.

The Nittany Lions took an early 7-0 lead on a 5-yard touchdown run by tailback Larry Johnson with 33 seconds remaining in the first quarter. Penn State moved 80 yards in nine plays, keyed by a 35-yard scamper by Johnson.

After a Will Smith interception, the Buckeyes converted the turnover into a field goal as Nugent connected on his 18th consecutive field goal, a kick of 37 yards to pull within a 7-3 score with 6:16 to play in the first half.

The Buckeyes drove down to the PSU 34-yard line and then threw an incomplete pass to Chris Vance in the end zone, but Penn State was flagged for roughing the passer. Taking the ball at the 19-yard line, Krenzel found Vance for a 5-yard gain, but the ball came out and the Nittany Lions recovered. Penn State was forced to punt. Krenzel was picked off for just the third time this season trying to find Vance down the right sideline as the first half expired.

Johnson followed up a 257-yard performance against Northwestern with a 16-carry, 66-yard day against the Buckeyes. It was the lowest rushing output of the season.

Chris Gamble's 40-yard interception return was Ohio State's only touchdown against Penn State.

COLUMBUS, Ohio-Ohio State's defense appreciates being tested and the Buckeyes received a passing grade after the sixth-ranked Buckeyes defeated No. 23 Minnesota 34-3.

There were plenty of offensive stars for the Buckeyes. Lydell Ross ran for two touchdowns. Chris Vance caught a 30-yard touchdown pass from Craig Krenzel. Mike Nugent kicked two field goals to set a school record with 20 on the year and extended his overall mark to 21 in a row.

But it was the defense that controlled the game, holding Minnesota to just 112 yards while running its streak without allowing a touchdown to 10 quarters. The Golden Gophers came in averaging 271 yards rushing but finished with just 53 on 36 attempts.

Darrion Scott had two sacks and David Thompson had two tackles for losses for OSU.

Ohio State improved to 10-0 for the first time since 1996 and the 10th time in school history.

Ohio State outscored the Gophers 17-0 in the third quarter. During that period, Minnesota ran 13 plays that netted minus-6 yards, without a first down.

Ross ran for 89 yards on 20 carries, scoring on runs of 5 and 9 yards. Maurice Hall added 93 yards on 14 carries.

On their first three possessions, the Gophers took over at the Ohio State 27, and the Minnesota 45 twice. But they managed just 48 total yards on 16 plays, the only points coming on Dan Nystrom's 24-yard field goal.

Minnesota gained just 64 yards in the final three quarters.

Krenzel, who completed 9 of 15 passes for 128 yards, set up the Buckeyes' first touchdown with a 49-yard strike to Michael Jenkins. Ross went off left tackle for the 5-yard TD on the next carry.

Minnesota's Preston Gruening had a punt blocked and also dropped a snap. Those two plays led to 10 points as Nugent kicked a field goal, and Ross scored on a 9-yard run two plays after Gruening kneeled after mishandling the snap.

The Gophers' Terry Jackson II and Thomas Tapeh had each rushed for more than 100 yards in the previous three games - with Jackson topping 200 yards in the last two. But they combined for just 81 yards on 24 attempts against Ohio State.

Lydell Ross ran for two touchdowns against the Gophers.

Maurice Hall led all rushers with a career-high 93 yards.

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind.-Ohio State was trailing on the road and facing fourth down late in the game, with not only a victory but the Big Ten title and a chance at the Fiesta Bowl berth slipping away.

But Craig Krenzel found a way to keep it all within reach for the Buckeyes.

Krenzel threw a 37-yard touchdown pass to Michael Jenkins on fourth-and-1 with 1:36 left as the third-ranked Buckeyes defeated Purdue 10-6 to keep their national championship hopes alive.

The Boilermakers were leading 6-3 when Krenzel dropped back and found Jenkins - who sprinted down the sideline before cutting in - for an over-the-shoulder catch in the end zone.

Michael Jenkins' clutch 37-yard touchdown catch on fourth down gave the Buckeyes a hard-fought 10-6 win.

Krenzel completed 11 of 23 passes for 173 yards. He had been pressured the entire game by a bruising Purdue defense that held Ohio State to 267 total yards and recorded three sacks.

But Krenzel, using a no-huddle offense, called the game-winning play at the line of scrimmage, and Jenkins beat Antwaun Rogers to get open.

Purdue got the ball again, but Kyle Orton's long pass into double coverage was intercepted by Chris Gamble.

The Buckeyes though, nearly were done in by the deep pass. Brandon Kirsch threw a 59-yard completion to Ray Williams early in the fourth quarter set up Berin Lacevic's 32-yard field goal that put the Boilermakers ahead by three with 7:50 left.

Strong performances by both defenses ensured a low-scoring game.

The Buckeyes barely had enough time to kick a field goal as time ran out in the first half to make it 3-all. Krenzel escaped pressure and scrambled 15 yards down the middle to Purdue's 13. On third-and-9 from the 12, Krenzel ran again, this time for 7 yards but short of the first down.

With no timeouts left and the clock ticking down, the field-goal unit hurried onto the field, and the center snapped the ball just in time for Mike Nugent to kick a 22-yarder.

Orton took command early, going 6-for-9 for 55 yards on the opening drive before a pass was intercepted by cornerback Dustin Fox deep in the left corner of the end zone.

Buckeyes running back Maurice Clarett, who had nerve damage in his left shoulder that kept him out of the last two games, started the game and ran 14 times for 52 yards.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill.-Battered but still unbeaten after another scare on the road, Ohio State took another step toward playing for its first national title since 1968. The Buckeyes needed overtime but downed Illinois 23-16 to set up its annual final game against Michigan for a chance to play in the Fiesta Bowl.

The second-ranked Buckeyes nearly lost that rare opportunity against the Illini, whose chance to spoil Ohio State's perfect season fell short when Illinois quarterback Jon Beutjer had his final pass batted down at the line of scrimmage in overtime.

Ohio State won the game on an 8-yard touchdown run by Maurice Hall, one of two backs who filled in for injured freshman Maurice Clarett.

The Buckeyes improved to 12-0 for the first time in school history.

Illinois came very close to sending the game to a second overtime, but Beutjer's third-down pass to Walter Young in the end zone was ruled incomplete when Young bobbled the ball as he went out of bounds. OSU tackle Tim Anderson then batted down Beutjer's pass on the next play.

Tackle Tim Anderson preserved the OSU win by batting down Jon Beutjer's fourth-down pass in overtime.

Illinois sent the game to OT tied at 16 when John Gockman kicked a 48-yard field goal on the last play of regulation. The ball started out left and stayed that way, barely falling inside the left upright. It was the third field goal of the game for Gockman.

The Buckeyes played without Clarett, who was in uniform but never got in the game.

With Clarett standing on the sideline, Hall led the Buckeyes with 69 yards rushing on 17 carries. Ross, who started in place of Clarett, had had 51 yards on 15 carries.

Ohio State kicker Mike Nugent had three field goals, the last a 27-yarder that put the Buckeyes up 16-13. Nugent later missed a 41-yard attempt into the wind with 5:31 to go. It was Nugent's second miss of the game, the only two he's missed all year.

Leading 6-3 at halftime, Ohio State gave up its first touchdown in a month when Beutjer threw an 18-yard touchdown pass to Young at the start of the third quarter.

OSU re-took the lead, 13-10, on a 50-yard touchdown strike from Craig Krenzel to Michael Jenkins on the next series.

Beutjer was 27-of-45 for 305 yards, but he was sacked six times and was hurried on several other plays by a defense that had been giving up just 12 points a game.

Jenkins had six catches for 147 yards.

COLUMBUS, Ohio-Maurice Hall scored on a 3-yard run with 4:55 left and the second-ranked Buckeyes survived two late drives by No. 12 Michigan for a 14-9 win that vaulted Ohio State into to the Fiesta Bowl Jan. 3.

Will Allen intercepted John Navarre's pass just short of the end zone with 0:00 showing on the clock for the bend-but-don't-break Buckeyes (13-0, 8-0 Big Ten), who have won six games by seven points or fewer this season.

The Buckeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title with No. 5 Iowa (11-1, 8-0).

The time off will give many of the record 105,539 fans in attendance time to recover from the final tense moments of yet another Ohio State-Michigan classic.

Maurice Clarett energized the Buckeyes and a record crowd by shaking off a shoulder injury to run for 119 yards, breaking Robert Smith's freshman rushing record in the process.

Clarett also caught a 26-yard pass to set up Hall's game-winning TD.

Taking a pitch from quarterback Craig Krenzel, Hall swept into the right corner of the end zone for the only score of the second half.

But Michigan, aided by a pass interference, call moved to Ohio State's 44. Navarre then completed a fourth-down pass to Ronald Bellamy before hitting Braylon Edwards to give Michigan a first down at the 30.

That's when Ohio State's defense, which has given up just 63 points in its last nine games, came up with yet another big play, this one by Darrion Scott.

As Navarre stepped up in the pocket, Scott knocked the ball loose and Smith recovered with 2:02 left.

Ohio State couldn't run out the clock, however, and Michigan got the ball back with 58 seconds left at its 20.

Out of time outs, Navarre (23-of-46 for 247 yards) drove the Wolverines to the 24. He threw one pass out of the end zone with seven seconds left before Allen jumped in front of a Michigan receiver to end the game.

Ohio State's players danced in a circle as students lifted Krenzel, from Sterling Heights, Mich., onto their shoulders as the 80-year-old, Horseshoe stadium shook.

Michigan's Adam Finley kicked three field goals in a first half dominated by the Wolverines, who didn't even have to punt.

Michigan closed the half with a 19-play drive that ate up 8:24 and ended with Finley's third field goal, a 22-yarder, that put the Wolverines up 9-7.

Only a pass interference call against Edwards, who pushed Chris Gamble to the ground in the end zone, prevented Michigan from having a bigger lead.

Clarett sat out two of Ohio State's previous three games hoping his shoulder would heal in time for Michigan. He didn't play on the Buckeyes' first series before making his entrance with eight minutes left in the first quarter.

On his first play, he ran 9 yards with a screen pass, and then followed a 7-yard pickup by ripping off a 28-yard run.

However, Clarett took a blow on his shoulder on his next carry and went to the sideline in pain clutching his left arm. He came back and scored on a sweep to put Ohio State ahead 7-3.

Will Allen's interception as time ran out preserved Ohio State's victory over archrival Michigan.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Perfectly shocking! Perfectly thrilling!

Ohio State worked two overtimes to rip the national championship from the confident Miami Hurricanes in one of the greatest college football games ever.

Maurice Clarett ran 5 yards for the winning touchdown, and Ohio State's defense turned back one final Miami bid to tie the game. With that, the Buckeyes completed an unlikely, unbeaten run to their first national title in 34 years with a 31-24 win. The Buckeyes, nearly 12-point underdogs, ended the Hurricanes' bid for a second straight title and their winning streak at 34.

Just like it had all year long, Ohio State was forced to make big plays when it had to. On the last play of the game, on 4th-and-goal at the 1, Cie Grant blitzed and forced Dorsey to heave a desperation pass that safety Donnie Nickey batted to the ground.

The Buckeyes' punishing defense had rattled and pounded Miami quarterback Ken Dorsey all night.

A few plays earlier, linebacker Matt Wilhelm hit Dorsey with such force it sent the quarterback to the sideline for one play. He came back in, but the Buckeyes would not be denied against a team trying to secure its place in history as one of college football's great dynasties.

While Miami coach Larry Coker lost for the first time in 25 games, Ohio State's Jim Tressel now has a major college title to add to the four he won in Division I-AA at Youngstown State.

Trailing 24-17 in the first OT, Ohio State converted a 4th-and-14 on a pass by Craig Krenzel. But the Buckeyes then faced a 4th-and-3 at the 5 when Krenzel threw to the right corner of the end zone for Chris Gamble, who was being covered by Glenn Sharpe.

A flag was thrown from the back of the end zone indicating pass interference.

Three plays later Krenzel scored from the 1 to send the game to a second OT.

By then, it already was a classic – the first national championship game to go into overtime, in a matchup of the nation's last two undefeated teams.

After losing All-American running back Willis McGahee to an injured left knee early in the fourth quarter, Miami had the ball first in overtime. The Hurricanes went ahead on Dorsey's 7-yard TD pass to Kellen Winslow Jr., but the Buckeyes answered with Krenzel's 1-yard score.

In the second OT, the Buckeyes went first from the 25 and Clarett capped off a five-play drive with his spinning, slithering cutback through the Miami defense.

Ohio State led 14-7 at the half, and extended the margin to 10 points on Mike Nugent's 44-yard field goal. The Hurricanes closed to 17-14 on McGahee's 9-yard scoring run with 2:11 left in the third quarter. And that set the stage for Todd Sievers' 40-yard kick as time expired in regulation play, leaving the Sun Devil Stadium crowd of 77,502 breathless.

The Buckeyes' ferocious defense had Dorsey in trouble from the opening series with two sacks. Although Ohio State fell behind 7-0, the constant pressure paid huge dividends in the second quarter as the Buckeyes took a 14-7 halftime lead, turning two turnovers into touchdowns in a 78-second span.

Maurice Clarett scored the winning touchdown vs. Miami.

95 David Thompson

6-5, 290, Defensive Tackle
Paterson, N.J.
Eastside High School

2002 RECAP: Talented player, who like many of his senior classmates, enjoyed his best year in 2002 ... finished the season with 42 tackles, including 7.5 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks ... played exceptionally well down the stretch and in effect was a "fifth" starter on a defensive line that will go down in history as one of the best ever to play at Ohio State ... made his first collegiate start against Indiana (filling in for an injured Kenny Peterson) and recorded four tackles ... also started against Northwestern, San Jose State, Wisconsin and Illinois, and played well every time out ... was particularly effective at Illinois, recording a career-high nine tackles, including four sacks, in a heart pounding 23-16 win ... final sack in that game came on Illinois' first play in overtime and resulted in a 9-yard loss ...recovered a fumble at Cincinnati that led to Ohio State's winning touchdown and always seemed to come up big when the team needed a boost ... 2001 RECAP: Played in all 12 games and logged a career-high 40 minutes of playing time ... finished the season with 12 tackles, including seven solos ... had three tackles and a sack in the win over Purdue ... also had a tackle-for-loss at Penn State ... 2000 RECAP: Did not see any game action ... 1999 RECAP: Played in five games, including the first three of the season ... 1998 RECAP: Redshirted ... PERSONAL: Born Aug. 23, 1979.

4 Chris Vance

6-2, 180, Flanker
Fort Myers, Fla.
Fort Myers High School
Fort Scott Community College

2002 RECAP: A starter at flanker in 2001, but utilized chiefly as the third wide receiver in 2002 ... finished the season with 13 receptions for 178 yards and three touchdowns ... 8-yard catch on third down in the Fiesta Bowl put the ball on the Miami 4-yard line and set up Ohio State's first touchdown ... had at least one reception in the 11 games he played in and caught touchdown passes against Cincinnati, San Jose and Minnesota ... learned of his brother's death the morning of the Minnesota game, but chose to play and had a 30-yard touchdown reception ... also had TD grabs against Cincinnati and San Jose State ... longest reception of the year was 37 yards against SJS ...top yardage game was 51 yards against San Jose ... missed the Purdue game while attending his brother's funeral ... 2001 RECAP: Selected by the coaching staff as the Buckeyes' Most Outstanding First-Year Offensive Player ... OSU's second-leading receiver with 34 catches for 605 yards (17.8 yards per catch average) and a team leading four touchdowns ... put together back-to-back 100-yard games against Minnesota (101) and Purdue (139) ... had 12 catches in those two games, including a season-high seven against the Boilermakers ... made two spectacular one-handed catches against Purdue, one a 7-yard TD grab that ranks as one of the greatest in Ohio Stadium history ... his effort against Minnesota came three days after he had learned that his father had passed away ... first catch of the year was a 61-yard TD against Akron in the season opener ... had at least one catch in every game but Northwestern ... also returned punts for the Buckeyes and averaged 6.9 yards per return on 23 attempts ... PERSONAL: Born Sept. 13, 1980.

Ohio Stadium Home of the Buckeyes

Nestled snugly on the banks of the Olentangy River, stately Ohio Stadium is one of the most recognizable landmarks in all of college athletics.

Built in 1922 at a cost of $1.3 million and renovated in 2001 at a cost of nearly $194 million, the unique horseshoe-shaped structure is now in its 82nd year as the home of Buckeye football.

With its present seating capacity of 101,568, Ohio Stadium is the fourth largest on-campus facility in the nation. Since the opening game against Ohio Wesleyan on Oct. 7, 1922, more than 35 million fans have streamed through the stadium's portals.

Attending games in Ohio Stadium has become a Saturday afternoon ritual for Ohio State fans, who flock to the parking lots early to enjoy the gala atmosphere and pageantry that surrounds each and every game.

In eight home games last year, the Buckeyes set a single-season attendance record of 827,904, including a single-game mark of 105,539 against Michigan on Nov. 23. Small wonder that year-in and year-out Ohio State ranks among the nation's attendance leaders.

From 1951 to 1973, the Buckeyes led the nation in attendance 21 times, including the 14 consecutive years from 1958 to 1971. Since 1949, Ohio State has never been lower than fourth nationally in average home attendance.

Unique in its double-deck horseshoe design, Ohio Stadium is both intimate and intimidating. The closeness of the seating provides a definite home-field advantage for the Buckeyes, at the same time allowing fans to view the game from unobstructed vantage points. As part of the renovation, there are now 81 hospitality suites and 2,500 club seats on the west side of the stadium. All the seats are good, including the 17,000 in the new and permanent south stands.

Prior to the construction of Ohio Stadium, the Buckeyes played their games at Ohio Field. The demand for a new stadium came about during the "Harley Years" – 1916, '17 and '19, when Charles "Chic" Harley became the Buckeyes' first three-time All-American.

With the echoes of Harley's legendary feats ringing throughout the state, local businessmen set about the task of raising money for a new stadium. They did so quickly, raising almost all of the $1.3 million through private donations, and construction began in 1920.

Skeptics scoffed at the thought of a 66,000-seat venue, but they were quickly quieted when an overflow crowd of 71,138 showed up for the dedication game against Michigan on Oct. 21, 1922.

Numerous upgrades have been made over the years, including the installation of artificial turf in 1970. The latter was made possible through the generous donation of Lou Fischer, who played for the Buckeyes and Coach Woody Hayes in 1950 and '51.

A new scoreboard with state-of-the-art graphics and statistical information was added in 1984 at a cost of $2.4 million, or nearly twice that of the original stadium.

The artificial surface was replaced with natural grass in 1990. The Buckeyes currently play on P.A.T. a natural grass surface with a state-of-the-art draining system that keeps the field playable even under the worst conditions.

In 1999, the stadium underwent a three-year face-lift that was completed in time for the season opener against Akron in 2001. Thanks to a creative financing plan, no university or student monies were used during the renovation process. Instead the sale of the hospitality suites and club seats, covered 80 percent of the cost, with the remainder being covered by naming-rights gifts, monies from additional ticket availability, increased concessions and merchandise revenues and bonds.

As a result of that renovation, the Stadium is completely up to code in terms of disability seating. Additionally, aisles have been widened, rails have been added and lighting has been installed in the concourses. There are also many more restrooms and concession stands on all levels.

The stadium also has been the site of several summer concerts, including performances by Pink Floyd and the Rolling Stones.

Ohio Stadium is listed in the National Registry of Historic Places. Anyone who has seen a game in the giant horseshoe understands why. There are few experiences in athletics that are more enjoyable!

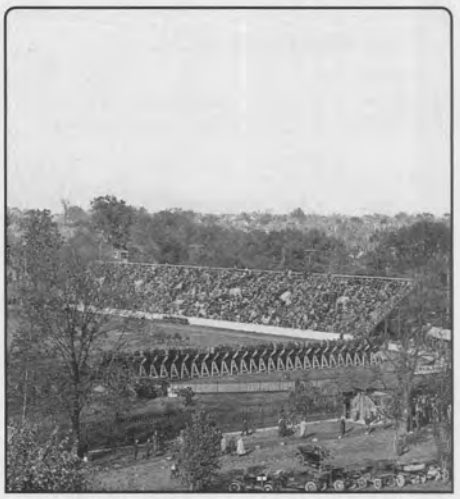
Prior to 1984, the OSU scoreboards were located in the southeast (shown here) and southwest corners of the stadium. There also was a third scoreboard at the north end of the Horseshoe.

The wrought iron entrance gates feature a block O pattern.

Ohio Stadium Home of the Buckeyes

The rotunda entrance, one of the preserved areas of the stadium, was modeled after the classical architecture of the Pantheon in Rome. It features three stained glass windows, installed prior to the 2001 season.

Personalized bricks are a new addition to the stadium.



Prior to Ohio Stadium, the Buckeyes played their games at Ohio Field.

The 2,625 club seats on the West side of the stadium were a key to financing the massive project.

The History of Ohio State Football

To quote authors Marv Homan and Paul Hornung, who co-wrote "Ohio State – 100 Years of Football:"
"Ohio State University has experienced an overwhelmingly eventful, colorful, often controversial, ever-intriguing and, above all, enormously successful football history." Much of the information in this section, which peeks at various seasons of Ohio State football between 1900 and 1999, was supplied with permission from "Ohio State – 100 Years of Football."

Football becomes a varsity sport and Alexander Lilley is the first head coach.

1899

The Buckeyes notch a 9-0-1 record, their first unbeaten season.

1901

Football crowds and support grow at an alarming rate. Columbus newspapers begin devoting more space to football and most importantly, for the first time after 12 seasons of football, the sport turned a modest profit for the ever-struggling university athletic association.

In 1890, Alexander S. Lilley was named Ohio State's first head football coach.

Coaching hero John Eckstorm shocks the university community, announcing his resignation as head football coach. Perry Hale, a star player at Yale, takes the reigns.

1904

E.R. Sweetland became the school's first year-round football coach. Expectations were high for the 1904 team, driving the athletic association to purchase 1,500 additional bleacher seats to be installed on the east side of University Field. Unfortunately, the team and the expected crowds fell way short of all expectations. Ohio State won just six times in 11 tries. Ticket prices ranged from 25 cents to a dollar for "deluxe" games with Michigan and the Carlisle Indians.

1906

Chillicothe native and former Michigan player Al Herrnstein takes over as head coach. Herrnstein, who coached at Purdue in 1905, was instrumental in proving a non-eastern coach could be successful in college football.

1910

The construction of new bleachers increases the capacity of Ohio Field to 10,000. Football season tickets are sold for $2.50. Howard Jones, an All-American from Yale, is named head coach.

1911

On the recommendation of Howard Jones, the athletic board hires Harry Vaughn, also from Yale, as head football coach. Vaughn shows little interest in coaching and resigns after leading Ohio State to a 5-3-2 season.

1912

The athletic board, growing tired of the constant turnover, decides to try a new approach and make the head football coach also serve as the director of athletics. Weary of choosing eastern coaches, the board hired John Richards, a former Wisconsin coach, to assume both roles. The strategy backfires, as Richards goes 6-3 and resigns after one season. With five minutes remaining in the Penn State game and OSU trailing 37-0, Richards took the Buckeyes off the field because of alleged rough play and PSU was awarded a 1-0 win. Ohio State joins the Western Conference, which later became the Big Ten, but could not compete in the conference in football until 1913.

Only after Carl Rothgeb of Colorado College declined to accept the position, John W. Wilce, a former three sport star at Wisconsin, was named head football coach at Ohio State. Wilce went on to a storied 16-year career at OSU, leading the school to three Big Ten championships. The Buckeyes made their football debut in the Western Conference, creating a wave of electric enthusiasm throughout Columbus. Ohio Field's capacity had been increased to 14,000 in anticipation of joining the conference. Ohio State collected its first league win Nov. 13 with a 58-0 trouncing of Northwestern.

The History of Ohio State Football

1914

Ohio State produced its first All-American, end Boyd Cherry, and went 5-2. Interest in football at the school continued to skyrocket.

1915

Varsity manager William A. Dougherty wrote the fight song "Across the Field." The song was dedicated to Coach John Wilce and was first performed at the Illinois game (Oct. 16, 1915).

1916

Ohio State went a perfect 7-0 and captured its first Western Conference title – sort of. For a reason still unknown, the conference did not officially recognize football championships in those days. Highlights of the championship season included a school record 128-0 win over Oberlin, the first win over Wisconsin (14-13), and a season-ending 23-3 victory over Northwestern that decided the conference championship. Chic Harley earned the first of what would become three All-America awards. He was OSU's first three-time All-American and one of only six in school history.

1917

A powerful Ohio State team finished 8-0-1, capturing its second-consecutive Western Conference championship. Strangely enough, two postseason games were played that year. Ohio State tied Auburn, 0-0, in a game played in Montgomery, Ala., to benefit the Ohio National Guard training in the South. Another game not originally on the schedule was played the next weekend, as Ohio State rolled over Camp Sherman, a team from Chillicothe. Chic Harley earned All-America honors for the second-consecutive season, and more importantly, became the talk of the Midwest. Fans turned out in record numbers to see Harley, one of the most versatile players in the country, pass, punt, rush, return punts, drop-kick extra points, and play stellar defense. The legendary Walter Camp, who selected the only official college All-America team in those days, made a personal visit to Columbus to watch Harley play.

1919

Ohio State outscored its opponents 176-12 and went 6-1. OSU recorded its first win over Michigan, 13-3. The admittance of Ohio State to the Western Conference and the dramatic success of the football team under Coach Wilce magnified the inadequacy of Ohio Field.

Ohio State defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 3-0, at Ohio Field in 1911.

A landmark year for Ohio State football. Professor Thomas E. French, a member of the athletic board, and Director of Athletics Lynn Wilbur St. John decided it was time to take advantage of the soaring interest in Ohio State football. An extensive stadium campaign was launched in the fall, with hopes of building a new football facility. The campaign opened Oct. 18, 1920, with a goal of reaching $600,000, a figure considered unrealistic by many. By Nov. 26, 1920, over $923,000 had been pledged. With the campaign in full force, coach Wilce's team kept interest levels high by finishing the regular season 7-0 and capturing the school's third Western Conference title. The undefeated season drove Ohio State football into the national spotlight and caught the eye of the Tournament of Roses Association in Pasadena, Calif. At the conclusion of the regular season, Ohio State received an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl against California Jan. 1, 1921. After heated discussions between members of the athletic board and St. John, the football team was granted permission to play in the game.

1921

The fact Ohio State went 5-2 and collected its third-consecutive win over Michigan was dwarfed by the construction occurring just a few blocks from Ohio Field in 1921. On Aug. 3, Ohio Governor Harry Davis joined a crowd of over 2,500 to officially break ground on the new stadium. The massive project was scheduled to take only 14 months and originally was to be completed at a cost of $1,341,017. After speculation the new stadium would seat about 35,000, it was officially announced it would actually seat over 60,000, a figure that drew harsh criticism from many. Upon completion, the final cost of the stadium exceeded $1,500,000. More than $1,000,000 of that cost had been pledged by proud and dedicated Ohio State football fans.

1922

Those that cited concerns of Ohio Stadium being too large looked on in awe as the stadium was dedicated prior to the Michigan game Oct. 21. Temporary stands were erected in the south end of the stadium, and a crowd of 72,500 was estimated. The dedication game against the Wolverines was actually the third game played in Ohio Stadium. Ohio State christened its new home with a 5-0 win over Ohio Wesleyan in front of 25,000 people. OSU won the first two games in Ohio Stadium, but finished the season with a disappointing 3-4 mark.

L.W. St. John announces all stadium debt has been paid, a remarkable achievement considering the facility had been standing for only eight short years. Coach Wilce announces his resignation, to take effect in June, 1929, citing the desire to enter the private practice of medicine. After capturing three Western Conference championships and producing 14 All-Americans, Wilce left football and did postgraduate research at Harvard and Columbia before becoming the Director of the Ohio State University Student Health Services in 1934.

Sam Willaman, an assistant on Wilce's staff and a 1913 Ohio State graduate, was named the 13th head coach in the history of Ohio State football. He led the team to a 4-3-1 finish in his first season.

1930

Wes Fesler becomes only the second three-time All-American in Ohio State history, captaining the Buckeyes and leading them to a 5-2-1 record. He also is the first recorded winner of the team's Most Valuable Player Award. Fesler, one of the school's top all-time all-around athletes, earned nine total varsity letters – three each in football, basketball and baseball.

Lynn Wilbur St. John

Fueled by an incredible defense, Ohio State finished 7-1, dropping only a 14-0 decision to Michigan. The Buckeyes allowed only 26 points the entire season, while scoring 161.

1934

Francis Schmidt is named the head football coach at Ohio State, ushering in not only a new era but also a new style of football. With an offensive scheme dubbed "razzle-dazzle" by the press and featuring double and triple reverses, laterals, and passes, Schmidt's inaugural team scored 267 points – the second most in OSU history at that point. Schmidt's off-the-field antics were just as colorful as his on-field plays, making him an instant hit with the community. After accepting the coaching position, he was asked how he expected to cope with the OSU nemesis from Ann Arbor. Dressed in his inevitable bow tie, his matter-of-fact answer developed into a cliché: "They put their pants on one leg at a time same as everybody else." Schmidt's comment leads to the formation of the "Gold Pants Club," which awarded miniature gold football pants to all players who had a hand in a victory over the Wolverines. The tradition of an annual Captain's Breakfast, where all former grid captains are invited to a breakfast and welcome the current team captains, also began.

1935

Ohio State collected its second-consecutive 7-1 season under Schmidt, claiming the school's first Big Ten title in 14 years. The Buckeyes capped the year with a 38-0 season-ending win over Michigan. That season finale launched the now famous season-ending rivalry. Since then, Ohio State has ended its regular-season schedule with a battle against the Wolverines every year but one. Also in 1935, Ohio State and Notre Dame play what was hailed as the "greatest college game ever played," for many years after. The Buckeyes held a 13-0 lead entering the fourth quarter, but Notre Dame scored three times in the final stanza – twice in the last two minutes – for an 18-13 win.

1936

The Ohio State Marching Band performed "Script Ohio" for the first time at the Pittsburgh game (Oct. 10, 1936). OSU dropped its Big Ten opener to Northwestern, 14-13, but steamrolled through its remaining conference schedule with four shutouts in four games.

1941

After a dominant high school coaching career in Massillon, Ohio, Paul Brown was named Ohio State's 15th head coach. An incredibly organized, meticulous man, Brown led Ohio State to a 6-1-1 mark in his debut season. He also earned OSU's first West Coast win, a 33-0 trouncing at Southern California in only Brown's second collegiate game. The season ended with a 20-all tie at Michigan.

1942

Though World War II loomed over the nation, Ohio State football fans reveled in one of the most glorious seasons ever. The Buckeyes captured the school's first national championship as well as a Big Ten title, finishing the year 9-1 and ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. Led by a star-studded backfield that included Les Horvath, Paul Sarringhaus, and Gene Fekete, OSU rolled to 337 points, a record that stood until 1969. The only loss of the season, a 17-7 decision at Wisconsin, even had an asterisk. Several key players and coaches caught a debilitating virus from a drinking fountain on the train from Chicago to Madison.

1943

With a game apparently ending in a 26-all tie, Ohio State and Illinois left the field. But the teams were called back 20 minutes later when it was discovered the Illini were called for a penalty on the Buckeyes' final play. With little of the crowd remaining, John Stungis kicked a 27-yard field goal – the first of his career – for a 29-26 OSU win. Brown, a Lieutenent Junior-Grade, left Ohio State for the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in April of 1944.

1944

Carroll Widdoes, an assistant of Paul Brown's at Massillon and Ohio State, was named acting head coach. In his first season, the Buckeyes finish 9-0 and claim the Big Ten championship, but finish No. 2 in the Associated Press behind Army. OSU fans claim an unofficial "civilian national championship." Les Horvath became the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. Ohio State received an invitation to the Rose Bowl, but faculty representatives from around the Big Ten disallow the trip.

One of the most memorable games in college football history was the Ohio State-Michigan Snow Bowl of 1950.

In one of the program's more unique coaching moves, offensive coordinator Paul Bixler and head coach Carroll Widdoes switched roles prior to the season. Warren Amling earns All-America honors at tackle, just a year after being named an All-America guard. Following the season, Bixler turns in his resignation.

1947

In the same meeting Bixler announces his intentions to resign, L. W. St. John proposes to the athletic board that Wes Fesler be the next head coach at Ohio State. The board concurs, and Fesler, a three-time All-American at Ohio State in the 1930s, becomes the program's fifth head coach in eight years. In one of the stranger games during the 1900s, Ohio State was afforded three plays after time had expired because of Northwestern penalties and came away with a 7-6 victory in Ohio Stadium.

1949

Ohio State captures a share of the Big Ten championship and collects its first Rose Bowl win, beating California, 17-14.

1950

Vic Janowicz puts on arguably the greatest individual display in college football history against Iowa. He sent two kickoffs out of the endzone for touchbacks, recovered two fumbles on defense, scored on an 11-yard touchdown run, returned a punt 61 yards for a touchdown, threw a 12-yard scoring strike, and kicked three extra points – all in the first five minutes of the game. The famous "Snow Bowl" game with Michigan was played in late November. Somehow, between the swirling winds and zero visibility, Janowicz boots a 38-yard field goal in what would later be called one of the "Greatest Feats in American Sports" by a panel of sportswriters. To no one's surprise, Janowicz wins the Heisman Trophy. On Dec. 9, Fesler submits a lengthy resignation statement.

1951

After a highly-scrutinized selection process, Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes begins his 28-year tenure as head coach. A tireless worker, meticulous planner, and a Lieutenent Commander in the Navy, Hayes led his initial Buckeye team, which struggled to adjust to his T-formation style, to a 4-3-2 finish. Many thought Hayes' days at Ohio State were numbered. They were wrong.

1954

Ohio State claims its second national championship with a perfect 10-0 season, beating Southern Cal, 20-7, in a rainy, mud-soaked Rose Bowl game. The rift between West Coast writers and Hayes is born when the OSU coach criticizes the Tournament of Roses Association for not covering the field before the game and allowing the bands to perform at halftime.

Ohio State uses a 17-0 blanking of Michigan to claim its second-consecutive Big Ten championship. Howard "Hopalong" Cassady becomes Ohio State's third Heisman Trophy winner. During the season, Hayes voices his displeasure over the fact several other football conferences had started awarding scholarships to student-athletes, but the Big Ten had failed to follow suit. After a series of meetings and heated debates, the conference adopts a complicated grant-in-aid program based on financial need, marking the first form of athletics scholarship available at Ohio State.

1956

Ohio State sets a Big Ten record with 17-consecutive victories, breaking Michigan's previous mark of 15. Offensive guard Jim Parker became the first OSU player to win the Outland Trophy.

1957

After dropping the season opener, the Buckeyes win nine-consecutive games to capture the school's third national championship – the second under Hayes. OSU knocked off Oregon 10-7 in the Rose Bowl for its third-consecutive win in Pasadena.

1961

Ohio State finishes 8-0-1, defeats Michigan, 50-20, wins the Big Ten and is named national champions by the Football Writers. A bitter dispute among the school's faculty council erupted when a Rose Bowl invitation arrived. By a narrow margin, the council voted not to accept the invitation and skip the bowl game. A livid Hayes claimed for years the decision hampered his recruiting efforts.

1963

Ohio State defeated Michigan in Ann Arbor, 14-10, marking the fourth-consecutive Buckeye win over the Wolverines. The game was delayed a week as the nation mourned the death of President John F. Kennedy. The attendance of 36,424 was the smallest at Michigan Stadium in 20 years.

The History of Ohio State Football

Billy Ray Anders, a true walk-on that did not play high school football, set an OSU record with 55 receptions. The record would stand until Cris Carter's arrival in 1985.

1968

Arguably the finest Ohio State team in history uses a dominating 50-14 win over Michigan and a 27-16 come-from-behind victory over Southern California in the Rose Bowl to earn the school's fifth national championship. Before the final polls crowning the Buckeyes champions are released, Coach Hayes departs for Vietnam for a volunteer trip to talk football with U.S. servicemen. Later, the Sporting News called this team one of the 10 greatest college football teams of all-time.

1969

A squad Coach Hayes called "the best team we ever put together, probably the best team that ever played college football," rolled easily to a 9-0 record, but a season-ending loss to Michigan ended OSU's 22-game unbeaten streak and bid for a second-consecutive national title.

1970

Jim Stillwagon wins both the Outland and the first Lombardi Award. Ohio State rolls to nine-consecutive wins – including a 20-9 triumph over Michigan that has been called one of the most emotional games in Ohio Stadium history – before falling to Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Ohio State still was awarded a national championship by the National Football Foundation. A senior class featuring six All-Americans and nine all-Big Ten selections leaves OSU with a three-year mark of 27-2.

Jim Stillwagon won the first Lombardi Award in 1970.

1972

Freshmen are cleared to play for the first time, signaling the start of the Archie Griffin era. Against the better judgment of Coach Hayes but after strong urging from backfield coach Rudy Hubbard, Griffin comes off the bench against North Carolina and rushes for a then-Ohio State record 239 yards in only his second collegiate appearance. OSU uses two goal-line stands – one in each half – to beat Michigan, 14-11, and claim a share of the Big Ten title and a trip to the Rose Bowl.

1973

Ohio State goes unbeaten, finishing 10-0-1 including a 42-21 trouncing of USC in the Rose Bowl. OSU becomes the first school to own three of the Top 5 vote-getters in the Heisman Trophy balloting. With five Big Ten titles, two national championships, and four Rose Bowl trips all in a six-year span, Ohio State football popularity hits an all-time high. Columbus becomes known as the "Capital of College Football."

1974

On June 5, Coach Hayes suffers a heart attack, but pledges to return by OSU's opener Sept. 14. The fiery coach, who by this point had become larger-than-life in Columbus, did return and led OSU to its third-consecutive Big Ten championship and yet another Rose Bowl. Archie Griffin won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the fifth non-senior to win the award.

1975

Hayes gives West Coast reporters a now famous quote about Archie Griffin: "He's a better young man than he is a football player, and he's the best football player I've ever seen." Griffin becomes the first two-time winner of the Heisman Trophy, leading the Buckeyes to their conference-record fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl. He also becomes the NCAA's all-time leading rusher in a midseason game against Purdue.

Archie Griffin became the first two-time Hesiman Trophy winner in 1975.

Just one year after the Big Ten changes the rule to allow more than just the conference champion to attend a bowl game, the Buckeyes notch a share of the Big Ten championship and beat Colorado, 27-10, in the Orange Bowl.

1979

Former Ohio State player and assistant coach Earle Bruce is named head coach. The Buckeyes finish the regular season 11-0 and come within a point of a national championship, falling 17-16 to Southern California in the Rose Bowl. Bruce is named the Big Ten and national coach of the year in his first season.

1980

Ohio State and Illinois combined for 1,057 yards and 91 points in a 49-42 OSU win.

1981

The Buckeyes capture their second Big Ten championship in three years under Bruce and top Navy in the Liberty Bowl. Art Schlichter completed 31 of 52 passes for 458 yards – all OSU records – against the Florida State Seminoles.

1984

After a five-year absence, Ohio State returns to the Rose Bowl with an undisputed Big Ten championship. Chris Spielman makes his debut a memorable one in the season opener against Oregon State, making 10 tackles in the second half after coming off the bench. Keith Byars rushes for a then school-record 274 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 45-38 win over Illinois. Byars' memorable day also included a 67-yard touchdown run where he lost one shoe 35 yards from the goal line.

1985

The first night game in Ohio Stadium history – thanks to portable light standards – ends in a 10-7 Ohio State win over Pittsburgh. Flanker Mike Lanese becomes the first OSU football player to win a Rhodes Scholarship. A preseason foot injury to Heisman Trophy favorite Keith Byars dampens Ohio State's hopes for a championship season.

The History of Ohio State Football

Linebacker Chris Spielman wins the Lombardi Award and the season ends with a thrilling 23-20 win at Michigan. College football fans everywhere mourn the death of Woody Hayes. President Richard Nixon, joined by a crowd of over 10,000, speaks at Hayes' memorial service.

1988

John Cooper, then head coach at Arizona State, was named the school's 21st head football coach after an intense search conducted by new Director of Athletics Jim Jones.

1989

Ohio State celebrates its 100th season of intercollegiate football. The Buckeyes overcome a 31-0 deficit to win 41-37 at Minnesota, equaling the largest comeback in NCAA history. OSU competes in the Hall of Fame Bowl, its 10th different postseason bowl appearance.

1990

Natural grass returns to Ohio Stadium. Robert Smith gains 1,126 yards to break Archie Griffin's OSU freshman rushing record.

1991

Thanks to 5,000 new bleacher seats, home total (654,500), average home (90,500) and single game (95,357 vs. Iowa) attendance records fall.

1993

OSU records its best record since 1979 by going 10-1-1, capturing a share of the Big Ten title and winning the Holiday Bowl.

1994

The Buckeyes defeat Michigan 22-6, ending a six-game winless streak against the Wolverines.

1995

Ohio State dominated college football's individual awards. Eddie George becomes OSU's sixth Heisman Trophy winner. Orlando Pace becomes the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award, and Terry Glenn wins the Biletnikoff Award. The Buckeyes tie a school record with 11 wins and play in the Citrus Bowl. OSU sets a school record that still stands with 475 points scored. A then Ohio Stadium record crowd of 95,537 is on hand for Ohio State's 45-26 win over Notre Dame.

1996

The Buckeyes win their 27th Big Ten title and defeat Arizona State in the Rose Bowl, winding up No. 2 in both national polls. Orlando Pace repeats as the Lombardi Award winner and wins the Outland Trophy. It marks the fourth-consecutive season Ohio State has finished among the nation's Top 10 in one of the major polls.

1998

Ohio State notched its fourth-consecutive 10-win season. The Buckeyes spend 10 weeks as the No. 1 in the Associated Press Poll and cap the season with a 24-14 win over Texas A&M in the Sugar Bowl. Joe Germaine wins the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player, and the Buckeyes go a perfect 5-0 against teams ranked in the Top 25. Antoine Winfield wins the Thorpe Award.

1999

Athletics Director Andy Geiger announces the retirement of Archie Griffin's No. 45 at the Sept. 30 Iowa game. It is the first number retired in any sport in Ohio State history.

2000

The jersey numbers of former Heisman Trophy winners Vic Janowicz (31) and Howard "Hopalong" Cassady (40) are retired at home games against Penn State and Michigan, respectively. The Buckeyes fall to South Carolina in the Outback Bowl on Jan. 1, the first meeting between the two teams. Following the season, former OSU assistant Jim Tressel is named to replace John Cooper as head coach of the Buckeyes.

2001

Jim Tressel becomes the Buckeyes' 22nd head football coach. The jerseys of Les Horvath and Eddie George, Ohio State's first and most recent Heisman Trophy winners, respectively, are retired. The Buckeyes defeat Michigan in Ann Arbor, their first win there since 1987.

2002

Ohio State captures the school's seventh national championship and the Big Ten's first unanimous crown since 1968 by compiling a 14-0 record and defeating Miami in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 3. The 14 victories set an NCAA Division I-A record. The Buckeyes begin the season ranked 13th in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, but gradually work their way up to the No. 2 spot prior to their showdown with the previously unbeaten and top-ranked Hurricanes. Their double-overtime victory over Miami is typical of a heart-pounding season in which they win five games by six points or less. Quarterback Craig Krenzel and two-way star Chris Gamble, who starts at both flanker and cornerback for the Buckeyes, share team MVP honors. Additionally, Krenzel is selected as the offensive MVP of the bowl game, while teammate Mike Doss is the defensive honoree. Four players, Doss at safety, linebacker Matt Wilhelm, punter Andy Groom and kicker Mike Nugent receive first-team All-America honors and second-year coach Jim Tressel is selected as the National Coach of the Year.

Ohio State wins the 2003 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the National Championship.

2002 National Champions

Ohio State's Title Quest Began in Tampa!

Buckeyes thrilling upset of No.1 Miami wraps up championship year

Ohio State's quest for the 2002 national championship literally began on the first day of the year. Trailing South Carolina, 28-0, midway through the third quarter of the Outback Bowl on New Year's Day 2002, the Buckeyes rallied with 28 unanswered points to tie the stunned Gamecocks with just over two minutes left in the game. South Carolina would go on to win, 31-28, on a last-second field goal, but it was the Buckeyes who walked off the field feeling good about the game.

"The second half of that game taught us we could compete with anybody if we believed in each other and just did our jobs," said All-America strong safety Mike Doss. "Afterwards, in the locker room, we didn't talk about the loss, we talked about how good we could be next year."

Mike Doss returned for his senior year to lead Ohio State to an undisputed national championship.

Shortly thereafter, Doss bolstered OSU's chances for the future by announcing he would return for his senior year rather than opt for early entry into the NFL draft.

"I thought we had the makings of something special and I wanted to be part of it," he said. "We believed in ourselves, we believed in Coach (Jim) Tressel and we believed, with hard work, we could be national champions."

In true Hollywood fashion, the Buckeyes did just that, literally coming from out of nowhere to post an improbable – at least in the eyes of many — 14-0 record and capture the Big Ten's first undisputed national championship since 1968.

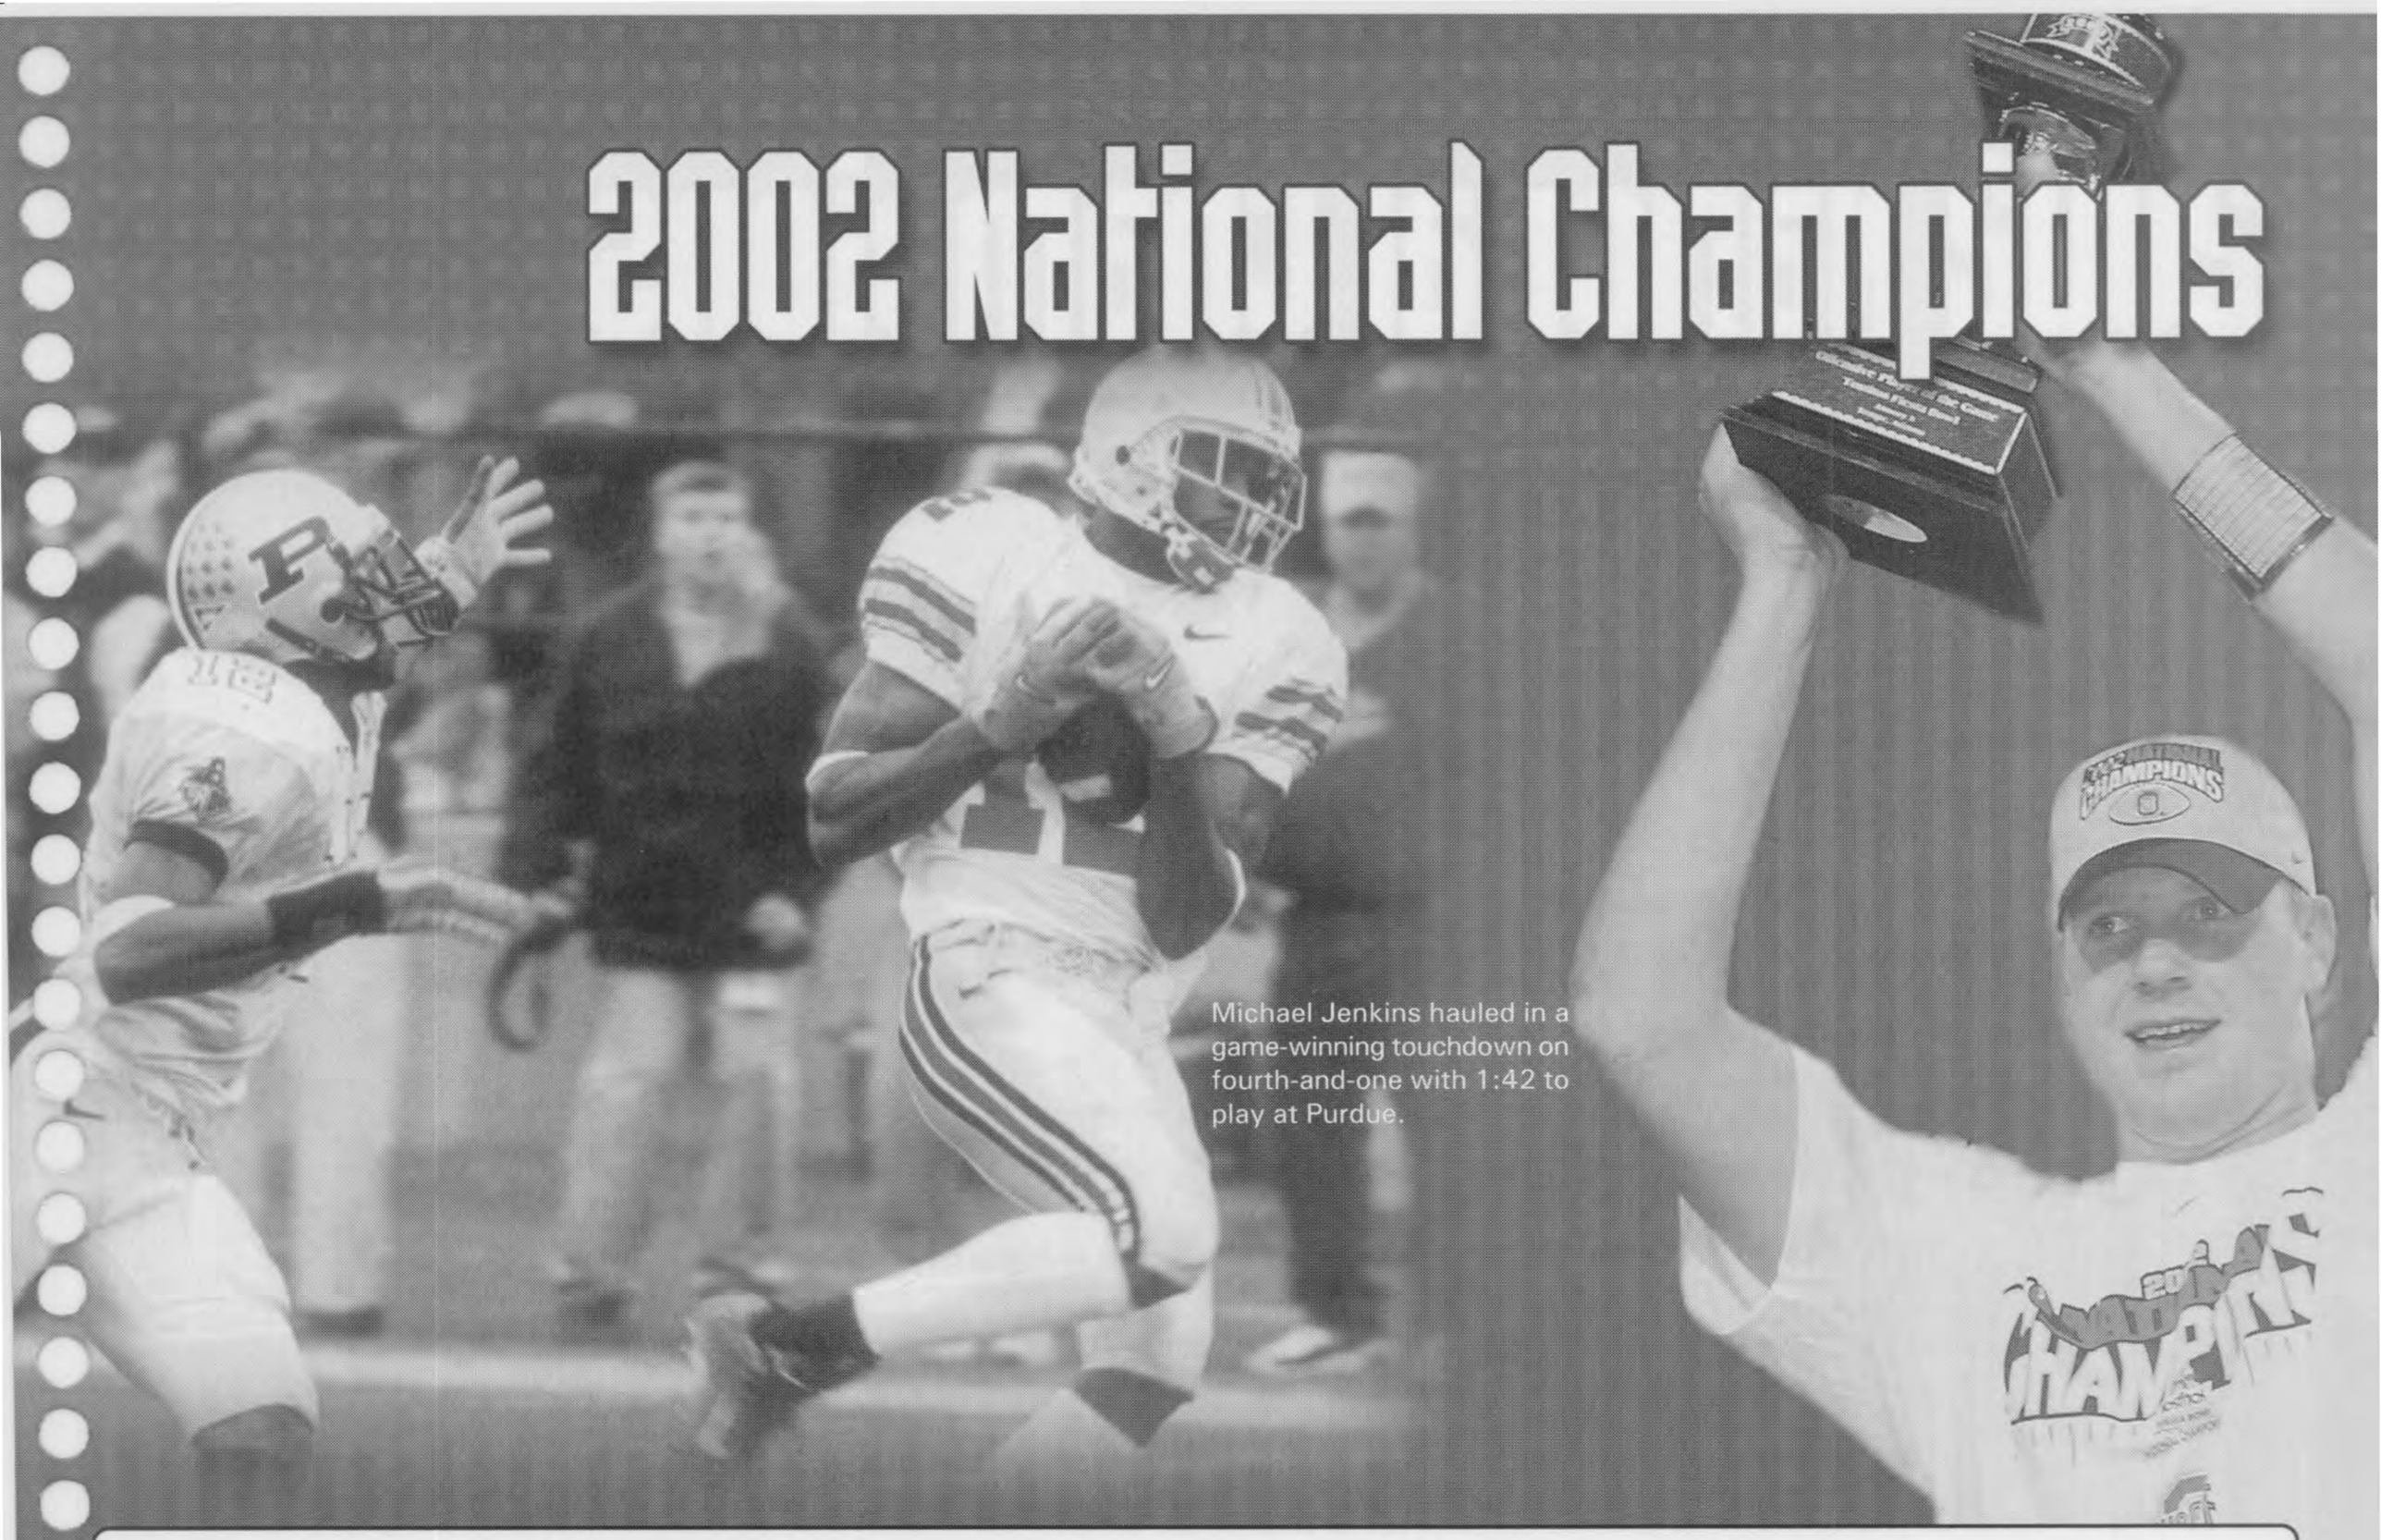
They did so thanks to a thrilling 31-24 double overtime victory over top-ranked and heavily favored Miami on Jan. 3 in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The win over the Hurricanes, who entered the championship fray with a 34-game winning streak, followed a 14-9 nail-biter over Michigan in the regular-season finale. That game also went down to the wire, the Buckeyes locking up a bid to Tempe when nickel back Will Allen intercepted a Michigan pass at the two-yard line as time expired.

But it was that kind of a season, filled with close games and come-from-behind victories. And even though there were times when victory seemed impossible, the 2002 team, led by a group of 13 gritty seniors, always, always found a way to win.

Not once did they give up on themselves. Not at Cincinnati when the Bearcats were driving late for what looked like the winning touchdown.

Chris Gamble became the first two-way starter in 40 years at Ohio State.

2002 National Champions



Michael Jenkins hauled in a game-winning touchdown on fourth-and-one with 1:42 to play at Purdue.

Not at Purdue, when they faced fourth-and-one on the 37 with 1:42 to play. Not against Penn State, when they just didn't seem to be able to get anything going offensively. Not at Illinois, when the Illini scored on the final play of the game to force overtime. Not against Michigan, when they trailed 9-7 late in the fourth quarter. Not even against Miami in the face of a seemingly impossible fourth-and-14 in the first overtime.

This was a group that believed in itself and understood the importance of teamwork and chemistry. It was a team in every sense of the word. And because it was, Tressel's squad won a remarkable seven games by seven or fewer points.

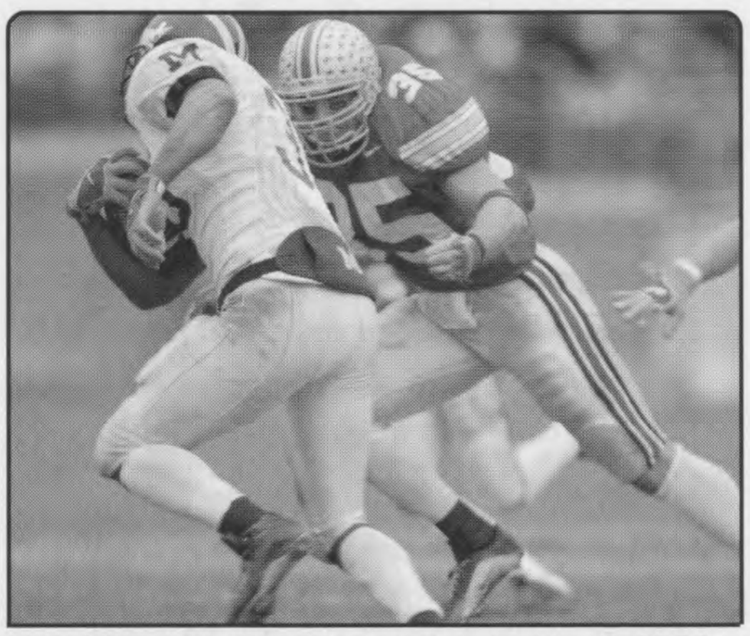
There were, of course, numerous standouts.

Quarterback Craig Krenzel, for example, performed better than anyone had a right to expect in his first year as a starter. Time-and-again the 6-4 redhead came up with a key play to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat. A molecular genetics major, Krenzel could beat you with his arm or his legs, but more often than not he won games with his head and an amazing coolness under fire.

Then, there was sophomore sensation Chris Gamble, who started the final six games of the season at both flanker and cornerback, becoming the first two-way starter in nearly 30 years at Ohio State. Gamble, who played 100 or more plays in each of the last four games, was second on the team in receptions and first in interceptions. In his spare time, he also returned punts and kickoffs.

Krenzel and Gamble were picked by their teammates as Co-MVPs of the 2002 Buckeyes and Krenzel was the Offensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl.

Freshman running back Maurice Clarett also shared in the limelight, rushing for 1,237 yards and 16 touchdowns even though he missed three full games and parts of two others because of injury. It was his emergence that legitimized the OSU running game. When the 6-0, 230-pound tailback stepped out onto the field, he seemed to energize everyone around him.



Matt Wilhelm led the Buckeyes in tackles in 2002.

Banged up much of the year, especially up front, the Ohio State offense somehow always found a way to score when it had to.

In addition to Doss at strong safety and Matt Wilhelm at middle linebacker, the stout-hearted Buckeye defense also boasted the finest front-four in all of college football in ends Will Smith and Darrion Scott and tackles Tim Anderson and Kenny Peterson.

Thanks to the defense, which finished second nationally in scoring defense and third nationally in rushing defense, the Buckeyes were in every game.

Doss, the Defensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl, earned first team All-America honors, becoming the seventh three-time All-American in Ohio State history. So did Wilhelm after leading the team in tackles (121) and tackles for loss (19.5).

Additionally, punter Andy Groom and kicker Mike Nugent were first team All-Americans and gave the Buckeyes a tremendous boost in the kicking game. Nugent, only a sophomore, set eight school records and tied another.

Numerous accolades went to the soft-spoken Tressel, who was selected as the Football Writers, the Football Coaches and the Sporting News National Coach of the Year. The second-year Ohio State mentor was chosen, too, as the Bobby Dodd and the Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year. He also was honored by the Pigskin Club of Washington D.C. and the Touchdown Club of Columbus as those organizations National Coach of the Year.

Mike Nugent set nine OSU kicking records in 2002.

And Tressel's top defensive lieutenant, Mark Dantonio, was a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in college football.

It was indeed a storybook year, one that Buckeye fans will long remember. And maybe that loss to South Carolina back on Jan. 1 wasn't so bad after all.

2002 Season Highlights

- Freshman tailback Maurice Clarett bolts 59 yards off right tackle for a touchdown in the season opener against Texas Tech
- Senior Michael Doss and freshman A.J. Hawk each return interceptions for touchdowns against Kent State
- Maurice Clarett runs for 230 yards against Washington State, the second highest rushing total ever by an Ohio State freshman. Mike Nugent ties an Ohio State record with three field goals of 40 or more yards against the Cougars.
- Darrion Scott forces a Gino Guidugli fumble in the fourth quarter to set up Ohio State's go ahead touchdown in a 23-19 win over Cincinnati. On the Bearcats' final drive, linebacker Matt Wilhelm deflects a pass that nickel back Will Allen intercepts in the back of the end zone to preserve Ohio State's victory.
- Starting flanker Chris Gamble, inserted for defensive purposes at cornerback, intercepts a Wisconsin pass in the end zone as Ohio State holds on for a 19-14 win. Mike Nugent sets a school record wit his 16th consecutive field goal.
- Chris Gamble strikes again, this time intercepting a pass at the start of the second half and retuning it 40 yards for a touchdown in Ohio State's 13-7 win over Penn State. It was Gamble's first career start at both flanker and cornerback. Maurice Clarett rushes for 42 yards before leaving the game with a shoulder injury. Clarett joins Robert Smith as the only true freshmen in Ohio State annals to rush for 1,000 or more yards in a season.
- Flanker Chris Vance, who learned the morning of the Minnesota game that his brother had been shot and killed the night before in Tampa, Fla., catches a 30-yard touchdown pass, which he dedicates to his brother. The Buckeyes defeat the Gophers, 34-3.

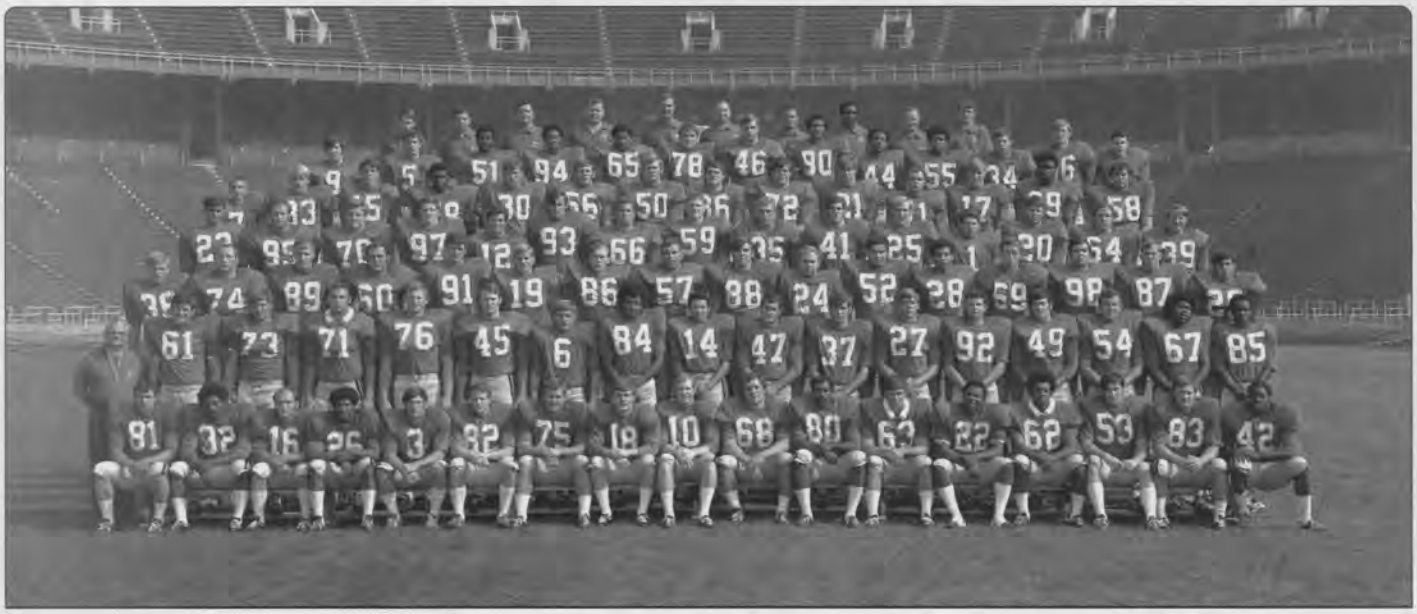
- Quarterback Craig Krenzel and split end Michael Jenkins hook up on a dramatic fourth-and-one, 37-yard touchdown with 1:36 to play and the Buckeyes slip by Purdue in West Lafayette, 10-6. It turns out to be THE play of the year in college football.
- Craig Krenzel scrambles 14 yards on third-and-10 to give the Buckeyes a first down in overtime at Illinois. Ohio State scores two plays later on a 7-yard run by Maurice Hall. OSU wins 23-16.
- Defensive tackle Tim Anderson preserves the 23-16 win at Illinois by swatting down Jon Beutjer's fourth-down pass.
- Maurice Hall races untouched around right end on a 3-yard touchdown run that puts Ohio State on top of Michigan 14-9.
- Will Allen's interception at the 2-yard line as time expires preserves the Buckeyes' 14-9 win over the Wolverines and earns OSU a bid to the Fiesta Bowl and an appearance in the National Championship Game. Maurice Clarett rushes for 119 yards and surpasses Robert Smith's freshman rushing record of 1,126 yards. Clarett finishes the regular season with 1,190 yards.
- Maurice Clarett strips the ball away from Miami defensive back Sean Taylor after Taylor intercepts an OSU pass in the end zone. The Buckeyes re-gain possession at the Miami 28 and score on a field goal to take a 17-7 lead midway through the third quarter of the Fiesta Bowl.
- Craig Krenzel and Michael Jenkins keep the Buckeyes hopes alive with a 17-yard pass completion on fourth-and-14 in the first overtime of the Fiesta Bowl.
- With Miami facing fourth-and-goal at the 1-yard line, Buckeye linebacker Cie Grant pressures Ken Dorsey in to an errant throw that is knocked down by Matt Wilhelm and Ohio State wins the 2002 National Championship, 31-24.

GO BUCKS!

Andy Groom was one of four Buckeyes to win All-America acclaim.

Following the season, the Buckeyes were invited to the White House for Champions Day. After having their picture taken with President George W. Bush, OSU punter Andy Groom presented the President with a Buckeye helmet.

1970 National Champions



National Champions — National Football Foundation; Won 9, Lost 1

Led by All-Americans John Brockington, Jim Stillwagon, Jack Tatum and Mike Sensibaugh, the Ohio State Buckeyes claimed the Big Ten title and their most recent national championship, the National Football Foundation crown, with a 9-1 record.

The national championship was Woody Hayes' fifth with the Buckeyes and the Big Ten championship was the third in a string of nine championships in 10 years. Some say the senior class of 1970 may have been the school's greatest ever. In three years, the team won 27 of 29 games, three Big Ten championships and a pair of national championships.

OSU rolled through the regular season 9-0 with a 7-0 Big Ten mark, but stumbled in a 27-17 loss to Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Still, the NFF selected the Buckeyes No. 1, while UPI had OSU No. 2 and the Associated Press had the Buckeyes No. 5.

Brockington led the OSU offense with 1,142 yards rushing and 17 touchdowns. Quarterback Rex Kern passed for 470 yards and three touchdowns and also rushed for 597 yards and seven touchdowns. Jan White was the team leader with 17 catches for 171 yards.

Tatum, Stillwagon and Sensibaugh led a defense that allowed only 263.2 yards per game and forced 32 turnovers. Stan White led the team with 106 tackles.

Ohio State opened the season with a 56-13 romp over the Texas A&M Aggies in front of 85,657 fans in Columbus. OSU totaled 513 yards of offense to only 321 for the Aggies. Seven different players found paydirt for the Scarlet and Gray.

In week two, the Buckeyes dropped their second non-conference opponent with a 34-10 win over the visiting Duke Blue Devils. Ohio State once again dominated the statistics with 481 yards to 249 for the Blue Devils. Leo Hayden rushed for 165 yards while Brockington and Kern added 117 and 113 each.

The Hayes-led Buckeyes rolled through the Big Ten schedule. OSU opened with a 29-0 win over Michigan State in East Lansing followed by a 28-8 win over the Minnesota Golden Gophers. In the Minnesota game, Brockington rushed for 187 yards and two touchdowns.

One week later, the Buckeyes' offense rolled up the big numbers in a 48-29 win at Illinois. Brockington scored three times in the game and Ohio State totaled 475 yards of total offense.

Ohio State continued with wins over Northwestern, Wisconsin and Purdue. In the Northwestern game, Brockington rushed for 161 yards and a touchdown, while Kern rushed for a pair of scores. Brockington added three more scores a week later against the Badgers and he scored the Buckeyes' only touchdown in the Purdue game.

In an emotional Michigan game, Ohio State, much to the delight of a delerious Ohio Stadium crowd, avenged their only loss of 1969, downing the Wolverines 20-9. OSU limited the Wolverines to 155 yards and 10 first downs.

In the Rose Bowl, Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett led Stanford to 14 fourth-quarter points to clinch a victory. Plunkett was 20-of-30 for 265 yards and a touchdown. It was the only blemish on an otherwise perfect season.

1968 National Champions

Led by an amazing class of sophomores that included quarterback Rex Kern, defensive back Jack Tatum and defensive lineman Jim Stillwagon, Ohio State rolled to a 10-0 record and the 1968 National Championship when it defeated Southern California in the Rose Bowl, 27-16.

The team compiled numbers that boggle the mind and beat teams it wasn't supposed to beat. The Woody Hayes-led squad averaged 32 points and 440 yards per game, impressive numbers for that time, and the defense was stingy, allowing 15 points and 292 yards.

Eleven players from the team earned All-America honors during their careers and six were drafted in the first round of the NFL draft in either 1969 or 1971.

Jim Otis led the Buckeyes' rushing attack with 985 yards and 17 touchdowns, while Kern was the passing leader with 972 yards and seven touchdowns. Sensibaugh led the defense with five interceptions and Mark Stier recorded 87 tackles.

The unknown and young Buckeyes opened the season at home with a 35-14 victory over Southern Methodist. Despite an NCAA record performance from SMU quarterback Chuck Hixson, the Buckeye defense forced six turnovers and allowed only 50 yards on the ground.

OSU then rolled past Oregon 21-6 before playing perhaps the most important game of the season. With a 2-0 record, but still a questionable reputation, the Buckeyes hosted the No. 1-ranked Purdue Boilermakers. It was this game that probably made the biggest difference in the season.

The Ohio State defense throttled a Purdue offense led by All-America candidates Mike Phipps and Leroy Keyes, allowing only 186 yards and no points. The defense also scored the Buckeyes' first touchdown as Ted Provost picked off a Phipps pass and cruised 35 yards into the end zone. Quarterback Bill Long added a 14-yard run in the third quarter giving the Buckeyes a 13-0 victory and a piece of the national limelight.

From that point on, the momentum snowballed. The next week Hayes' squad drilled Northwestern 45-21 in Columbus on the strength of 565 yards of total offense. On Oct. 26 it was the Fighting Illini that took it on the chin when Kern and Otis combined for 129 yards and four touchdowns on the ground as OSU jumped out to a 24-0 halftime lead.

The Buckeyes defeated Michigan State, Wisconsin and Iowa before hosting the Michigan Wolverines Nov. 23 in Ohio Stadium. In a game that clinched the Big Ten championship and a Rose Bowl berth, the Buckeyes scored 29 second-half points for a 50-14 win. Otis had 143 yards on the ground and four touchdowns and Kern added 96 yards and two scores as OSU tallied 421 yards and seven TDs on the ground.

The win over Michigan set up a showdown between No. 1 OSU and No. 2 Southern California in the Rose Bowl.

In one of the great games of all time in Pasadena, OSU overcame a 10-0 deficit and rolled to a 27-16 win. Though he scored on an 80-yard run, Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson was held to 91 yards on 27 carries the rest of the way.

1961 National Champions

National Champions — Football Writers; Won 8, Lost 0, Tied 1

Led by an explosive offense that averaged nearly 30 points per Big Ten game, the Buckeyes won their 10th undisputed Big Ten championship and were awarded the Football Writers' Association national championship.

The Buckeyes scored 40 or more points two times and passed the 30-point plateau one other time. Just as they had in 1957 with an 18-14 win in Columbus, Texas Christian's Horned Frogs denied the Buckeyes a perfect season with a 7-all tie, but it was the only time all season an opponent was within one touchdown of the mighty Scarlet and Gray.

The offense was led by three outstanding running backs (Matt Snell, Bob Ferguson and Paul Warfield). Ferguson led the Big Ten in rushing with 671 yards in conference games, while Warfield was fourth with 307 in Big Ten contests. Ferguson finished his career ranked second on the OSU all-time rushing list with 2,162 yards and was runner up to Ernie Davis for the Heisman Trophy that year.

Still, the Buckeyes did not play in the Rose Bowl when the OSU Faculty Council voted to reject the bid. The Buckeyes ended the season ranked No. 2 in both the UPI and AP polls, one slot behind Bear Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide.

After the TCU tie, the Buckeyes defeated the eventual Pac-8 Champions, UCLA, 13-3 in Columbus. OSU scored all 13 points in the fourth quarter on rushing touchdowns by Snell and Warfield. While the offense took its time getting warmed up, the defense was smoking, holding the high-powered Bruin offense to 166 yards and a field goal.

One week later, the Buckeyes destroyed Illinois 44-0, outgaining the Illini 424-180 and forcing four turnovers. Eight Buckeyes rushed for 10 or more yards in the game, including quarterback John Mummey (63) and Warfield (62). Ferguson totaled only 45 yards on the ground, but had four scores.

The Buckeyes beat Northwestern and Wisconsin before hosting a homecoming thriller against the Iowa Hawkeyes. Holding a slim 12-7 lead at the end of the third period, the Buckeyes scored on each of their first three possessions in the final stanza to tally a 29-13 win and keep their undefeated season intact. Ferguson rushed for 144 yards and a score and Joe Sparma passed for 88 yards and two scores, both to Charles Bryant, who caught four passes for 94 yards.

Hayes' squad posted wins over Indiana and Oregon for wins six and seven before traveling to Ann Arbor for the annual battle with arch-rival Michigan.

OSU led 21-12 entering the fourth quarter. The Buckeye offense then exploded for 29 points and a 50-20 win. Ferguson rushed for 152 yards and four touchdowns and Warfield added 122 yards and a score as OSU totaled 512 yards of offense in chalking up all-time win No. 400.

1957 National Champions

National Champions — UPI and Football Writers; Won 9, Lost 1

After being stunned in the season opener by Texas Christian (18-14), Ohio State rolled to a 9-1 record and the UPI and Football Writers' national championships.

This edition of the Buckeyes had everything, including an offense ranked 11th nationally and a defense that allowed only 9.2 points per game. Don Clark led the rushing attack with 655 yards and eight touchdowns, but seven players had at least 195 yards rushing and nine Buckeyes scored touchdowns. Ohio State was particularly tough late in the game as it allowed only six points in the fourth quarter all season.

Clark, Aurealius Thomas and Leo Brown earned All-Big Ten recognition and Thomas was an All-American for Woody Hayes' second national championship team. Jim Parker was drafted in the first round by the Baltimore Colts after the season.

Following the loss to the Horned Frogs, the Buckeyes went on the road to battle the Washington Huskies and came away with a 35-7 victory. A week later, the Buckeyes opened the Big Ten season with a 21-7 win over Illinois and followed that win with a 56-0 pasting of the Indiana Hoosiers.

OSU faced a stern test the next week at Wisconsin, but came out on top, 16-13. Don Sutherin's third-quarter field goal provided the margin of victory.

After relatively easier wins over Northwestern and Purdue, the Buckeyes had their hands full in week eight against Iowa. Trailing 13-10 in the fourth quarter, OSU put together a patented Hayes march that culminated with a 5-yard touchdown plunge by Bob White and a 17-13 triumph.

The next week OSU headed north to Ann Arbor to battle Michigan. The Buckeyes trailed 14-10 entering the second half, but took control after intermission and downed the Wolverines 31-14 to earn a trip to the Rose Bowl.

After the win over the vaunted Wolverines, the Buckeyes met Pac-8 Champion Oregon in the Rose Bowl. The Buckeyes scored first, when Frank Kremblas scored on a 1-yard dive over the center, but the Ducks tied the score with a 5-yard run in the second quarter. The game remained tied through the third quarter and into the fourth, but the quarter that was so kind to the Buckeyes all season was good once again.

On a drive that started with more than five minutes remaining in the third period, the Buckeyes drove 56 yards in 14 plays to take a 10-7 lead on a 34-yard field goal by the sure-footed Sutherin.

From then on, it was the defense as the Ducks were unable to get an offensive attack going and the Buckeyes grabbed their third national championship.

1954 National Champions

National Champions — Associated Press; Won 10, Lost 0

It didn't take Woody Hayes long to put his mark on the Ohio State Buckeyes. In his fourth season at the OSU helm, Hayes pushed his team to the limit and came away with the ultimate prize, his first national championship.

It would be the first of five for Hayes, who won 205 games at OSU. His 1954 team was the first in Ohio State history to win 10 games and had one of the Buckeyes' best players in Howard "Hopalong" Cassady.

Cassady, who won the Heisman trophy the next season, accounted for 849 yards and earned first-team All-America honors in 1954. He led the team with 609 rushing yards and 12 receptions. End Dean Dugger also earned All-America honors and four other players earned All-Big Ten recognition, as the Buckeyes ran roughshod over their opponents that season, outscoring the opposition 249-75.

The defense was led by Jim Parker, who became an All-America guard the next two years, won the Outland Trophy as a senior and was a first round NFL draft pick of the Baltimore Colts. On the year, Ohio State held its foes to 7.5 points and 110 rushing yards per game, recovered 17 fumbles and had 18 interceptions and did not give up more than two touchdowns in a game.

OSU opened the season with a 28-0 victory over Indiana in Columbus. Quarterback Will Leggett rushed for 45 yards and passed for another 64 to lead the way.

The Buckeyes defeated western powerhouse Cal 21-13 the next week in Columbus as Cassady rushed for 104 yards and had touchdown runs of 29 and 26 yards. He also led the squad with four catches for 50 yards.

OSU drilled Illinois 40-7 the next week and then beat Iowa, Wisconsin and Northwestern in its next three outings. Robert Watkins had a pair of big games in that span, rushing for 112 and 105 against Illinois and Iowa, respectively.

Wins over the Pitt Panthers, 26-0, and the Purdue Boilermakers, 28-6, preceeded the annual Michigan finale.

The Buckeyes and the Wolverines battled to a 7-all tie through the first three quarters and neither team could gain an edge. But, led by the running of Cassady and the passing of Leggett, Ohio State scored 14 fourth-quarter points for a 21-7 victory. Cassady ended the day with 94 rushing yards while Leggett had 42 and 58 yards passing. Leggett accounted for the first two Buckeye scores with passes to Frederick Kriss and Richard Brubaker, and Cassady iced the game with a 1-yard dive late in the game. Ohio State was 9-0 and headed to Pasadena.

The Rose Bowl was a titanic battle between the Scarlet and Gray and the Southern California Trojans. The Buckeyes played flawless football with 22 first downs, 370 yards and no fumbles lost, and they rolled to a 20-7 victory over the Trojans who had seven fumbles and just six first downs.

1942 National Champions

National Champions — Associated Press, Won 9, Lost 1

It was an amazing squad that grabbed the national title with an overwhelming offense and a smothering defense.

Coached by hall of famer Paul Brown, the offense averaged 33.7 points while piling up 281.2 rushing yards per game and 5.2 yards per carry. The defense, on the other hand, allowed only 114 points and held its opponents to seven or fewer points four times in the 10-game season.

End Robert Shaw, tackle Chuck Csuri and guard Lindell Houston earned All-America honors, and seven players earned All-Big Ten accolades. It was truly a team of stars. Fullbacks Gene Fekete and Paul Sarringhaus were among the conference leaders in rushing with 916 and 672 yards, respectively. Fekete led the Big Ten in scoring with 92 points, while Sarringhaus was second with 72. On defense, George James and Tom Lynn each ranked among the Top 10 in the Big Ten with five interceptions.

The amazingly talented team rolled through the regular season with only a single blemish (a 17-7 loss to Wisconsin) and finished the season ranked No. 1 in the AP poll.

OSU opened the 1942 season with a 59-0 pasting of Fort Knox. Fekete and Dick Palmer scored two touchdowns each as the Buckeyes rolled up 440 yards rushing to minus-14 for the service squad. The Buckeyes had 19 first downs to only one for Fort Knox. OSU poured it on in the second half with 20 points in both the third and fourth quarters.

Ohio State battled Big Ten rival Indiana the next week, grabbing a 32-21 win in front of the home crowd. Fekete rushed for 132 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Buckeyes back from a 21-19 third-period deficit to victory.

OSU rolled to easy wins over USC, Purdue and Northwestern before making the trip to Madison for the battle with the Badgers. In that game, Wisconsin All-Americans Elroy Hirsch, Marlin Harder and Dave Schreiner dominated the Buckeyes, with Hirsch and Harder combining for 212 yards and 11 points. OSU narrowly avoided a shutout with a fourth-quarter touchdown run by Sarringhaus.

The Buckeyes rebounded from the loss with a 59-19 dismantling of the Pittsburgh Panthers. A week later, they pounded Illinois to set up a showdown with the Michigan Wolverines. The Wolverines, who had beaten Notre Dame a week earlier, were heavy favorites, but the Buckeyes dazzled the Maize and Blue with three passing touchdowns and prevailed 21-7. The win gave them the Big Ten title.

One week later, the Buckeyes clinched the national championship with a 41-12 win over the Iowa Seahawks.

Woody Hayes

Head Coach, 1951-1978

Between 1951 and 1978, while Woody Hayes stalked the Ohio Stadium sidelines, the Buckeyes won five national titles (and narrowly missed out on four others), captured 13 Big Ten crowns and won 205 games, including 152 conference games. Twice the Buckeyes won a conference record 17-consecutive league games.

Under Hayes, the Buckeyes played in 11 bowl games, including eight Rose Bowls. Ohio State is the only Big Ten school to play in four-consecutive Rose Bowls, traveling to Pasadena following the 1972-73-74 and '75 seasons.

Under Hayes' guidance, 56 different Ohio State players garnered first-team All-America honors. Additionally, he coached three Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy recipients and two Lombardi Award honorees.

Four of Hayes' teams notched unbeaten records and five others suffered just one loss. Between 1968 and 1970, the Buckeyes were 27-2 and won three Big Ten titles. From 1972 to 1977, OSU reeled off six-consecutive league championships and fashioned a combined record of 49-8.

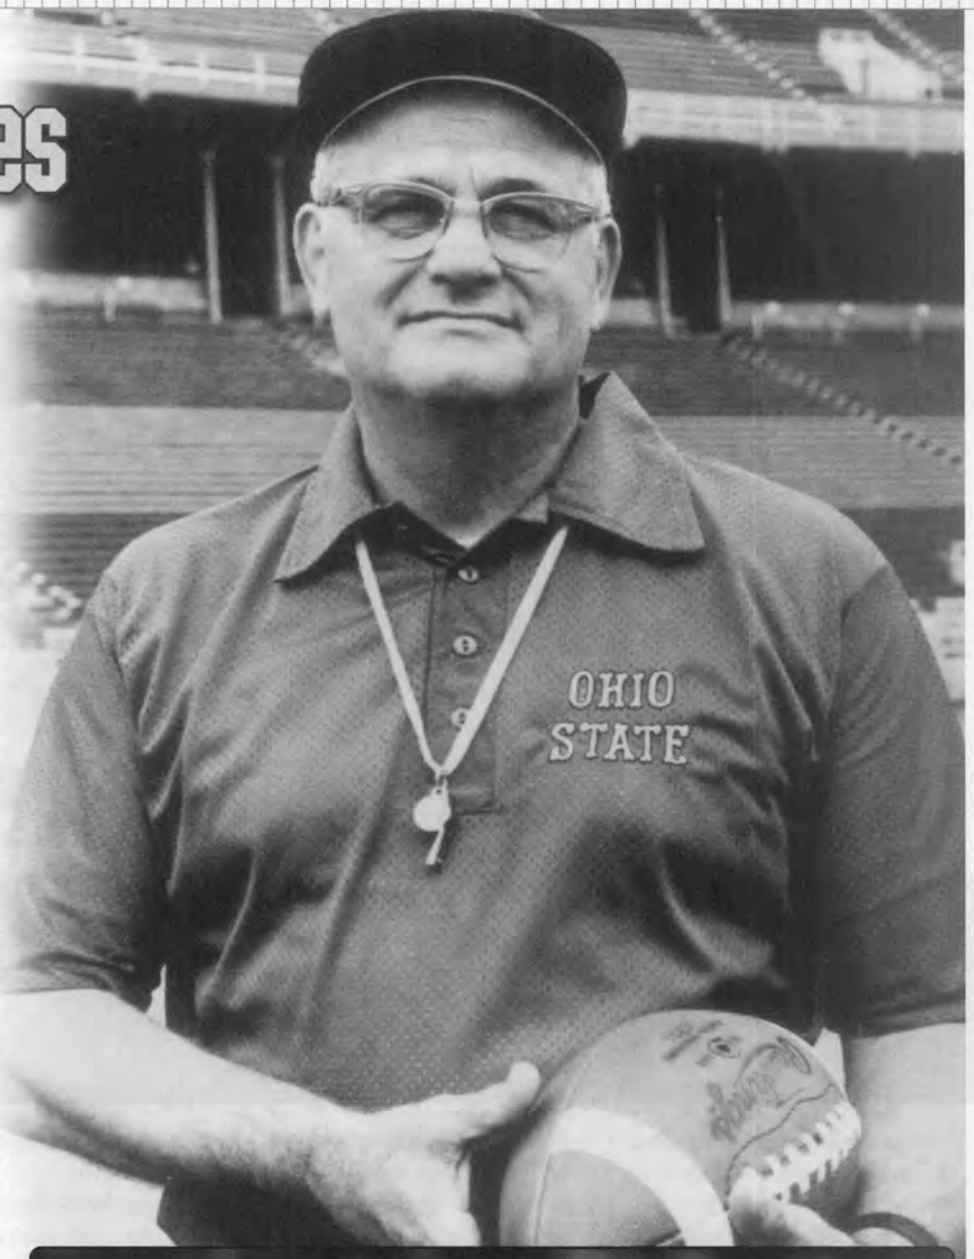
The list of former Hayes assistants includes Bill Mallory, Glen Mason, Gary Moeller, Lou Holtz, Bo Schembechler, Earle Bruce and Joe Bugel, just to name a few.

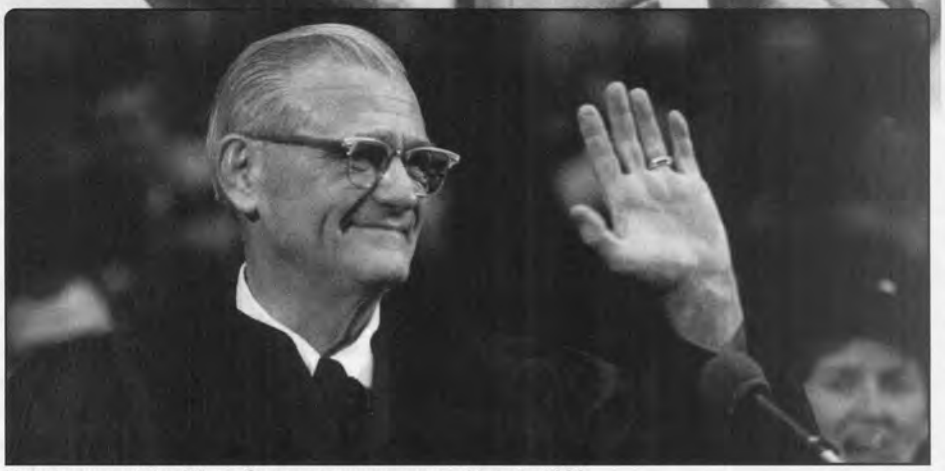
Hayes recorded a lifetime record of 238-72-10. During his stay with the Buckeyes, Hayes twice won National Coach of the Year honors. And during the Hayes era, the Buckeyes led the nation in attendance 21 times and finished second in each of the other seven years.

Hayes, who grew up in Newcomerstown, Ohio, graduated from Denison in 1935. He spent his entire coaching career within the state of Ohio, coaching at Denison for three years and at Miami (Ohio) for two.

Hayes was a noted historian with a passion for military history. He held the rank of associate professor at Ohio State and took great pride in being able to teach during the offseason. He was as proud of his players' high graduation rate as he was of their success on the football field.

Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes was born Feb. 14, 1913, in Clifton, Ohio. He died March 12, 1987, but his influence lives through the many thousands of people he touched during his 28 years at Ohio State. Woody Hayes holds a special place in college football history.





Hayes gave a stirring Winter Quarter commencement address in 1986.

For 28 years he was the heart and soul of Ohio State Football. A worshipper of tough men, he preached self-reliance, education and that the more you give, the more you get in return. He took the Buckeyes to heights never before achieved in the school's rich football history and touched more than a few lives along the way.

Woody Hayes at Ohio State

Won five national titles (1970, 1968, 1961, 1957 and 1954)

Won 13 Big Ten championships

Won 205 overall and 152 conference games

Led Ohio State to 11 bowl games (eight Rose Bowls)

Took Ohio State to four-consecutive Rose Bowls (1972-75)

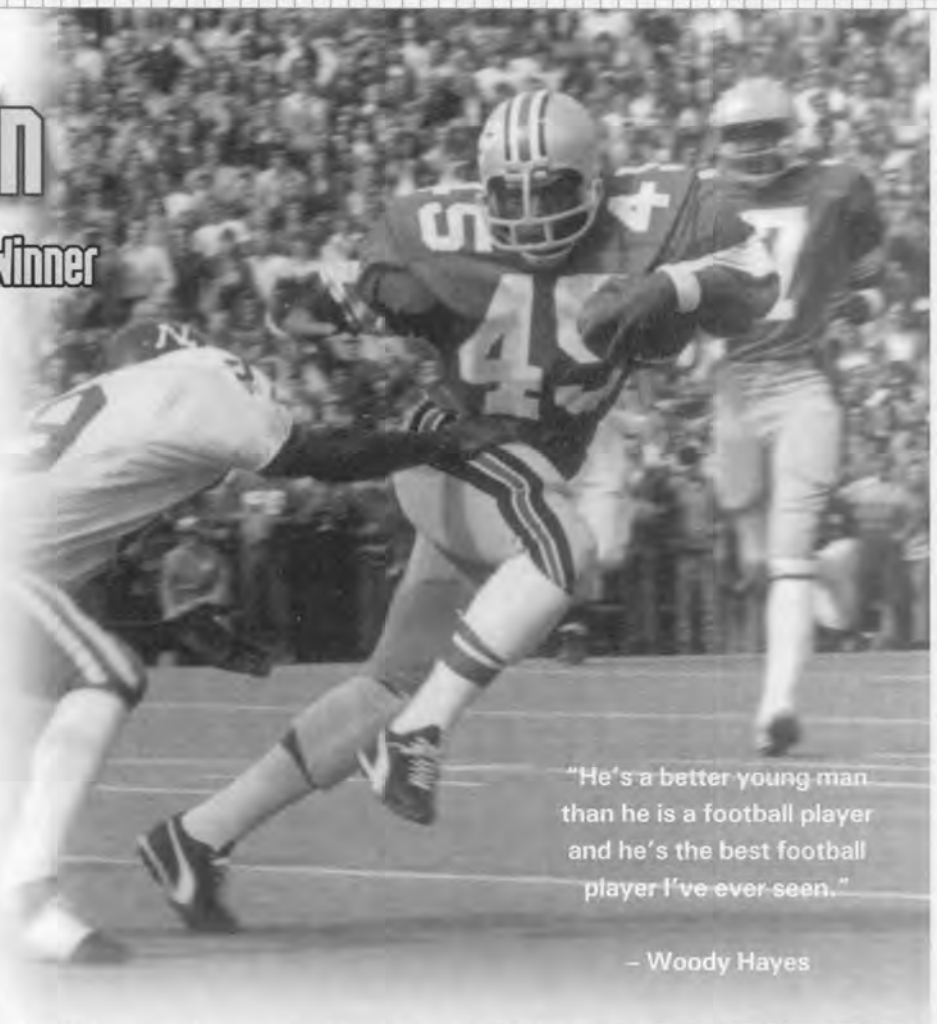
Produced 56 first team All-Americans

Coached three Heisman Trophy and three Outland Trophy winners

Coached two Lombardi Award winners

Archie Griffin

1974, 1975 Heisman Trophy Winner



In 1974, Ohio State tailback Archie Griffin became just the fifth junior ever to win the Heisman Trophy. In 1975, Griffin became the first player ever to win a second Heisman. Twenty-eight years later he is still the only player to have two of the coveted bronze statues, which go annually to the nation's top college football player.

But even though more than two decades have passed, honors continue to befall Griffin, now an associate director of athletics at his alma mater.

Most recently, Griffin was selected to the National High School Hall of Fame. He was inducted into that organization in the fall of 1996. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation and the Rose Bowl halls of fame and, of course, belongs to the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame.

Griffin was the Buckeyes' starting tailback for four years, leading Ohio State to a 40-5-1 record and four Big Ten titles between 1972 and 1975. He started in four-consecutive Rose Bowls, the only player ever to do so, and was a three-time first-team All-American.

At 5 feet 9 inches and 180 pounds, Griffin was small by college football standards even then, but he played with the heart of a lion and no football accomplishment was beyond his reach.

In just the second game of his freshman year, Griffin ran for a school record 239 yards. It was the start of a brilliant career that would see him amass an OSU record 5,589 yards and 26 touchdowns.

Excluding bowl games, Griffin rushed for 5,177 yards on 845 carries. The former figure ranks him fifth among all NCAA career ball carriers and Griffin rarely played more than half a game, his coach, Woody Hayes, always opting to take his star out as soon as the Buckeyes were in control.

Between his sophomore and senior seasons, Griffin ran for 100 or more yards in 31 consecutive regular-season games. That, too, is still an NCAA record, as is his 33 career 100-yard games.

In addition to two Heisman Trophies, Griffin also has a pair of Silver Footballs. The latter award is presented annually by the Chicago Tribune to the Big Ten's MVP. He is one of just three players to win that award twice. Griffin also was a two-time pick as National Player of the Year by both United Press International and the Walter Camp Foundation. He won those honors as a junior and senior.

Following his senior year, Griffin, who graduated a quarter early with a degree in industrial relations, received the NCAA's prestigious Top Five Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and leadership. It is the highest award the NCAA can bestow.

After graduation, Griffin was a first-round draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals. He played eight years of professional football, before returning to Columbus and joining the staff at Ohio State.

His jersey number "45" was retired Sept. 30, 1999.

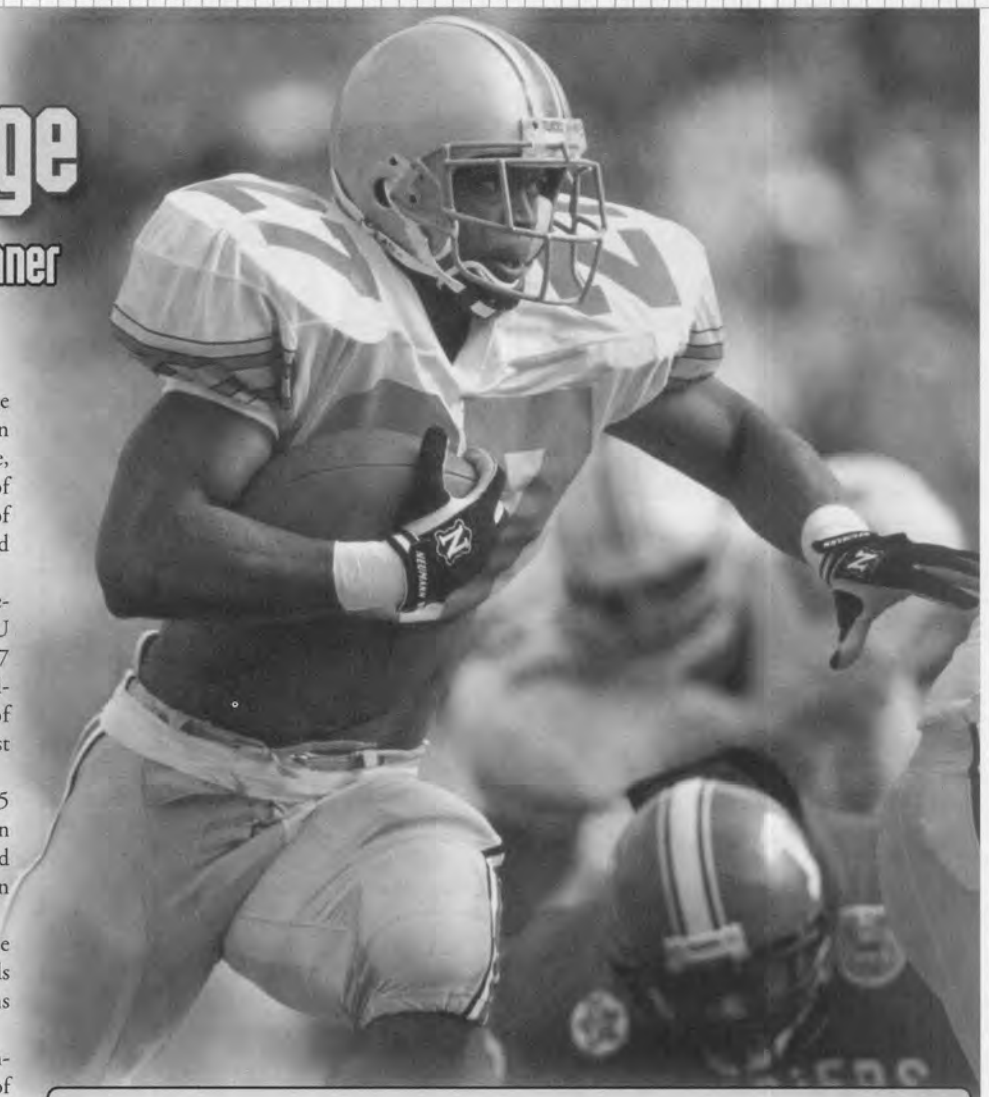
Eddie George

1995 Heisman Trophy Winner



At the start of the 1995 season, Eddie George was, at best, a longshot contender for the Heisman Trophy. By season's end, he was a runaway choice, easily outdistancing runnerup Tommy Frazier of Nebraska and third-place finisher Troy Davis of Iowa State for college football's most coveted award.

In becoming Ohio State's sixth Heisman recipient, George etched his name into the OSU record book by rushing for a school-record 1,927 yards and 24 touchdowns. Included in that yardage total were three 200-yard games, one of which was an Ohio State record 314 yards against Illinois Nov. 11, 1995.

The 6-3, 227-pound George ended the 1995 campaign leading the country in scoring with an average of 12.1 points per game. He also finished fourth in all-purpose running (185.4) and fifth in rushing (152.1).

A native of Philadelphia, George carried the ball 328 times in 1995, an average of 5.9 yards per try. He also set a school record for receptions by a running back with 47 catches.

George burst onto the national scene by rushing for 219 yards against Washington, the first of 12-consecutive 100-yard games for the big tailback. When he stunned Notre Dame with 207 yards, the national press started talking "Heisman." His record-setting performance against Illinois was the icing on the cake.

George's other honors in 1995 included the Doak Walker Award, the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Big Ten MVP. He also was a team co-captain.

George, who attended Abington High School and then Fork Union Military Academy, played only sparingly his first two years at Ohio State. Given the chance to start, he rushed for 1,442 yards as a junior and completed his career as the second leading rusher in Ohio State history with 3,668 yards.

Selected by the Houston Oilers in the first round of the NFL Draft, he was the 1996 NFL Rookie of the Year.

In June of 2001, he earned a bachelor's degree in landscape architecture from Ohio State.

Howard Cassady

1955 Heisman Trophy Winner

It didn't take Ohio State fans long to realize why Howard "Hopalong" Cassady was something special. In his first collegiate game, the season opener against Indiana in 1952, the 150-pound freshman came off the bench to score three touchdowns and lead the Buckeyes to a 33-13 victory. From then on, "Hop" was a regular in the OSU lineup, playing in 36 of a possible 37 games and leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 29-8 during the next four years.

In 1954, Cassady won unanimous All-America honors, rushing for 701 yards and six touchdowns and averaging 5.7 yards per carry. He also caught 13 passes for 148 yards in helping the Buckeyes to a perfect 10-0 record and the first of five national championships for Coach Woody Hayes. The 1954 season concluded with a convincing 20-7 win over Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl.

Cassady again won All-America acclaim in 1955, when he rushed for 958 yards and 15 touchdowns. At the end of the year, Cassady's list of accolades included the Heisman Trophy and recognition by the Associated Press as the 1955 Athlete of the Year.

Cassady, who also was an outstanding defensive back, finished his collegiate career with 2,466 rushing yards. That total still ranks 10th on the all-time OSU rushing list.

Cassady, who prepped at Columbus Central and as a boy would sneak into Ohio Stadium to see the Buckeyes play, also played baseball at OSU, starting at shortstop for three years.

After graduation, Cassady was a first round pick of the Detroit Lions. He played defensive back with Detroit, Cleveland and Philadelphia before retiring.

"Hop" lives in Tampa, presently, but spends his summers in Columbus as a coach for the Columbus Clippers, the Yankees' AAA farm club.

His jersey number "40" was retired Nov. 18, 2000.

Vic Janowicz

1950 Heisman Trophy Winner

How good was Vic Janowicz? Good enough to win the 1950 Heisman Trophy as a junior on a team that posted a modest 6-3 record. And good enough that to this day most historians consider him the greatest athlete ever to play football at Ohio State.

Rich, but deserved, praise for Janowicz, who, in addition to being a triple threat on offense, also played safety on defense.

In the words of his former coach, Wesley Fesler: "Vic excelled in every phase of the game. He not only was a great runner, passer and blocker, he also did all of our kicking, including punting, field goals, quick kicks, kickoffs and extra points. He was one of the finest, most versatile athletes I have ever seen."

Janowicz enjoyed his finest year in 1950, accounting for 16 touchdowns and 875 yards in total offense. He also led the Buckeyes in scoring with 65 points. In an 83-21 win over Iowa, he ran for two touchdowns, passed for four more and set a Big Ten record with 10 extra points. He completed five of six passes for 128 yards against the Hawkeyes.

Perhaps even more remarkable was a 27-yard field goal against Michigan in the now famous 1950 Snow Bowl. That kick, into a driving snow storm with the goal post barely visible, is one of the greatest individual accomplishments in Ohio State sports history.

Janowicz, who was a consensus All-American in 1950, also set two more records in the Snow Bowl, punting 21 times for 685 yards.

After graduation, Janowicz played two years of professional baseball with the Pittsburgh Pirates, even though he had been away from the game nearly six years. He returned to football in 1954, signing with the Washington Redskins and winning the starting job at halfback as a rookie. In 1955, Janowicz barely missed out on the NFL scoring title, losing the crown on the last day of the season. His pro career was cut short the following fall, when he was involved in a near fatal car accident that left him unconcious for 30 days.

A member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame and the Ohio State Hall of Fame, Janowicz died in February of 1996. His jersey number was retired Sept. 23, 2000.

Janowicz gets his Heisman as a junior in 1950.

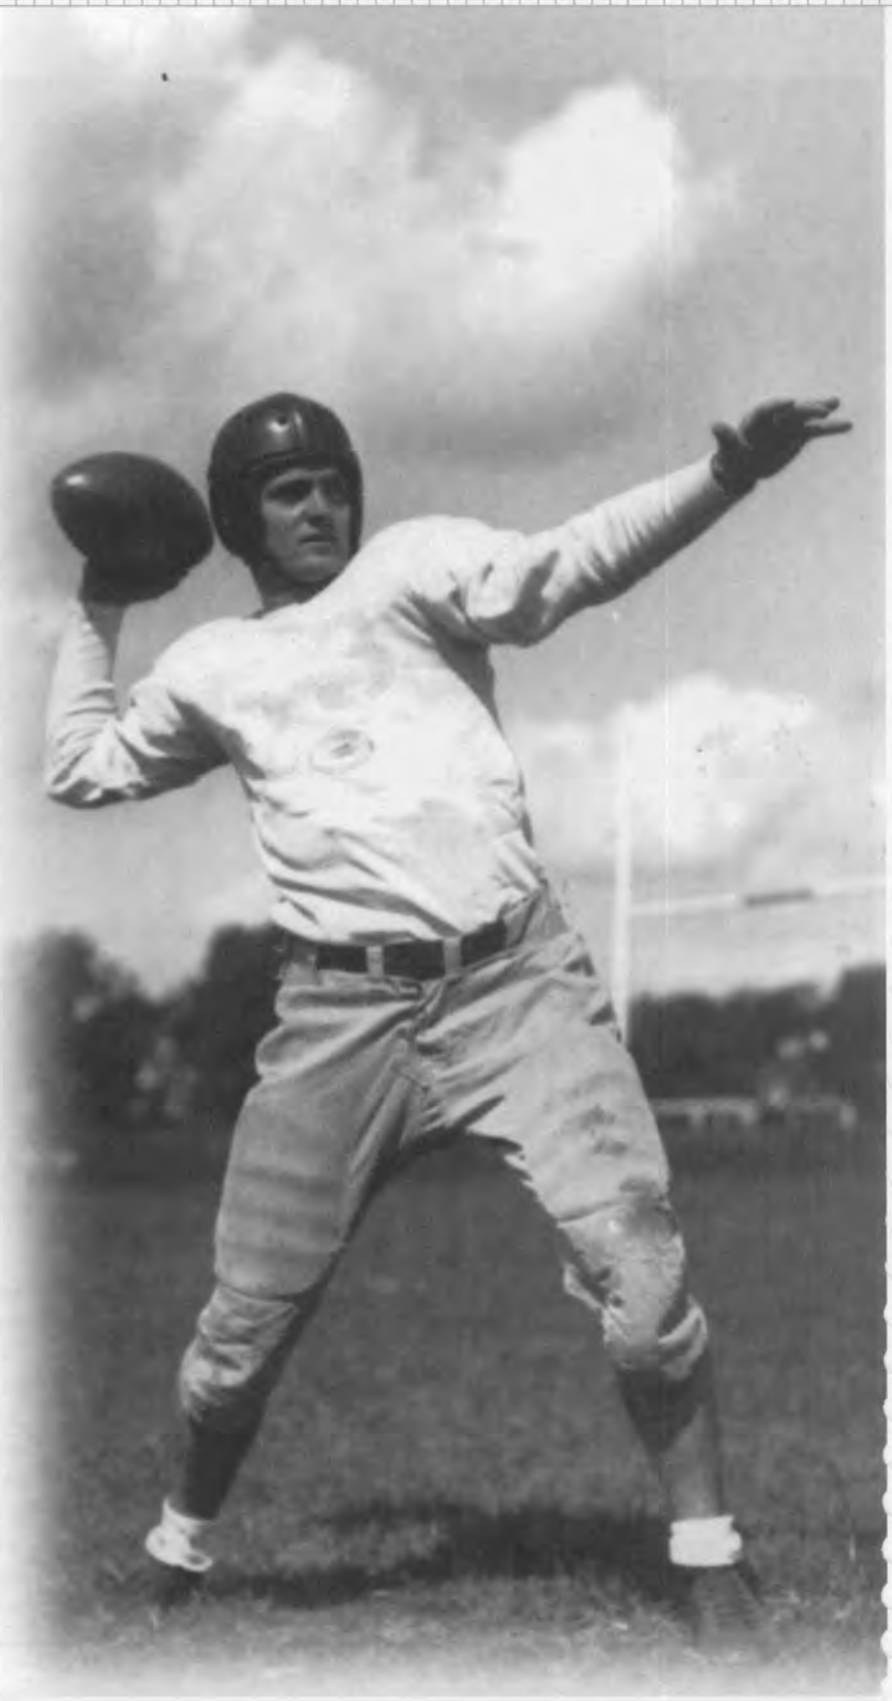
Les Horvath

1944 Heisman Trophy Winner



In 1944, Les Horvath made Ohio State history by becoming the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. With Horvath at the controls, the Buckeyes posted a perfect 9-0 record and won the Big Ten championship.

Horvath enjoyed a brilliant senior campaign in 1944. In addition to leading the Big Ten in rushing (669 yards) and total offense (953 yards), the Parma, Ohio native also accounted for 1,248 all-purpose yards.

Horvath, who played both quarterback and halfback on offense and safety on defense, was the Big Ten's MVP in 1944. Shortly after being accorded that honor, he became the first of six Buckeye Heisman recipients.

Ironically, Horvath almost didn't play in 1944. After helping lead the 1942 Buckeyes to a 9-1 record and the school's first national championship, Horvath entered dental school at Ohio State and did not play in 1943. But when Coach Carroll Widdoes went to him prior to the 1944 season, the 23-year-old Horvath, who had an extra year because of wartime rules, agreed to return to the gridiron.

"At first I wasn't sure I wanted to play," said Horvath on one of his last visits to Columbus. "Dental school was quite taxing. But Coach Widdoes said I wouldn't have to practice all the time and agreed to fly me to the games, both of which gave me more time to study."

Horvath is the only Heisman winner who did not play the previous season. The layoff obviously did not bother him. He set a Big Ten rushing record in his final year.

Horvath, who finished his Ohio State career with 2,055 yards of total offense, went on to play professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Cleveland Browns. Following his professional career, he returned to Los Angeles and practiced dentistry.

Horvath, who died in November of 1995, belonged to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame and the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame.

As Ohio State's first Heisman winner, he will always hold a special place in the hearts of Buckeye fans.

Orlando Pace

1996 Outland Trophy Winner

Orlando Pace broke into the starting lineup the first day of preseason camp his freshman year and started every game the next three years before passing up his senior season to enter the NFL draft. During his stay at Ohio State, the 6-6, 330-pound left tackle became recognized as one of the most dominant offensive linemen ever to play the game.

Playing one of the most challenging positions in football, Pace did not allow a sack in either of his last two years. In 1995, he made college football history by becoming the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award. As a junior, he again made history by becoming the first two-time winner of that trophy. He also won the Outland Trophy and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a junior. The latter was the highest finish by a lineman since a second-place finish by Ohio State's John Hicks in 1973.

Other honors for Pace included consensus All-Big Ten and All-America honors in both 1995 and '96. He was the Football News Offensive Player of the Year and the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year in 1996. He also received the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football as the Most Valuable Player in the Big Ten.

Pace was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 1994 and the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year in 1995 and '96. He also was a finalist for the Maxwell Award in 1996. A native of Sandusky, Ohio, Pace was selected by his teammates as Ohio State's MVP in 1996.

Pace made the "Pancake Block" famous his junior year, finishing the season with 80 of those blocks (knocking his defender to the ground and on his back). He also literally redefined the role of an offensive lineman with his amazing downfield blocking.

Taken by St. Louis as first overall pick in the 1997 NFL draft, Pace was a member of the Rams' 1999 Super Bowl championship team.

John Hicks

1973 Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy Winner

John Hicks came within an eyelash of pulling off one of the biggest triple plays in college football history in 1973. That year Hicks, a 6-3, 258-pound offensive tackle, won the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award as the nation's best interior lineman and also finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting.

How close did Hicks come to becoming the first interior lineman ever to win the Heisman? Well, while he finished second that year, teammates Archie Griffin and Randy Gradishar were fifth and sixth, respectively, in the balloting. By combining Ohio State's total votes, Hicks would have had enough votes to move ahead of winner John Cappelletti.

Hicks enrolled at Ohio State in the fall of 1969. Freshmen were not eligible that year, but it didn't take the Ohio State coaching staff long to figure out the Cleveland native was destined for greatness.

Hicks became a starter at right tackle as a sophomore in 1970, helping the Buckeyes to the Big Ten title and a berth in the Rose Bowl. A loss to Stanford in Pasadena cost the No.-1 ranked and previously unbeaten Buckeyes the national championship.

Hicks missed the entire 1971 season because of a preseason knee injury. Not coincidentally, the Buckeyes struggled to a 6-4 record that year.

But he returned in 1972 and was a starter the next two years, winning consensus All-America honors both of those seasons and helping the Buckeyes to two more Big Ten titles and back-to-back appearances in the Rose Bowl. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State posted a combined record of 28-3-1. Hicks is the first player ever to start in three Rose Bowl games.

A fiery, emotional leader and a fan favorite, Hicks was a first-round draft choice of the New York Giants following the 1973 campaign. His promising career was cut short by injury, however, and he returned to Columbus to enter private business.

Hicks was selected in April 2001 to the College Football Hall of Fame.

Jim Stillwagon

1970 Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy Winner

Jim Stillwagon made college football history in 1970 by becoming the first player to win the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award in the same year.

Stillwagon, a three-year starter at middle guard for the Buckeyes between 1968 and 1970, was a unanimous All-American as a junior and senior.

During "Wagon's" three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes compiled a 27-2 record, won three Big Ten championships, played in two Rose Bowls and won a pair of national championships.

With Stillwagon clogging the middle, the Ohio State defense simply shut down opposing offenses. In 1969, the Buckeyes gave up just 93 total points. In 1970, only two opponents scored more than 13 points and five were held to under 10 points.

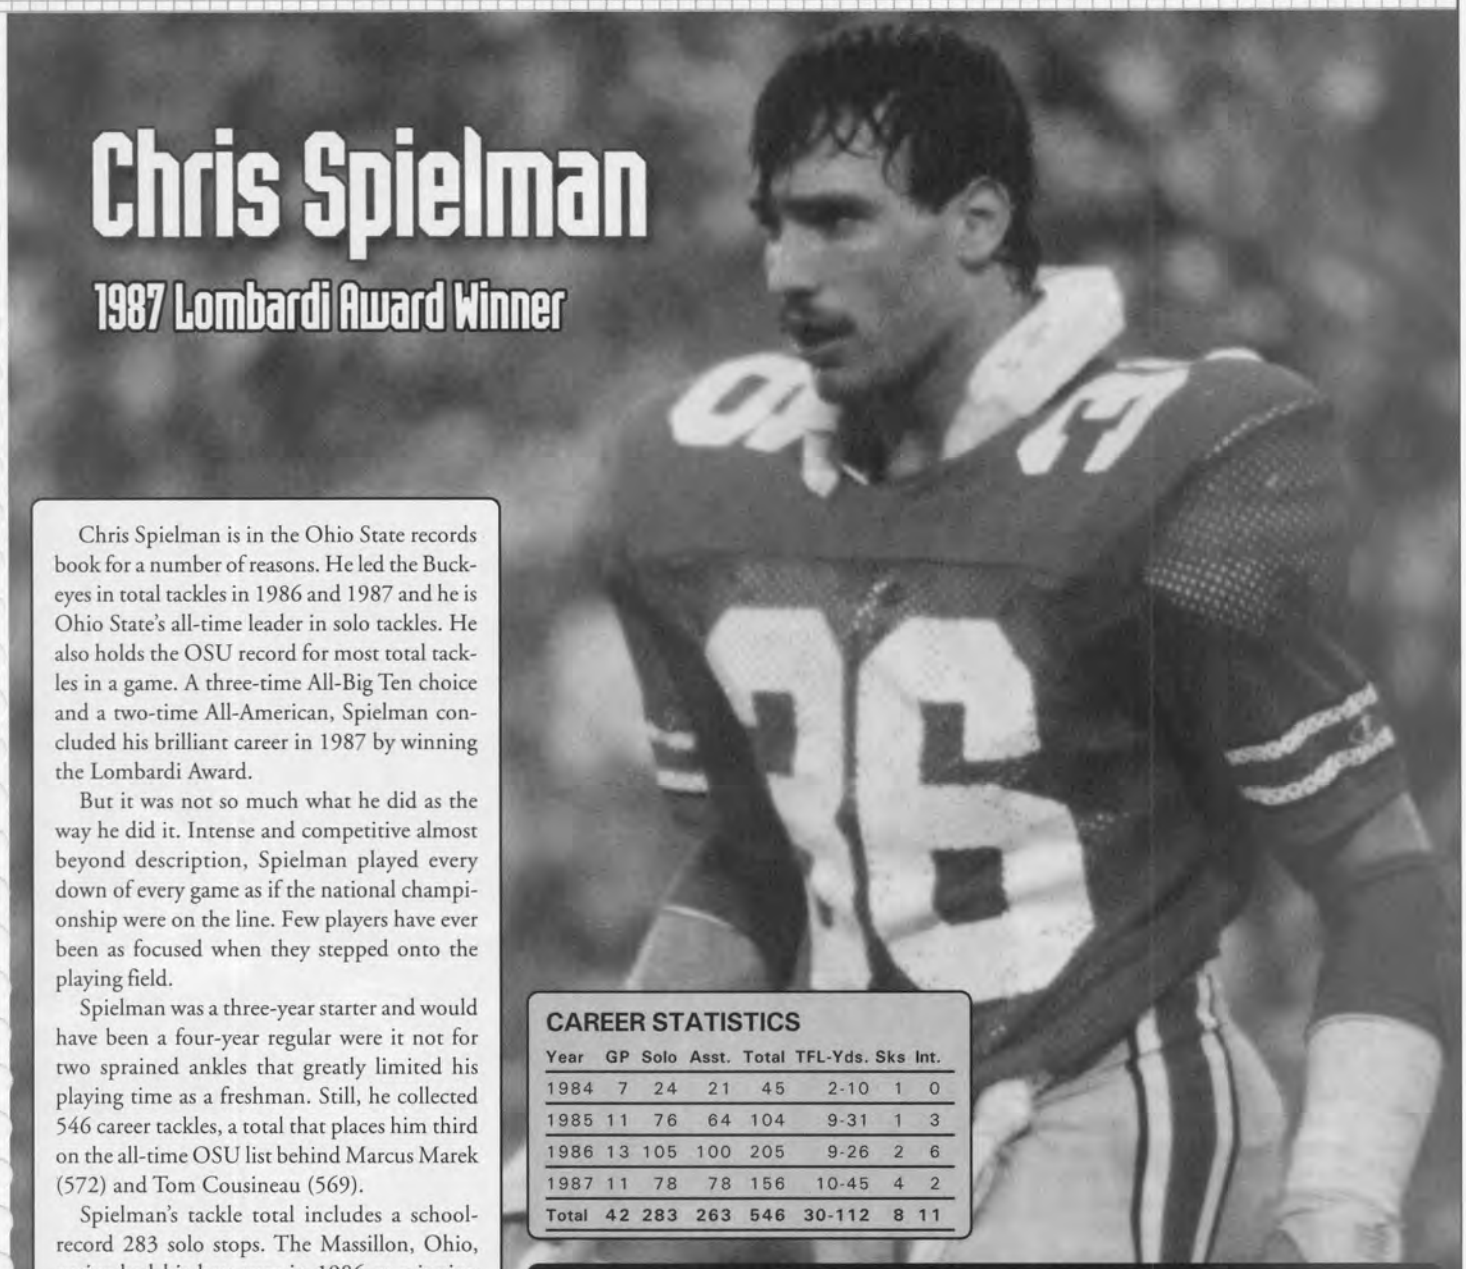
Tough, strong, aggressive, intelligent, relentless. All are adjectives that can be used to describe Stillwagon. He was quite simply the best defensive lineman in college football in 1970. No one was surprised when he walked off with the Outland and Lombardi awards. The surprise would have come if someone else had been chosen.

After graduation, Stillwagon was drafted by the Green Bay Packers. He chose instead to play in the Canadian Football League and was one of the premier defensive linemen in that league before retiring.

Stillwagon, a member of the College Football and Ohio State halls of fame, is president of Stillwagon Enterprises in Columbus.

Chris Spielman

1987 Lombardi Award Winner



Chris Spielman is in the Ohio State records book for a number of reasons. He led the Buckeyes in total tackles in 1986 and 1987 and he is Ohio State's all-time leader in solo tackles. He also holds the OSU record for most total tackles in a game. A three-time All-Big Ten choice and a two-time All-American, Spielman concluded his brilliant career in 1987 by winning the Lombardi Award.

But it was not so much what he did as the way he did it. Intense and competitive almost beyond description, Spielman played every down of every game as if the national championship were on the line. Few players have ever been as focused when they stepped onto the playing field.

Spielman was a three-year starter and would have been a four-year regular were it not for two sprained ankles that greatly limited his playing time as a freshman. Still, he collected 546 career tackles, a total that places him third on the all-time OSU list behind Marcus Marek (572) and Tom Cousineau (569).

Spielman's tackle total includes a school-record 283 solo stops. The Massillon, Ohio, native had his best year in 1986 as a junior, recording 205 total stops, including an OSU record 105 solos. His best game that year was a school record-tying 29 total tackles against Michigan.

Spielman's Ohio State teams won two Big Ten titles. He played in the Rose and Cotton bowls and was defensive MVP in the latter as a senior.

Upon leaving Ohio State, Spielman became recognized as one of the NFL's top players after finishing his 12-year career in 1999 with the Cleveland Browns.

Those people who claim "You can't measure heart," never saw Spielman play.

Jim Parker

1956 Outland Trophy Winner

Jim Parker was Ohio State's first Outland Trophy winner as the nation's top interior lineman. He also is the player by which his former coach, the late Woody Hayes, measured all other offensive linemen.

"Jim Parker was the greatest offensive lineman I ever coached. I'm not sure there has ever been a better offensive guard," said Hayes upon Parker's induction into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame. "He was everything an offensive lineman should be."

Indeed, Parker could do it all. A tremendous athlete, the 6-2, 200-pounder could pull and run block with the best of them. And on the relatively few occasions when the Buckeyes decided to throw the ball, getting around the agile, quick-footed Parker was next to impossible.

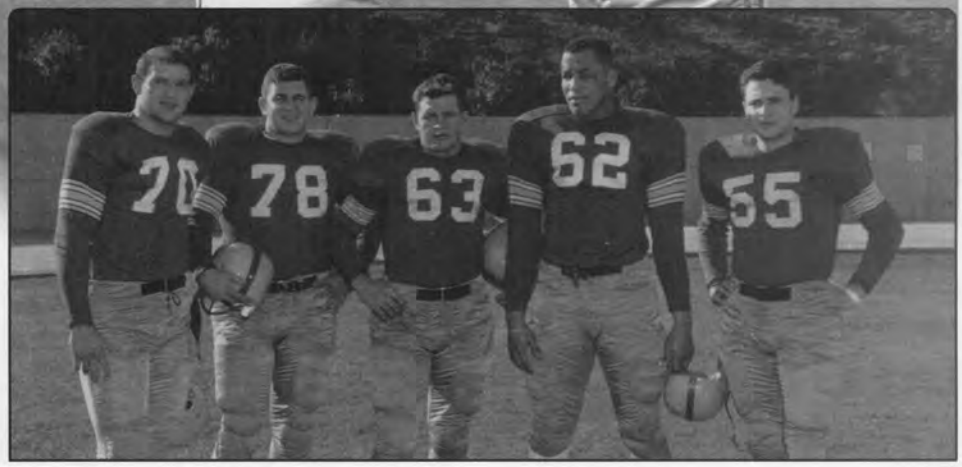
Parker was a three-year starter and two-time All-American for the Buckeyes. He won the Outland Trophy as a senior in 1956. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State won 23 of 28 games, captured the 1954 National Championship and won back-to-back Big Ten titles in 1954 and '55.

Parker, who was born in Macon, Ga., but played his last two years of high school football in Toledo, Ohio, was the Buckeyes' MVP in 1956.

A first round pick of the Baltimore Colts the following spring, he went on to enjoy a distinguished career in the NFL as a perennial all-pro pick.

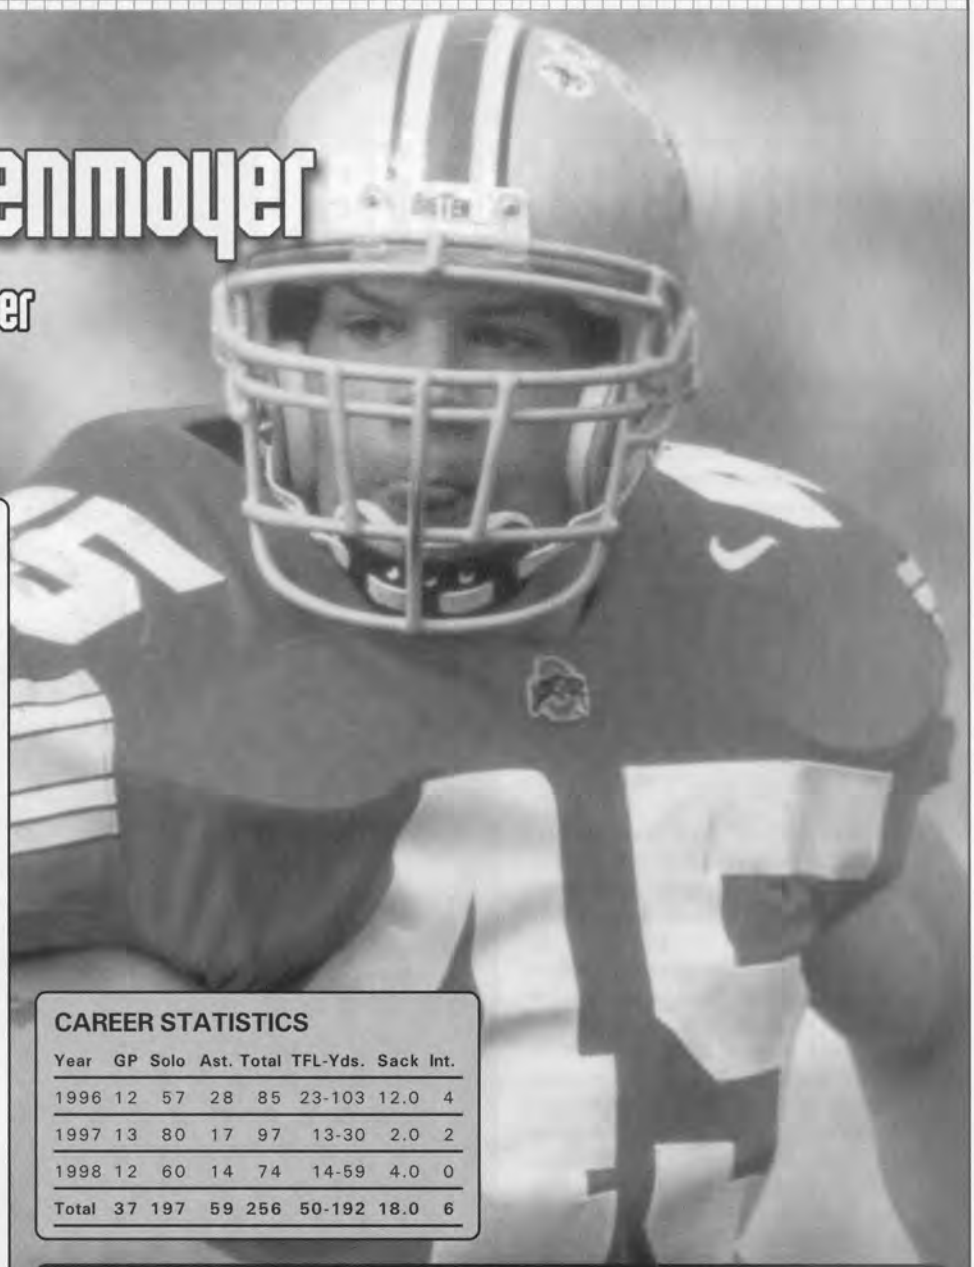
In addition to being a charter member of the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame, Parker also is a member of the College Football and the Professional Football halls of fame.

His play set a standard of excellence for all future Ohio State linemen.



Andy Katzenmoyer

1997 Butkus Award Winner



Andy Katzenmoyer started the first game of his freshman year in 1996 and was a regular for 37-consecutive games. He opted for an NFL career at the end of his junior season. He won a plethora of awards, including the Butkus Award and consensus All-America honors as a sophomore in 1997, the 1996 Football News and Big Ten Freshman of the Year. He was a three-time All-Big Ten selection and a two-time finalist for the Lombardi Award.

Katzenmoyer amassed three-year statistical totals of 197 solo tackles, 256 total tackles, 50 tackles-for-loss, 192 yards in losses, 18 quarterback sacks and six interceptions. He was twice named the team's Randy Gradishar Award winner as best linebacker (1997-98). He scored twice on interceptions, vs. Minnesota as a freshman and vs. Arizona as a sophomore, tying a school-record for interception return TDs. He also tied the school record with five tackles-for-loss in a game (vs. Arizona State in the 1997 Rose Bowl).

As a junior in 1998, Katzenmoyer was a finalist for the Maxwell Football Club's Defensive Player of the Year Award (in addition to the Lombardi Award) and he anchored the nation's top-ranked defense against the run and second-ranked unit in total defense.

He was a consensus All-American as a sophomore in 1997 and became only the second sophomore to win the Butkus Award as the nation's outstanding linebacker. He was a Lombardi Award finalist, ranking second on the team with 97 tackles, including 13 tackles-for-loss. He clinched the Arizona win with a 20-yard interception return touchdown. He had 11 tackles against both Arizona and Iowa. In 1996 he became the first freshman to start every game at linebacker for the Buckeyes and finished second on the team with 85 tackles and paced the team with 23 tackles-for-loss and sacks (12), both school records for a linebacker.

Antoine Winfield

1998 Thorpe Award Winner

Antoine Winfield, a team captain as a senior, is one of the all-time great cornerbacks in Ohio State history. A two-time All-American, he was a consensus choice as a senior in 1998, Winfield's career was peppered with firsts. He was the first Buckeye to win the coveted Thorpe Award as the nation's outstanding defensive back; the first non-linebacker (and only the fifth player total) to record at least 200 solo tackles; the first defensive back in Ohio State history to be voted team MVP (following the 1997 season); and the first cornerback in recorded history to lead the team in tackles when he did so in 1997.

A two-time All-Big Ten Conference selection, he closed his career with 278 tackles, including 224 solo stops, 22 tackles-for-loss, 29 pass break-ups and three interceptions. He played in four bowl games, including the 1996 Citrus Bowl when he came in as a true freshman and recorded seven tackles. He played in 50 games during his career and he started 29 times.

As a senior in 1998, he was one of five finalists for the Football News' Defensive Player of the Year Award. He was named first-team All-America by the Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp, the Football Writers and the Football News. He was named the Buckeyes' Bill Willis Defensive Player of the Year award winner. He totalled 75 tackles, third-best on the team, including nine solo tackles in a win over Michigan to close the season.

As a junior in 1997, Antoine was voted by his teammates as the team MVP after a season in which he totalled 100 tackles, 12 pass break-ups and two interceptions. He had 82 solo tackles, the fifth-highest solo tackle total in school history, and made the Football Writers and Football News All-America teams. He led the team in tackles five times, including a magnificent 10-tackle performance against Michigan and a career-high, 13-tackle effort against Missouri.

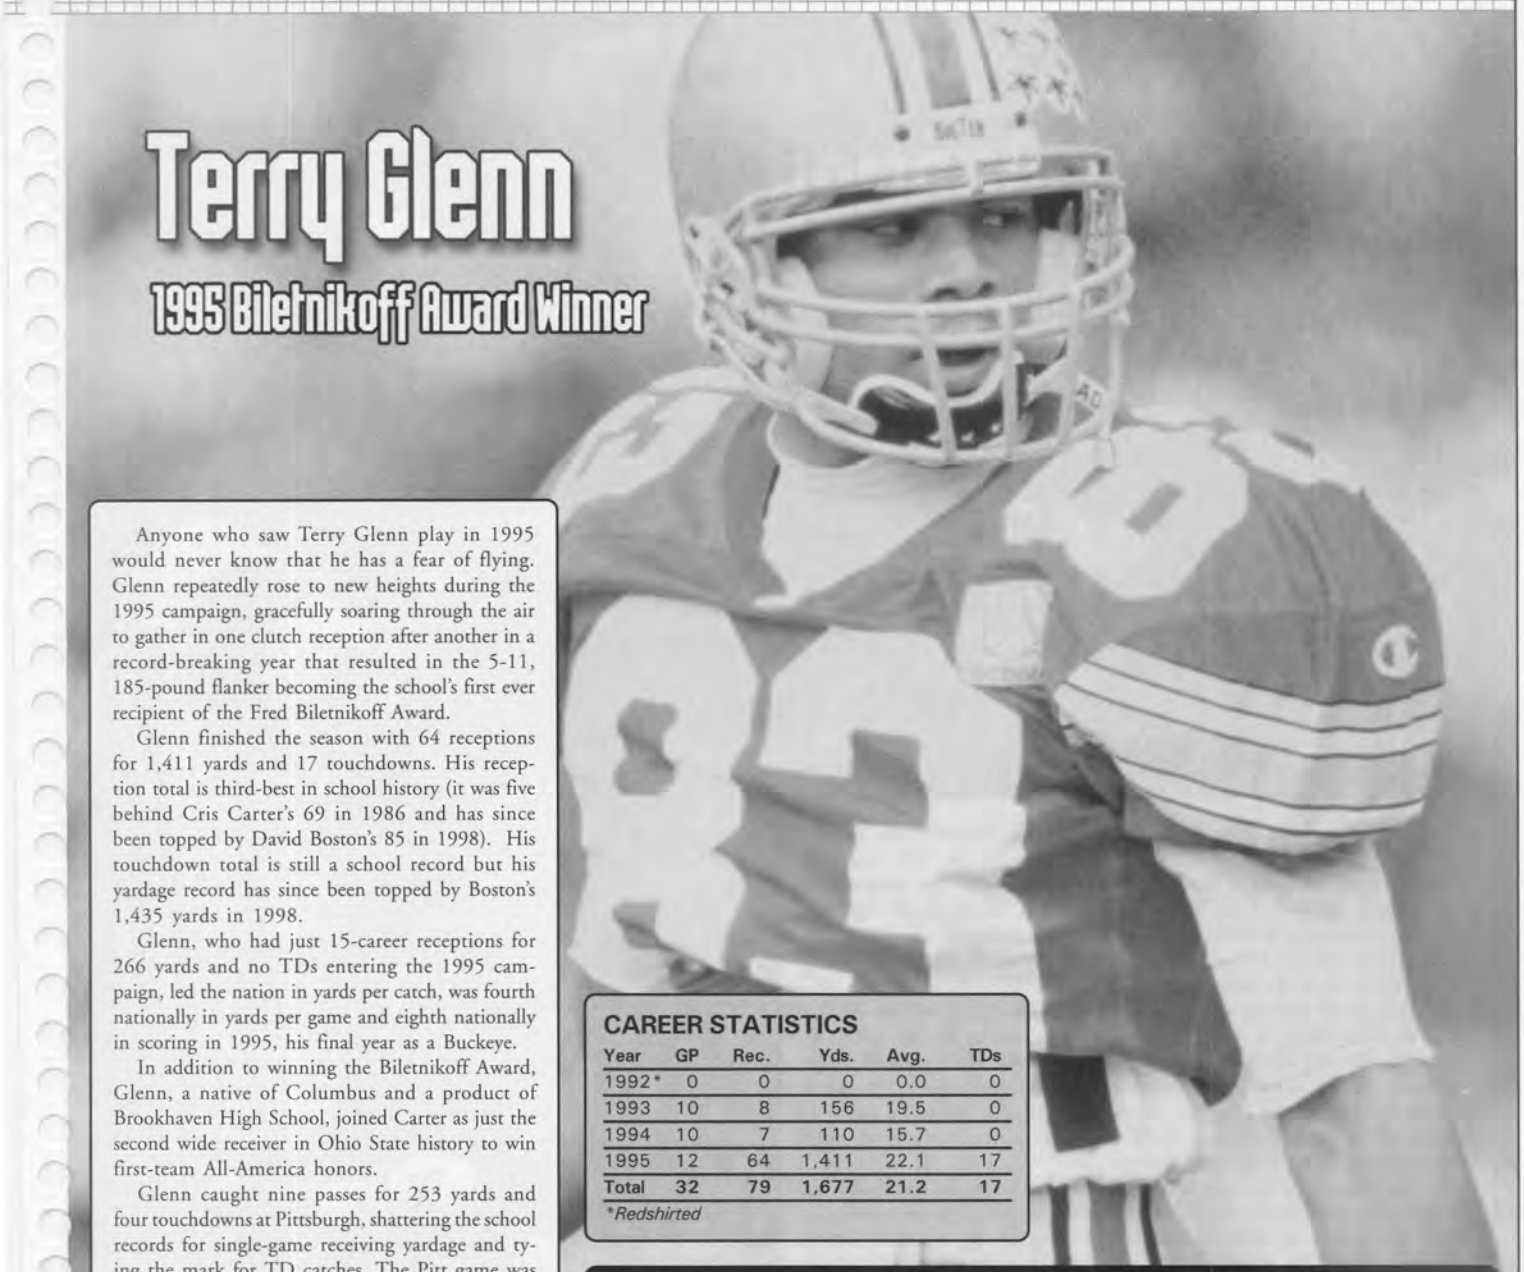
Terry Glenn

1995 Biletnikoff Award Winner



Anyone who saw Terry Glenn play in 1995 would never know that he has a fear of flying. Glenn repeatedly rose to new heights during the 1995 campaign, gracefully soaring through the air to gather in one clutch reception after another in a record-breaking year that resulted in the 5-11, 185-pound flanker becoming the school's first ever recipient of the Fred Biletnikoff Award.

Glenn finished the season with 64 receptions for 1,411 yards and 17 touchdowns. His reception total is third-best in school history (it was five behind Cris Carter's 69 in 1986 and has since been topped by David Boston's 85 in 1998). His touchdown total is still a school record but his yardage record has since been topped by Boston's 1,435 yards in 1998.

Glenn, who had just 15-career receptions for 266 yards and no TDs entering the 1995 campaign, led the nation in yards per catch, was fourth nationally in yards per game and eighth nationally in scoring in 1995, his final year as a Buckeye.

In addition to winning the Biletnikoff Award, Glenn, a native of Columbus and a product of Brookhaven High School, joined Carter as just the second wide receiver in Ohio State history to win first-team All-America honors.

Glenn caught nine passes for 253 yards and four touchdowns at Pittsburgh, shattering the school records for single-game receiving yardage and tying the mark for TD catches. The Pitt game was one of seven 100-yard games for Glenn, which is yet another OSU record. He also had nine receptions, all of the acrobatic and clutch variety, in the Buckeyes' 28-25 win at Penn State.

A big-play athlete, Glenn had eight catches of 45 or more yards, including a memorable 82-yard catch-and-run TD grab against Notre Dame. He had touchdown receptions in nine of the 12 games he played in, and his numbers might have been even better had he not played the last three games of the season with a badly bruised shoulder.

At the end of the season, Glenn opted to leave school early and was taken in the first round of the NFL draft by the New England Patriots. He set an NFL record for catches (90) by a rookie, helping the Patriots to the Super Bowl in a sensational first year.

LeCharles Bentley

2001 Rimington Award winner

LeCharles Bentley is the latest in a long line of outstanding offensive linemen who have played at Ohio State. He proved that during the 2001 season by winning consensus All-Big Ten and All-America honors. The icing on the cake came at the end of the season when Bentley, chosen as the Big Ten's Offensive Lineman of the Year, was named winner of the second annual Dave Rimington Award as the best center in college football.

Bentley, a native of Cleveland, enjoyed a stellar senior year, capping off a brilliant career by starting all 11 regular-season games and grading out to a winning performance in each game. Time and again, it was the 6-2, 300-pound Bentley who was called upon to provide the key block that either kept a drive alive or led to an Ohio State touchdown. He graded out to 90 percent or better in nine of the 11 games he played in and was chosen as offensive lineman of the week five times. At the end of the season, the coaching staff selected him as the offensive player of the year.

Bentley was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes. He started the final seven games of the 1999 season (six at guard and one at tackle) before moving to center as a junior in 2000. He started all 12 games as a junior, playing through a painful lower back condition, and won second-team All-Big Ten honors.

Healthy in 2001, he played brilliantly all year long and led the team in playing time during the regular season before missing the Outback Bowl because of a shoulder injury suffered in the win over Michigan. Prior to the Outback Bowl, he had played in 47-consecutive games for the Buckeyes.

At the end of his senior year, he won first-team All-America honors on the Walter Camp, Football Writers, Football Coaches, and Associated Press teams. His selection as the Rimington Award was a mere formality.

As a senior, Bentley faced the challenge of playing for a new coaching staff. He quickly won that group's confidence and admiration with his tough, smart and physical style of play.

"LeCharles Bentley is one of the finest centers I have ever been around," said 2001 offensive coordinator Jim Bollman. "He has a lot of natural talent, but more than that he works hard every day to get better at the little things. That is a trait that will serve him well throughout the rest of his life. I am proud to have had the opportunity to coach him."

Bentley is the 20th Ohio State player to win a major award.

HEISMAN MEMORIAL TROPHY

The Heisman Memorial Trophy originally was presented in 1935 as the DAC Trophy by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York City. It was awarded to the best college player east of the Mississippi River; but, in 1936, that rule was changed to include players from across the country. Also in that year, the award was renamed the Heisman Memorial Trophy to honor former outstanding college coach and DAC Director of Athletics John W. Heisman. Heisman died Oct. 3, 1936. The award has since been given annually to the outstanding college football player in the United States.

DAVE RIMINGTON AWARD

Dave Rimington, a former Cincinnati Bengal and All-America football player at Nebraska (1979-82), was tired of seeing more college football awards pop up each year without his position, center, being represented. He came up with a solution: the Dave Rimington Trophy, presented for the first time in 2000. Nebraska's Dominic Raiola, the first winner of the Rimington Trophy, posed for the trophy's design at the request of Rimington.

David Boston

SPLIT END 1996-98

In three seasons, David Boston set or tied 12 Ohio State receiving records, including most receptions (191), yards (2,855) and touchdowns (34) in a career and most receptions (85) and yards (1,435) in a season (1998). His 13 school records also includes most 100-yard receiving games in a career (13) and season (8 in 1998). In 1998, he earned first team All-America honors. But what may separate him from other receivers in school history is the way he shined in big games. With 19 seconds left to play in the 1997 Rose Bowl, he caught the game-winning touchdown in one of the most thrilling games in OSU history. In the 1998 Michigan game, he torched the Wolverines with 10-receptions for 231-yards and two touchdowns. He capped off his career by being named MVP of the 1999 Sugar Bowl.

Cris Carter

SPLIT END 1984-86

In his three seasons as a starter, Cris Carter caught 164 passes for 2,725 yards and 27 touchdowns. His hands were exceptional, his route running was precise, his ability to stay in-bounds was uncanny and he possessed the ability to out-jump his defenders. He made the diving, leaping, acrobatic catch look routine. In 1985, he set a Rose Bowl record with nine receptions for 172 yards. In 1986, Carter put together one of the great seasons in OSU annals. He was named first team All-America with 69 receptions for 1,127 yards, both numbers rank third in school history. He left OSU with the career reception and touchdown records (since broken by David Boston) and his yardage figure is the third highest total in OSU history. He is without question one of the greatest receivers in OSU and Big Ten history.

Keith Byars

TAILBACK 1982-85

Keith Byars earned first team All-America honors, was Big Ten MVP and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy (to Boston College's Doug Flutie) in 1984, when he rushed for a then-school record 1,764 yards and 22 touchdowns. That season, he led the nation in rushing, scoring (144 points) and all-purpose running (2,441). Included in those totals were 274 yards and five TDs against Illinois in one of the most brilliant individual performances in OSU annals. The Fighting Illini led 24-0, but Byars' fourth TD was a spectacular 67-yard run in which he completely reversed his field and lost a shoe at the Illinois 35, but still outran the Illini secondary. His fifth touchdown of the day was the game winner. Byars, who missed most of his senior year with a foot injury, is still fourth on the all-time rushing list with 3,200 yards.

Tom Cousineau

LINEBACKER 1975-78

Tom Cousineau was a two-time All-American for the Buckeyes. In 1977, he was named the top defensive player in the Orange Bowl. His 211 tackles in 1978 still stands as a single-season school record. Against Penn State in 1978, Cousineau was in on 29 total tackles, at the time an Ohio State record that has since been tied by Chris Spielman. Cousineau also holds the school record for most solo tackles in a single game, 16 against SMU in 1978. Six of the Top 10 single game tackle performances in school history are held by Cousineau. He ranks second on both the all-time OSU tackle list with 569 (three behind Marcus Marek) and on the career solo tackles list with 259. Cousineau became OSUs first No.1 overall pick in the NFL Draft when he was selected in 1979 by the Buffalo Bills.

Buckeye Greats

Mike Doss

STRONG SAFETY 1999-2002

Mike Doss is the first free safety to be included in this section of the Ohio State football media guide. But his inclusion should come as a surprise to no one. For him not to be would be a grave injustice.

Doss was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes. In each of those years – his sophomore, junior and senior seasons – Mike won first-team All-America honors. In doing so, he became just the seventh three-time All-American in Ohio State football history.

Doss was an inspiration both on and off the field. At the beginning of his senior year, he was chosen as one of the team's two co-captains. At the end of his senior year, in his final game as a Buckeye, he was chosen as Defensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl, where Ohio State captured its first consensus national championship since 1968 with a thrilling 31-24 double-overtime victory over Miami.

During his career with the Buckeyes, Mike Doss played in 50 games, starting 40 of those contests and collecting a combined total of 331 tackles. At the end of the 2002 season, he was the eighth leading tackler in Ohio State annals.

Doss started the last two games of his freshman year. From that point on he was a regular. As a sophomore, he finished the season with a team-best 94 tackles and was named to a first-team berth on The Sporting News All-America team.

He also led the team in tackles as a junior with 87 total stops and was again named to a first-team spot on The Sporting News team, as well as the Walter Camp squad.

As a senior, Doss collected a personal high 107 tackles and was named to first-team All-America berths on the Associated Press, Football Writers, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Walter Camp teams.

A three-time All-Big Ten pick, Doss was the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. In each of his last two years, he was a leading candidate for the Thorpe Award as the best defensive back in college football.

At the end of his junior year, Doss elected to stay in school and pursue his dream of winning the national championship. In January of 2003, that dream became a reality for the former all-state player from Canton, Ohio.

Wesley Fesler

END 1928-30

Wes Fesler was Ohio State's second three-time All-American, winning first-team recogniton at end in 1928, '29 and '30. Fesler, who also played fullback for the Buckeyes, was team captain as a senior. He also was the Ohio State and the Big Ten MVP in 1930.

Fesler, a superb all-around athlete, earned nine letters, three each in football, basketball and baseball. In basketball, he won All-Big Ten honors in 1931. In baseball, he spent time in the St. Louis Cardinals organization.

After graduating, Fesler served one year as an assistant on the OSU staff and then was head football coach at Princeton and Penn. In 1947, he returned to his alma mater as head coach and spent four years, compiling a 21-13-3 record and winning the 1949 Big Ten Championship and the 1950 Rose Bowl.

John Frank

TIGHT END 1980-83

John Frank distinguished himself both as a football player and as a scholar. All-Big Ten as a junior and senior, Frank ranks fourth on the all-time Ohio State receiving list with 121 catches for 1,481 yards and nine touchdowns. The receptions and yardage totals are the most in school history by a tight end. He was a three-year starter, catching a personal high 45 passes in 1981 and again in 1983, still a record total for tight ends. He was voted the team MVP as a senior. In the classroom, Frank was a two-time Academic All-American and was a Rhodes Scholar nominee as a senior. After winning two Super Bowl rings with San Francisco 49ers, Frank returned to Ohio State to continue his medical studies. He received his doctor of medicine in June of 1992.

Buckeye Greats

Joe Germaine

QUARTERBACK 1996-98

Joe Germaine proved in two seasons as a backup that he was a fine quarterback. But it was his senior year as the starter and team co-captain, when he set 11 school records while throwing for 3,330 yards and 25 touchdowns, that separated him from other OSU quarterbacks. He was the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award winner as the Big Ten MVP that year and he led OSU to the No. 1 national ranking for a school-record tying 10-consecutive weeks. He also was named by the conference coaches as the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year. No Ohio State fan will ever forget his heroics in the 1997 Rose Bowl as he calmly directed the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays in the final 1:40 for the winning touchdown (a 5-yard touchdown pass to David Boston with 19 seconds left). Germaine threw for 6,370 yards and 56 touchdowns in three seasons.

Chic Harley

RUNNING BACK 1916-17, 1919

Charles "Chic" Harley was Ohio State's first three-time All-American. Harley won All-America honors as a running back in 1916 and '17. He spent 1918 in the military but then returned to OSU in 1919 and picked up where he had left off, again winning All-America acclaim. In addition to running the football, he also punted, kicked extra points (he used the drop kick) and played defense. Fans turned out in record numbers to watch Harley play. Harley led the Buckeyes to their first Big Ten title in 1916, a repeat championship in 1917 and a second-place finish in 1919. In 1919, he was named team captain. During his three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 21-1-1. The Buckeyes played at old Ohio Field during the Harley era. But largely because of his play, Ohio Stadium was built in 1922 and has been known as the "House that Harley built."

Randy Gradishar

LINEBACKER 1971-73

Randy Gradishar was referred to by Woody Hayes as "the best linebacker I ever coached at Ohio State." He was a two-time All-American and is considered one of the most versatile, mobile and complete linebackers ever to play college football. Gradishar was a three-year starter between 1971 and 1973 and recorded 320 total tackles. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and was the backbone of the 1973 defense, which recorded four shutouts and allowed just 64 points. After graduation, he played 10 years with the Denver Broncos. During his career, he was a seven-time Pro Bowler, the second most by any Bronco at the end of his career, and he also is the all-time leader in tackles for Denver with 1,958. He was inducted into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1992. In December of 1998, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Bobby Hoying

QUARTERBACK 1992-95

Bobby Hoying was a three-year starter for OSU, leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 30-7-1. As a senior, Hoying earned first team All-Big Ten honors, was named team captain and rewrote the OSU records book by throwing for 3,269 yards and 29 touchdowns. He also set school records for completion percentage (.580) and passing efficiency (163.4) that year. Additionally, his 57 career TD passes is a school record, as are the 16 games in which he passed for 200 or more yards. Hoying led the Big Ten in total offense as a senior and wound up second nationally in passing efficiency. His 7,232 passing yards (most of which came his last two years) rank second in OSU annals. Hoying also was an exceptional student. In 1995, he won the National Football Foundations's Vincent dePaul Draddy Award, which goes annually to the top senior student-athlete in college football.

Buckeye Greats

Rex Kern

QUARTERBACK 1968-70

With Rex Kern at the helm, Ohio State rolled to a 27-2 record, won the 1968 National Championship, captured two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. To win the national championship, Kern led OSU to a 27-16 win over Southern California in the Rose Bowl. He was named the game's Most Outstanding Player. Additionally, the Buckeyes narrowly missed out on the 1969 and '70 wire service national championships, losing the final game of the year in both of those years after being ranked No. 1 going into their respective season finales. In 1969, he was named an All-American. In 1970, he was elected team captain. Kern's statistics, as impressive as they were, tell just half the story. The fiery redhead was an emotional leader who displayed a penchant for making big plays when most needed. He was a winner in every sense of the word.

Pete Johnson

FULLBACK 1973-76

Pete Johnson was the Buckeyes' starting fullback for three years, leading the way for tailback Archie Griffin in 1974 and 1975 and for Ron Springs and Jeff Logan in 1976. But the 6-1, 247-pound Johnson was much more than a just a blocking back. He also was proficient at lugging the pigskin, rushing for 2,308 yards and a school-record 58 touchdowns during his career. To say "Big Pete" had a nose for the goal line would be an understatement. He led the nation in scoring as a junior, tallying a school and Big Ten record 26 touchdowns. He also rushed for 1,059 yards and converted 34 of 44 third-down tries. Johnson set a school record that year with five TDs against North Carolina. In 1976, playing almost the entire season with two sprained ankles, Johnson still rushed for 724 yards and 19 touchdowns. His 156 points in 1975 and 348 career points are still school records.

Pepper Johnson

LINEBACKER 1982-85

Thomas "Pepper" Johnson played for the Buckeyes between 1982 and 1985, earning All-America honors as a senior. During his career, he was credited with 379 tackles, good for fourth place on the all-time OSU list. In the 1984 and '85 seasons, Johnson led the squad in tackles and teamed with Chris Spielman to give the Buckeyes one of the most formidable linebacking tandems in college football. A born leader, Johnson was elected team captain and voted defensive MVP in both his junior and senior seasons. He also was named All-Big Ten in both of those years. He was a member of two Super Bowl championship teams with the New York Giants. Johnson was named to the Pro Bowl twice in his career and built a reputation as one of the most feared hitters in professional football.

Jim Lachey

OFFENSIVE GUARD 1981-84

Jim Lachey entered his senior season with just four career starts. But in his final year, Lachey established himself as one of the top linemen in all of college football and was named to a first team All-America berth. Blessed with unusual speed and strength for a man his size, Lachey played guard for the Buckeyes, but could easily have played tackle. Lachey played a key role in the Ohio State offense in 1984, paving the way for junior running back Keith Byars. Byars led the nation in rushing (1,764 yards), scoring (24 touchdowns) and in all-purpose running (2,441 yards) that year. In 1995, the San Diego Chargers selected Lachey, a St. Henry, Ohio, native, with the 12th pick in the first round. In 1991, he started at left tackle for the Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins. In his 11-year career, he was named to the Pro Bowl three-times and established himself as one of the game's top linemen.

Buckeye Greats

Tom Skladany

KICKER 1973-76

OSU's most recent three-time All-American, Tom Skladany, was a punter and kicker between 1973 and 1976 and he was the first kicking specialist ever to receive a football scholarship at Ohio State. He proved his worth immediately, landing the job as the Buckeyes' No. 1 punter as a freshman. He also kicked off as a freshman and sophomore. As a junior and senior, he added PATs and field goals to his list of responsibilities. Skladany averaged 45.6 yards per punt as a sophomore and was named to the Football Writers All-America Team. He was a consensus All-America choice the next two years, again leading the country in 1975 with a 46.7 average. As a senior, he averaged 42.3 yards per kick and finished his career with a 42.7 average on 160 punts. That's good for second on the all-time list, as is his yardage figure of 6,838. Skladany was co-captain of the 1976 squad, the only specialist ever chosen as a captain.

Jack Tatum

DEFENSIVE BACK 1968-70

Jack Tatum was one of the dominant defensive players and most intimidating forces in college football during his career at Ohio State. A three-year starter, a two-time All-American and the National Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, he was known for his tenacity and fierce style of play. The 6-1, 208-pound Tatum came to Ohio State as a running back, but moved to defense in the spring of his freshman year. He was a mainstay of the defense for the next three years as OSU rolled up a 27-2 record and won the 1968 National Championship, two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. The Oakland Raiders selected him in the first round of the 1971 NFL Draft. In his nine-year career, he was named to the Pro Bowl three-times and was a member of the 1976 Super Bowl Championship team.

Shawn Springs

CORNERBACK 1994-96

In 1996, Shawn Springs was one of the top cornerbacks in college football and the dominant defensive player in the Big Ten - despite not recording an interception. Most teams simply chose not to test him. The 1996 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year (selected by the conference head coaches) was named to the first-team Walter Camp, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Football News All-America teams. He finished the year with 39 tackles and a team-high 15 passes broken up. In his final game as a Buckeye, he held Arizona State receiver Keith Poole to just one catch for 10 yards in the Rose Bowl. He finished that game with five tackles and four passes broken up. Springs finished his career as a two-time All-Big Ten selection. The Seattle Seahawks selected him with the third overall selection in the 1997 NFL Draft. He already has been selected to the Pro Bowl.

Steve Tovar

LINEBACKER 1989-92

Steve Tovar is another in the great line of Ohio State linebackers. A two-time All-America selection in 1991 and 1992, he has the distinction of being the first of 21 players recruited by John Cooper to earn All-America status at Ohio State. Tovar led Ohio State in tackles for three-consecutive seasons between 1990-92, one of only two Buckeyes ever to accomplish that feat (Marcus Marek, 1980-82, is the other). In his senior year, Tovar was elected team co-captain and earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors (selected by the conference coaches) after recording 128 tackles. A three-time All-Big Ten selection, Tovar ranks fourth in school history with 414 total tackles and 239 solo tackles. The Elyria, Ohio native was a third round selection by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 1993 NFL Draft.

Buckeye Greats

Mike Vrabel

DEFENSIVE END 1993-96

Mike Vrabel, a two-time All-America selection, made his mark as one of the most tenacious and feared pass rushers in Ohio State history. He owns every OSU season and career sack record. In 1996, he set a single-season school record with 13 sacks for minus 101 yards. His 36 career sacks for minus 245 yards also are Buckeye standards. Vrabel also finished his career as OSU's all-time career leader in tackles-for-loss with 66. In his junior and senior years, Vrabel was named the Big Ten Conference's Defensive Lineman of the Year. He also was a three-time first team All-Big Ten selection. Vrabel helped lead the 1996 Buckeyes to national rankings of No. 2 against the pass, No. 3 in scoring defense and No. 7 in total defense. The Akron, Ohio, native was a third round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1997 NFL Draft.

Bill Willis

LINEMAN 1942-44

Considered one of the all-time great athletes ever to play for Ohio State, Bill Willis, has the unique distinction of belonging to the Ohio High School, the College and the Professional Football halls of fame. He also is a member of The Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame. Willis was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes between 1942 and 1944, playing both offense and defense. A willowy 6-2 and 215 pounds, he was a devastating blocker on offense and a punishing, relentless tackler on defense. Willis earned All-America honors in 1943 and 1944, becoming Ohio State's first African-American All-American. He went on to a distinguished career with the Cleveland Browns following college. A native of Columbus, he is generally considered the first African-American starter in professional football. After his pro career ended, he returned home and served as director of the Ohio Youth Commission.

Dan Wilkinson

Dan Wilkinson played just two years of football for Ohio State, but in those two seasons he established himself as one of the best defensive linemen ever to wear the Scarlet and Gray. Redshirted as a true freshman in 1991, the 6-5, 300-pound Wilkinson, known as "Big Daddy," started as a sophomore in 1992 and won All-Big Ten honors. Blessed with an incredible combination of size, strength and speed, he finished his rookie year with 46 tackles, including 10.5 tackles-for-loss and 6.5 sacks. As a junior in 1993, Wilkinson was the dominant defensive linemen in college football, winding up the year with 44 tackles and 13 tackles-for-loss. No one could block him one-on-one. At season's end, he again won All-Big Ten laurels and was a consensus All-America pick. The Cincinnati Bengals made him the first selection in the NFL draft in April of 1994.

Each year, the National Football Foundation awards a scholarship to the Top 13 seniors in college football. The $18,000 grant for graduate work is based upon combined excellence in athletics and academics. Over the years, Ohio State has produced 18 recipients, including Bobby Hoying in 1995. At its annual awards banquet, the Foundation also presents the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award to the top senior in the group. The 1995 winner of that prestigious award, based on athletics, academics and community involvement, was Hoying (above).

Academic Excellence

Mike Lanese

Mike Lanese always will occupy a special place in the hearts and minds of Ohio State fans everywhere. His clutch grab against Michigan in 1984 has become known as "The Catch" and is one of the most memorable receptions in Ohio State history. But Lanese's legacy also includes some memorable accomplishments in the classroom, where after twice being named to the Academic All-America team, he was named as Rhodes Scholar in 1985. The former OSU flanker is the last Big Ten football player to be so honored. After completing his studies at Oxford, Lanese served in the U.S. Navy. He currently owns his own business.

Bobby Hoying

Ohio State quarterback Bobby Hoying was one of the National Football Foundation's 13 scholarship recipients in 1995. Additionally, at the awards banquet in New York, Hoying was named winner of the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award, which goes annually to the top senior scholar-athlete in college football. Hoying is the only Big Ten player ever to receive the award, which is based on athletics, academics and community involvement. Former Ohio State President Gordon Gee called the Draddy Award "The Heisman of Academics."

Craig Krenzel

Ohio State quarterback Craig Krenzel was the recipient of the 2003 Socrates Award this past March at a special ceremony held in conjunction with the March of Dimes at the Fox Theater in Detroit.

The award, which is sponsored by Sporting New Radio, has been presented annually since 2000 to a college athlete who best embodies the Socrates Creed "mens sana in corpore sano" or a strong mind in a strong body.

Krenzel, an honor student with a 3.71 grade point average in molecular genetics, led the Buckeyes to a perfect 14-0 record and the National Championship in 2002. He was the team's co-MVP as well as the offensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl.

In addition to the Socrates Award, the 6-4 Krenzel, who is 15-1 as a starter, was a second-team Verizon Academic All-American and is a three-time member of the Big Ten's all-academic team.

Craig Krenzel, Jennifer Williams, Executive Producer, Sporting News Radio, James Brown, FOX Sports & Sporting News Radio Host, Chris Brennan, President, Sporting News Radio.

Bowl History

1921 Rose Bowl

California	28
Ohio State	0

PASADENA, Calif. – California finished an undefeated season by spoiling OSU's first Rose Bowl appearance, and tagging the Buckeyes with their first loss of the year. It was a season in which the Bears rolled up 510 points to 14 for the opposition, and a team that would remain undefeated from 1920 until 1924. Cal quarterback Harold "Brick" Muller was named the player of the game and was credited with a 53-yard touchdown pass.

It marked only the second time a Big Ten team had met a Pac 8 squad in the Rose Bowl, with Michigan having played Stanford in the first game in 1902.

California	14
Ohio State	17

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes avenged a loss to Cal in their first Rose Bowl trip by breaking a 14-all tie in the fourth quarter to snatch a victory from the Bears.

With just more than three minutes remaining in the game, Cal quarterback Bob Celeri was back to punt at his own 16 on fourth down. A low snap forced Celeri to kick the ball off his wrong (left) foot, the ball dribbling out of bounds at the Cal 13.

Three plays advanced Ohio State to the 6, where Jimmy Hague kicked the winning field goal with under two minutes remaining.

It was a dramatic end to a game OSU had dominated early, outgaining Cal 143-15 in total yards in the first half and driving inside the Bears' 20 three times with nothing to show for it. Two Ohio State touchdowns were called back by penalty.

For the game, OSU held a 255-239 advantage in yardage, gaining 221 on the ground. Fred Morrison topped all carriers with 127 yards for the Buckeyes.

Southern California	7
Ohio State	20

PASADENA, Calif. – Woody Hayes made his first trip to the Rose Bowl a memorable one, as the Buckeyes dominated the Trojans in the rain and mud. OSU and UCLA had tied for national championship honors, but the Bruins were excluded from the bowl because of the "no repeat" rule that was in effect.

Led by Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, the Buckeye ground game drove for 304 yards, helping OSU to a 360-206 advantage in total offense. Cassady ran for 92 yards, Dave Leggett for 67 and Bob Watkins for 64. Leggett, the Ohio State quarterback, was named the outstanding player of the game. He completed six of 11 passes on the day for 63 yards and a touchdown.

1958 Rose Bowl

Oregon	7
Ohio State	10

PASADENA, Calif. – Already proclaimed national champions, the Buckeyes were heavy favorites against the Ducks. But the game wasn't decided until the fourth quarter.

Ohio State drove 79 yards on its first possession to take an early 7-0 lead. Frank Kremblas capped the drive by going in from 1 yard away, then converted the extra point.

Oregon came back to tie it at 7-all before the half, and actually had a chance to lead the Buckeyes in the third period with a field goal attempt that failed from the Ohio State 24.

The game came down to Don Sutherin's 24-yard field goal with 14:02 to go in the game. Oregon was stopped by a fumble on its next possession, and drove to the OSU 47 on its last drive before running out of downs.

1969 Rose Bowl

Southern California	16
Ohio State	27

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes put the finishing touches on a perfect 10-0 season and a national championship by coming from behind to beat Southern California. The game had matched unbeaten teams for the first time in the 22-year history of the Big 10-Pac 8 meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson had followed a USC field goal with an 80-yard run to take the Trojans to a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Ohio State answered with a 1-yard run by Jim Otis and a 26-yard field goal by Jim Roman to tie before the half.

OSU would put it away with 14 points early in the final quarter. A USC fumble at the Trojans' 21 set up a Rex Kern pass to Leo Hayden for the final 4 yards, then a fumbled reception cost Southern Cal the ball again at its own 16. Kern, the game's MVP, hit Ray Gillian on the Buckeyes' first down for the score and a commanding 27-10 lead with 10:05 remaining. USC turned the ball over five times on the day, while OSU was error-free.

1971 Rose Bowl

Ohio State	17
Stanford	27

PASADENA, Calif. – Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett quarterbacked Stanford to a come-from-behind win over favored and previously unbeaten OSU in the 1971 Rose Bowl.

Plunkett passed 30 times, completing 20 for 265 yards and a touchdown.

His performance offset a tremendous rushing day for Ohio State, as the Buckeyes rolled up 364 yards on the ground and actually led the Cardinal in total offense, 439-408. Rex Kern led OSU with 129 yards rushing, while John Brockington added 101 and two touchdowns.

Stanford scored the first two times it had the ball, only to see Ohio State gain a 14-10 lead at the half. After trading third quarter field goals, OSU drove from its own 6 to the Stanford 19 to begin the final quarter. On fourth and less than a yard, the Cardinal defense stopped Brockington short of the first down. Plunkett then ran and passed down the field for the go-ahead score.

Bowl History

1973 Rose Bowl

Ohio State	17
Southern California	42

PASADENA, Calif. – Led by tailback Anthony Davis, USC broke a 7-all tie at halftime with three third quarter scores. Davis collected 157 of USC's 207 rushing yards and set up a Rose Bowl-record four Sam Cunningham touchdown runs.

The Trojans scored each time they touched the ball in the third quarter, Cunningham twice and Davis once from 20 yards.

The third quarter overshadowed a fine first half effort by Ohio State. At the half OSU held a 151-75 edge in rushing yards. Archie Griffin tallied 73 yards on 15 carries in the first half.

OSU appeared to be in gear when fullback Randy Keith capped a 56-yard, eight-play drive with 13:37 to go in the first half. But OSU could manage only a Blair Conway field goal in the third and a 5-yard John Bledsoe dash that ended an 87-yard drive with 44 seconds to play.

1974 Rose Bowl

Southern California	21
Ohio State	42

PASADENA, Calif. – Ohio State used a powerful running attack, led by Archie Griffin's 149 yards, to break open a close game and run past USC. Pete Johnson added 94 yards and three touchdowns for the Buckeyes, who totaled 320 yards on the ground.

OSU fell behind, 21-14, early in the third before scoring the final 13 points of the quarter. The first score was set up by a Cornelius Greene to Fred Pagac pass good for 39 yards to the USC 4. Johnson bulled over for the tally, and a blocked extra point kick left it 21-20.

Ohio State took the lead for good after Neal Colzie set up the go-ahead score with a 56-yard punt return to the USC 9. Greene covered the final yard with 2:12 left in the quarter for a 27-21 lead.

Griffin capped the final scoring drive with 4:35 remaining by dashing 47 yards over right tackle.

1975 Rose Bowl

Ohio State	17
Southern California	18

PASADENA, Calif. – Flanker Shelton Diggs made a diving catch of a Pat Haden pass for a two-point conversion with slightly more than two minutes left in the game to bring the Trojans from behind and spoil Ohio State's national championship hopes. It ended a wild final stanza in which 25 of the game's 35 points were scored.

The third period was one of missed opportunities for the Buckeyes, who twice had the ball inside the USC 10 but failed to score.

Ohio State had staked itself to a 17-10 lead by scoring on its first two possessions of the fourth period, however. Cornelius Greene engineered an 82-yard drive, covering the final 3 yards himself for the first score. Following a USC fumble at its own 30, Tom Klaban kicked a field goal when the Buckeyes stalled out at the 15.

Haden, starting at the USC 17, took the Trojans 83 yards to the eventual winning touchdown and conversion. The game ended on OSU's ensuing drive when Tom Skladany's 62-yard field goal try fell short.

Bowl History

1976 Rose Bowl

Ohio State	10
UCLA	23

PASADENA, Calif. – All-America quarterback John Sciarra led UCLA to 23 second-half points to upset top-ranked and previously unbeaten Ohio State. Sciarra hit on nine of 13 second-half attempts for 173 yards, helping the Bruins amass 366 yards in total offense in the half.

Despite the backfield of Big Ten MVP Cornelius Greene, two-time Heisman Trophy Award winner Archie Griffin and national scoring leader Pete Johnson, OSU was limited to 124 yards in the second half.

Ohio State was impressive offensively in the first half, gaining 174 yards and 11 first downs, but managed only a 3-0 lead. Defensively, OSU held UCLA to 48 yards.

But sparked by Sciarra and the running of Wendell Tyler, the Bruins roared back to dash OSU's national championship hopes and spoil a fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl trip for the Buckeye seniors. Sciarra directed drives of 61 and 83 yards in the third quarter, hitting Wally Henry with scoring tosses of 16 and 67 yards.

OSU answered with a 65-yard scoring march to close it to 16-10, but Tyler broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run and close out the scoring.

1977 Orange Bowl

Colorado	10
Ohio State	27

MIAMI, Fla. – After Colorado jumped to an early 10-0 lead, Rod Gerald came off the Buckeyes' bench to lead OSU to its ninth victory of the season.

Gerald, idle since the seventh game of the schedule with a bone chip in his lower back, rushed 14 times for 81 yards, including 17 on his first snap. That run set up a 36-yard scoring dash by Jeff Logan to get OSU on the board with 3:11 to go in the first quarter.

The Buckeyes went on to score on the next two possessions, beginning with Tom Skladany's 28-yard field goal with 9:33 left in the half. Pete Johnson went in from 3 yards out to cap a 99-yard march following a blocked Buffalo field goal attempt to give OSU the lead for good with 24 seconds remaining before intermission.

Gerald ended the scoring with a 4-yard run late in the fourth quarter, and was later named the back of the game.

OSU outgained Colorado 330-271, including 271 yards rushing.

1978 Sugar Bowl

Ohio State	6
Alabama	35

NEW ORLEANS, La. – In the first meeting between coaching legends Woody Hayes and Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama, the Crimson Tide made a pitch for the national championship with a convincing performance. It also marked OSU's first appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama's Jeff Rutledge was the game's most valuable player. Rutledge was good on eight of 11 passing attempts for 109 yards, including scoring strikes of 27 yards to Bruce Bolton and a 3-yarder to Rick Neal to stake the Tide to a 21-0 lead in the third quarter.

Alabama rolled up 389 yards in total offense, 286 on the ground. Ohio State was limited to 263 yards, and gave up the ball three times on interceptions. The lone Buckeye score was a 38-yard Rod Gerald to Jim Harrell pass which capped an 85-yard drive.

The Buckeyes' defense did cause 10 Crimson Tide fumbles on the day, but Alabama lost only two of the miscues.

Bowl History

1978 Gator Bowl

Ohio State	15
Clemson	17

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – The Clemson Tigers won their 10th consecutive game of the season and 11th overall by holding off Ohio State in Woody Hayes' last game as head coach at OSU.

After Bob Atha gave Ohio State an early 3-0 lead with a 27-yard field goal, Clemson's Steve Fuller, named the game's outstanding player, directed the Tigers on an 80-yard, seven-minute drive. Fuller passed for 25 yards and ran for 36, including a scoring jaunt of 4 yards, in the drive.

Freshman Art Schlichter answered with a 78-yard drive, scoring himself from 4 yards away. Vlade Janakievski's extra point was blocked, but OSU had a 9-7 lead.

Clemson scored the next 10 points before Schlichter tallied again at the end of an 88-yard march with 8:11 left in the game. His two-point conversion run was stopped short of the goal line.

OSU got a chance at victory when Tim Sawicki covered a Fuller fumble on the Clemson 24 with 4:22 remaining. But on third-and-five at the 24, the Tigers' Charlie Bauman stepped in front of a Schlichter pass intended for Ron Springs, and OSU's hopes were dashed.

1980 Rose Bowl

Ohio State	16
Southern California	17

PASADENA, Calif. – Unranked in the preseason polls, the Buckeyes posted an 11-0 regular season record, but thanks to Charles White, their fairy tale season came to an end in the Rose Bowl.

White, the Heisman Trophy winner, shattered the Rose Bowl rushing record with 242 yards, including 71 yards on USC's game-winning drive.

Trailing 16-10 with 5:21 to play, the top-ranked Trojans marched 83 yards in eight plays, with White diving over from the 1 for the score. The all-important point after knocked the No. 2 Buckeyes out of national championship contention.

USC outgained OSU, 519-412, in total offense.

1980 Fiesta Bowl

Ohio State	19
Penn State	31

TEMPE, Ariz. – A record crowd of 66,738 had hardly settled into its seats when Penn State's Curt Warner ran 64 yards for a touchdown on the Nittany Lions' first play from scrimmage.

The rest of the first half, however, belonged to the Buckeyes as quarterback Art Schlichter threw for 244 yards and three touchdowns to stake OSU to a 19-10 lead at intermission. Flanker Doug Donley was on the receiving end of two of those scoring passes and split end Gary Williams hauled in the third.

But after rolling up 339 yards in the first half, the Buckeyes were held to just 73 in the second by a fired up Penn State defense. And while the Nittany Lions' defense was pitching a shutout in the final two quarters, their offense tallied three touchdowns to win the second half and the game.

Bowl History

1981 Liberty Bowl

Navy	28
Ohio State	31

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Underdog Navy put up a valiant fight for three quarters before finally falling to the Buckeyes. The win snapped a string of four-consecutive bowl losses for Ohio State, dating back to the 1978 Sugar Bowl.

Art Schlichter, playing in his final game for the Buckeyes, threw his 49th and 50th career touchdown passes.

OSU led early, 10-0, but Navy, led by quarterback Marco Pagnanelli and running back Eddie Meyers, refused to quit and took a 20-17 lead midway through the third quarter.

Ohio State finally opened a 31-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Navy cut the deficit to three with eight seconds left on a TD pass and a two-point conversion. OSU recovered the on-side kick and ran out the clock.

1982 Holiday Bowl

Brigham Young	17
Ohio State	47

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – There were those who thought Ohio State was the best team in the country during the last six weeks of the season. The Holiday Bowl did nothing to alter that line of thinking.

In winning their seventh-consecutive game and their second-consecutive bowl, the Buckeyes completely dominated the Cougars.

BYU led only once, 10-7, early in the second period. Tim Spencer's 61-yard run took care of that. Spencer scored two of the Buckeyes' TDs as did his backup, Jimmy Gayle.

Linebacker Marcus Marek had eight tackles to pass Tom Cousineau as OSU's all-time leading tackler.

1984 Fiesta Bowl

Pittsburgh	23
Ohio State	28

TEMPE, Ariz. – Ohio State and Pittsburgh combined for 897 yards and scored 30 of their 51 points in the final 15 minutes of play to keep everyone in their seats.

Trailing 23-21 after a 37-yard field goal by Snuffy Everett had given Pitt its first lead with 2:39 to play, Ohio State marched 89 yards for the winning score.

Still it wasn't over. Pitt had one more at bat and quarterback John Congemi marched the Panthers to the Ohio 24 before being injured. He watched helplessly as sub Chris Jelic failed in his two tries to produce the winning score before time ran out.

Keith Byars scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes, one on a 99-yard kick return. Jemison, who tied a Fiesta Bowl record with eight catches, was the game's MVP.

Bowl History

1985 Rose Bowl

Ohio State	17
Southern California	20

PASADENA, Calif. – Ohio State outgained USC, 403-261, but the Trojan defense steadfastly refused to let the Buckeyes cross the goal line.

USC led 17-6 at the half on a pair of TD passes by Tim Green. OSU's Rich Spangler made it 17-9 with a Rose Bowl record 52-yard field goal, but USC offset that score with Steve Jordan's second field goal of the day.

Ohio State finally scored a TD with 7:34 to play on a Mike Tomczak to Cris Carter pass. Tomczak's run on the PAT made it 20-17.

OSU had one final possession and moved to the USC 43. But the next four plays resulted in a sack and three incompletions, and the Buckeyes' three-game bowl winning streak was ended.

Carter, the freshman split end, caught nine passes for 172 yards to shatter Don Hutson's Rose Bowl record.

1986 Citrus Bowl

Brigham Young	7
Ohio State	10

ORLANDO, Fla. – Three years later and on the opposite coast, the Buckeyes again defeated Brigham Young. But this time the game was in doubt until the final seconds. Surprisingly, it was the defenses and not the offenses that sparkled.

Ohio State held the high octane Cougars to 349 yards, limiting quarterback Robbie Bosco to 261 yards passing—about half his average. And each time Bosco threatened to bring his team back, the Buckeyes thwarted him with an interception, four in all.

All four of those interceptions came in the second half. The first two were by Larry Kolic, Kolic, the Buckeyes' middle guard, picked off his first on the second play of the third quarter and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 OSU lead. That was the last score by either team.

In the fourth quarter, cornerback William White and safety Terry White each had interceptions in the end zone. The latter came with three seconds left.

1987 Cotton Bowl

Texas A&M	12
Ohio State	28

DALLAS, Texas – Ohio State, the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl, made a successful debut with a convincing 28-12 win over Texas A&M. The Buckeyes resurrected several defenses from previous years to keep the explosive Aggie offense under control. Ohio State set a Cotton Bowl record by intercepting five Aggie passes, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

Aside from the turnovers and the return yardage, the statistics were fairly even, but Ohio State made the most of big plays.

Buckeye quarterback Jim Karsatos passed for 195 yards, with his prime targets being Nate Harris and Cris Carter.

Chris Spielman, with 11 tackles and two pass interceptions, was chosen "Top Defensive Player" in the game. Spielman's first interception was a 24-yard return for a touchdown that came at a point in which OSU led 7-6.

Bowl History

1990 Hall of Fame Bowl

Ohio State	14
Auburn	31

TAMPA, Fla. – Auburn rode the hot arm of Reggie Slack, who accounted for all four Tiger touchdowns, in a 31-14 win over OSU.

Ohio State took an early 14-3 but the momentum changed just before the half when Slack hit Greg Taylor with an 11-yard scoring pass with 11 seconds left to play.

Auburn scored on its first possession after the half as Slack and Taylor teamed up again from 4 yards out.

Two fourth quarter TDs by the Tigers put the game out of reach. Slack, who completed his last 11 passes and was a near unanimous MVP choice, ran 5 yards for the first and also flipped a 2-yard toss to Herbert Casey.

OSU flanker Jeff Graham was an early star for Ohio State, setting up the Buckeyes' second TD with a 68-yard catch-and-run. Graham finished with five receptions for 103 yards, but didn't play the second half because of a pulled groin muscle.

1992 Hall of Fame Bowl

Ohio State	17
Syracuse	24

TAMPA, Fla. – The Buckeyes made their second trip in three years to the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Marvin Graves staked the Orangemen to a 14-0 first quarter lead, throwing a 50-yard scoring pass on the first Syracuse possession and later running 3 yards to paydirt as the quarter expired.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 17, however, when All-America linebacker Steve Tovar blocked a punt that was recovered in the end zone by Tito Paul. The score came with 8:03 to play.

But the Buckeyes' jubilation was short lived. Less than a minute later, Graves connected with wide receiver Antonio Johnson on a 60-yard bomb to bury Ohio State.

Ohio State had two more possessions after Graves' game winner, but did not mount a serious threat either time.

Bowl History

1993 Florida Citrus Bowl

Ohio State	14
Georgia	21

ORLANDO, Fla. – Ohio State and Georgia, two of college football's most storied teams, were paired against one another for the first time in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The two teams qualified for the trip to Orlando by virtue of second-place finishes in their respective conferences.

The two teams battled back-and-forth early and were tied at 14 at the end of the third quarter. Midway through the final quarter the Buckeyes drove deep into Georgia territory and appeared ready to take the lead. But a fumbled handoff, that Georgia recovered at its own 16-yard line, thwarted the OSU drive.

Given new life, the Bulldogs marched 84 yards in 11 plays, scoring the winning touchdown with 4:32 to play.

All-America tailback Garrison Hearst had an All-America day for Georgia, rushing for 163 yards and two touchdowns on 28 carries. But it was the passing of QB Eric Zeier, who threw for 241 yards, that kept the Buckeyes off balance.

1993 Holiday Bowl

Brigham Young	21
Ohio State	28

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – In the early going, the 9-1-1 Buckeyes appeared to be too much for the 6-5 Cougars, jumping off to a 21-7 lead with 14:55 to play in the second quarter. But BYU, healthy for the first time all year, roared back with two TDs and the teams were tied at intermission.

Ohio State regained the lead with 4:11 to play in the third when tailback Raymont Harris scored his third TD of the evening.

Using their vaunted passing game, the Cougars drove deep into OSU teritory three times in the fourth quarter with each drive ending on incompletions.

While BYU did most of its damage through the air, the Buckeyes relied on the brilliant running of Harris, who set a Holiday Bowl record with 235 yards on 39 carries. Harris, a 6-2, 225-pound senior, was named Player of the Game, while linebacker Lorenzo Styles, who had eight tackles, including four for losses, was the defensive MVP.

1996 Florida Citrus Bowl

Ohio State	14
Tennessee	20

ORLANDO, Fla. – The first meeting between Ohio State and Tennessee resulted in a 20-14 Vols' victory and kept the 11-2 Buckeyes from becoming the first team in school history to win 12 games in a season.

Playing in a driving rainstorm, OSU jumped off to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a 2-yard dive by Eddie George. The TD followed a blocked punt by Central McClellion. Jay Graham's 69-yard scoring run with 23 seconds left in the half tied the score and gave UT momentum heading into the break. The Vols took a 14-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 47-yard pass from Peyton Manning to Joey Kent.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 14 on a 32-yard pass from Bobby Hoying to Rickey Dudley with 14:40 to play in the fourth. But Tennessee marched 59 yards in 13 plays on its next possession to take a 17-14 lead on a 29-yard field goal by Jeff Hall. Hall added another three pointer with 2:06 to play that ended the scoring.

1997 Rose Bowl

Arizona State	17
Ohio State	20

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes snapped a four-game losing streak in the grandaddy of all bowl games with a dramatic, come-from-behind win over Arizona State.

The win propelled the fourth-ranked Buckeyes to an 11-1 record and the No. 2 spot in both major polls.

Reserve quarterback Joe Germaine came off the bench to lead the Buckeyes to the victory and was named as the game's Most Outstanding Player.

OSU took a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter on a 9-yard pass from Stanley Jackson to David Boston. ASU scored early in the second period on a 25-yard pass from Jake Plummer to Ricky Boyer and the two teams were deadlocked at halftime.

The Sun Devils jumped out to a 10-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 37-yard field goal by Robert Nycz. The Buckeyes recaptured the lead moments later when Germaine and senior flanker Dimitrious Stanley hooked up on a 72-yard score, the longest TD pass in OSU bowl annals.

Plummer, on a third-and-11, somehow snaked his way into the end zone to give ASU a 17-14 lead with 1:40 to play. Earlier, Plummer had kept the drive alive with a 29-yard completion on fourth down.

Germaine's responded by calmly marching the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays, hitting Boston from 5 yards out with the game winner.

Ohio State	14
Florida State	31

NEW ORLEANS, La. – The Ohio State Buckeyes made their fourth-consecutive trip to a New Year's Day bowl game, but their party was spoiled by a 31-14 loss to Florida State.

FSU jumped out to a 21-3 halftime lead on three consecutive touchdowns. The Seminoles got two rushing touchdowns within four minutes of halftime to pull away.

The Buckeyes finished the game with 118 yards on the ground and 207 total yards. Pepe Pearson led Ohio State with 60 yards rushing and Joe Germaine threw for 173 yards. Thad Busby threw for 334 yards to lead the FSU attack.

1999 Sugar Bowl

Texas A&M	14
Ohio State	24

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Ohio State capped off an 11-1 season with a convincing win over Texas A&M.

The Buckeyes took control early, jumping to a 21-7 first-quarter lead. The Aggies scored on their first possession, driving 59 yards with Dante Hall going in from 9 yards out.

Joe Germaine then engineered an eight-play, 71-yard scoring drive. Following a defensive stop, the Buckeyes marched down the field again, using six plays to go 71 yards with Joe Montgomery's 10-yard touchdown run for a 14-7 lead.

Another defensive stop followed by a huge special teams play gave OSU a 21-7 advantage with just 1:59 to go in the first quarter. After Derek Ross streaked in to literally "take" the football off A&M punter Shane Leckler's foot, Kevin Griffin picked up the loose ball and went untouched into the end zone.

2001 Outback Bowl

South Carolina	24
Ohio State	7

TAMPA, Fla. – In the first meeting between South Carolina and Ohio State, the Gamecocks upset the favored Buckeyes 24-7. The win gave South Carolina Coach Lou Holtz his first victory over the Buckeyes in five tries (0-2 at Minnesota and 0-2 at Notre Dame).

Ryan Brewer, a native of Troy, Ohio, accounted for 214 all-purpose yards and three touchdowns.

Both offenses struggled early and South Carolina led 3-0 at the half. The Buckeyes had a chance to tie it as time expired, but Dan Stultz' 47-yard field goal attempt was wide to the right.

The two teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. Brewer scored from 7 yards out for the Gamecocks and offensive guard Mike Gurr recovered a Jonathan Wells fumble in the end zone for the Buckeyes.

But it was all South Carolina in the fourth quarter as Brewer (the game's MVP) scored first on a nifty 28-yard screen pass and later on a 2-yard run.

2002 Outback Bowl

Ohio State	28
South Carolina	31

TAMPA, Fla. – With the score tied and virtually no time left, South Carolina kicker Daniel Weaver kicked a 42-yard field goal as the clock expired to propel No. 14 South Carolina to 31-28 victory over No. 22 Ohio State. The kick, which barely made it over the crossbar, spoiled a valiant comeback effort by the Buckeyes who had rallied from a 28-0 third quarter deficit.

Quarterback Steve Bellisari engineered the OSU comeback, completing 21 of 35 passes for 320 yards and two touchdowns.

Phil Petty, the game's MVP, threw for 227 yards and two touchdowns, and Andrew Pinnock scored twice for South Carolina. Bellisari ran for a 2-yard score to close the third quarter, then hit Darrell Sanders with a 16-yard TD pass with 10:18 to go that cut the lead in half. Jonathan Wells' 1-yard run made it 28-21 with 5:02 to go. Ohio State got the ball back on its 11 with 3:56 to play. He went 6-of-6 for 86 yards, tying the game on Sanders' 9-yard catch. Cie Grant gave the Buckeyes a chance for victory at the end, intercepting Petty with 1:12 left.

MISSED FIELD GOALS

Ohio State: Nugent 42. Miami: Sievers 54.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Ohio State worked two overtimes to rip the national championship from the Miami Hurricanes in one of the greatest college football games ever.

Maurice Clarett ran 5 yards for the winning touchdown, and Ohio State's defense turned back one final Miami bid to tie the game. With that, the Buckeyes completed an unlikely, unbeaten run to their first national title in 34 years with a 31-24 win. The Buckeyes, nearly 12-point underdogs, ended the Hurricanes' bid for a second straight title and their winning streak at 34.

Just like it had all year long, Ohio State was forced to make big plays when it had to. On the last play of the game, on 4th-and-goal at the 1, Cie Grant blitzed and forced Dorsey to heave a desperation pass that safety Donnie Nickey batted to the ground.

The Buckeyes' punishing defense had rattled and pounded Miami quarterback Ken Dorsey all night.

A few plays earlier, linebacker Matt Wilhelm hit Dorsey with such force it sent the quarterback to the sideline for one play. He came back in, but the Buckeyes would not be denied against a team trying to secure its place in history as one of college football's great dynasties.

While Miami coach Larry Coker lost for the first time in 25 games, Ohio State's Jim Tressel added a major college title to the four he won in Division I-AA at Youngstown State.

Trailing 24-17 in the first OT, Ohio State converted a 4th-and-14 on a pass by Craig Krenzel. But the Buckeyes then faced a 4th-and-3 at the 5 when Krenzel threw to the right corner of the end zone for Chris Gamble, who was being covered by Glenn Sharpe.

A flag was thrown from the back of the end zone indicating pass interference.

Three plays later Krenzel scored from the 1 to send the game to a second OT.

By then, it already was a classic – the first national championship game to go into overtime, in a matchup of the nation's last two undefeated teams.

In the second OT, the Buckeyes went first from the 25 and Clarett capped off a five-play drive with his spinning, slithering cutback through the Miami defense.

Ohio State led 14-7 at the half, and extended the margin to 10 points on Mike Nugent's 44-yard field goal. The Hurricanes closed to 17-14 on McGahee's 9-yard scoring run with 2:11 left in the third quarter. And that set the stage for Todd Sievers' 40-yard kick as time expired in regulation play, leaving the Sun Devil Stadium crowd of 77,502 breathless.

The Buckeyes' ferocious defense had Dorsey in trouble from the opening series with two sacks. Although Ohio State fell behind 7-0, the constant pressure paid huge dividends in the second quarter as the Buckeyes took a 14-7 halftime lead, turning two turnovers into touchdowns in a 78-second span.

The Rose Bowl

The Rose Bowl enters its fifth season as part of college football's Bowl Championship Series. (BCS). Because of its membership in the BCS, the Rose Bowl may not feature the champion of the Big Ten and/or the Pac-10 Conferences in a given year. If either of these two conference champions are ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the final regular season BCS rankings, then the team will participate in the designated national championship game. Along with the Rose Bowl, the Orange, Sugar and Fiesta Bowls make up the rotation for BCS national title games. The Rose Bowl took its turn at hosting the BCS national championship title game on January 3, 2002.

"The Rose Bowl tradition remains central to the Big Ten and college football culture," Big Ten Commissioner James E. Delany said. "The Big Ten is proud of its relationship with the Rose Bowl and the Tournament of Roses Association, and pleased that we worked together with the other conferences to develop a playoff system that is good for the Big Ten, good for college football and good for the bowls."

Like most long-standing traditions, the Rose Bowl has come full circle.

•Since the pact was initiated in 1946, the Big Ten and Pac-10 have nearly established parity in the Rose Bowl win-loss columns. The Big Ten holds a narrow 29-27 record.

•There have been five different Big Ten teams in the Rose Bowl in the last six games.

ROSE BOWL HISTORY

The Pacific Coast (now the Pacific-10) and Western Conferences (Big Ten), along with the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Association, agreed on November 19, 1946, to an exclusive Rose Bowl game contract.

Both conference commissioners commented that they "expect this five-year contract to be a forerunner of a long-time agreement. This present agreement is just a starter." The passing of time has shown us they were right on both accounts. It remains the oldest college football agreement between two of the nation's top conferences.

Though the contact was often referred to as a "shotgun marriage," officials had been in negotiation with the Tournament for eight years. The contact was effective immediately, voted on by faculty representatives from the two conferences. Both sides agreed that watch conference could designate its own representative, regardless of season records.

Illinois (7-2) and UCLA (10-0) were selected to play in the inaugural game under the pact.

Prior to 1947, the Rose Bowl game drew five sellout crowd. Every game since then has been a sellout.

The 1963 game was the first No. 1 against No. 2 showdown, matching undefeated USC (10-0) with the 8-1 Wisconsin Badgers.

The '70s were for the big Ten like the '50s were for the PCC (then the Pac-8) when playing in Pasadena. The Conference emerged victorious once, when Ohio State beat USC 41-21 in 1974. It was the second of three straight USC-Ohio State match-ups.

The Pac-10 continued to prosper in the '80s, taking home the Rose Bowl trophy seven times to the Big Ten's three.

The '90s were characterized by continued parity as the Pac-10 won three Rose Bowls and the Big Ten claimed seven.

The record for most appearances goes to USC (19) in the Pac-10 and Michigan (16) in the Big Ten.

In its 85 years, the Rose Bowl had maintained its tradition-rich standard of excellence, living up to the nickname "Granddaddy of all Bowl Games."

METHOD OF DETERMINING THE ROSE BOWL PARTICIPANT

In the event the Big Ten Conference regular season football champion is ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the final BCS regular season ranking, then that team will play in the designated BCS national title game. If the Big Ten regular season champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2, then the following methods will be used to determine the Conference's Rose Bowl participant.

A. The Conference champion shall be the representative team. The championship shall be determined on the percentage basis of Conference games.
B. An ineligible team shall not be considered in the standings for determination of the Conference representative.
C. If there is a tie for the championship, the winner of the game between those teams shall represent the Conference.
D. If the tied teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on the percentage basis of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule.
E. If there is still a tie, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated.
F. If more than two teams tie for the championship, the same selection procedures shall be followed with these exceptions:
   1. If three teams are tied and if one team defeated both of the other teams, then that team shall be the representative.
   2. If three teams are tied and if two of the three teams both defeated the third team, the third team is eliminated and the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
   3. If three teams are tied and if two of the three teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage basis of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule.
   4. If three teams are tied and one of the three teams is eliminated through the percentage basis of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule procedure, the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
   5. If three teams are tied and all three teams have the same winning percentage of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
G. If there are four teams tied for the championship, the following selection procedure shall be followed:
   1. If one team defeated each of the other three teams, then that team shall be the Conference representative.
   2. If two of the four teams defeated each of the other two teams, the latter two teams shall be eliminated and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
   3. If three of the four teams defeated the fourth team, the fourth team is eliminated and the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
   4. If two of the four teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule.
   5. If one of the four teams is eliminated through the percentage of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule procedure, the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
   6. If all four teams have the same winning percentage for all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated and the three remaining teams shall revert to the three-team tie-breaking procedure.

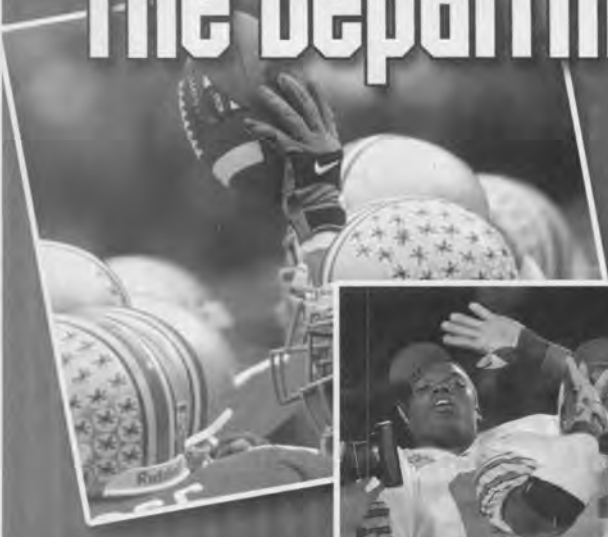
The Department of Athletics

Nationally recognized as one of the most comprehensive in all of college athletics, the Ohio State Department of Athletics offers 36 intercollegiate sports.



Athletics Director Andy Geiger is one of the most respected and visionary leaders in intercollegiate athletics today.

Completely self supporting, The Ohio State Department of Athletics has an operating budget of $80 million.

Few schools can boast the overall history of success the Ohio State Buckeyes have enjoyed over the years. The varsity program is respected as one of the most comprehensive in all of college athletics and now is 36 sports strong - 16 for men, 17 for women and three coed. The department operates on a budget in excess of $80 million. Each year, Ohio State teams claim numerous Big Ten championships, compete in NCAA tournaments and vie for national titles while producing countless individual conference and national champions, All-America performers and scholar-athletes.

Ohio State's Department of Athletics is under the direction of Andy Geiger. Just the seventh athletics director in Ohio State history, Geiger has developed a vision that will keep the Buckeyes among the nation's elite in the 21st century.

Ohio State's Jesse Owens set four world records at the 1935 Big Ten meet and won four gold medals at the 1936 Olympics in Berlin, Germany.

Some of the greatest names in athletics have worn the Scarlet and Gray, most notably four-time Olympic gold medalist Jesse Owens, golf great Jack Nicklaus, two-time Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin and two-time NCAA men's basketball Player of the Year Jerry Lucas.

Other famous Buckeyes include the late Woody Hayes, who coached the football team to a sparkling 205-61-10 record from 1951-78; Stephanie Hightower, the former world and American record holder in the 60-yard hurdles; John Havlicek, who helped lead Ohio State to the 1960 NCAA basketball title before an NBA Hall of Fame career with the Boston Celtics; Jim Jackson, the 1992 National Player of the Year for men's basketball; Tracey Hall, one of the Big Ten's only two-time All-America basketball honorees; Eddie George, the 1995 Heisman Trophy winner; Orlando Pace, the first player to repeat as Lombardi Award winner and the No. 1 pick in the 1997 NFL Draft; and Katie Smith, OSU's first women's basketball representative in the Olympic games and the Big Ten's all-time scoring leader.

With 21 major championships to his credit, former Buckeye Jack Nicklaus arguably is the greatest golfer to play the game.

Ohio State is recognized across the country as a leader in collegiate athletics. More than 1,000 student-athletes participated on 36 OSU athletics teams in 2002-03.

Katie Smith is the Big Ten's all-time leading scorer for women.

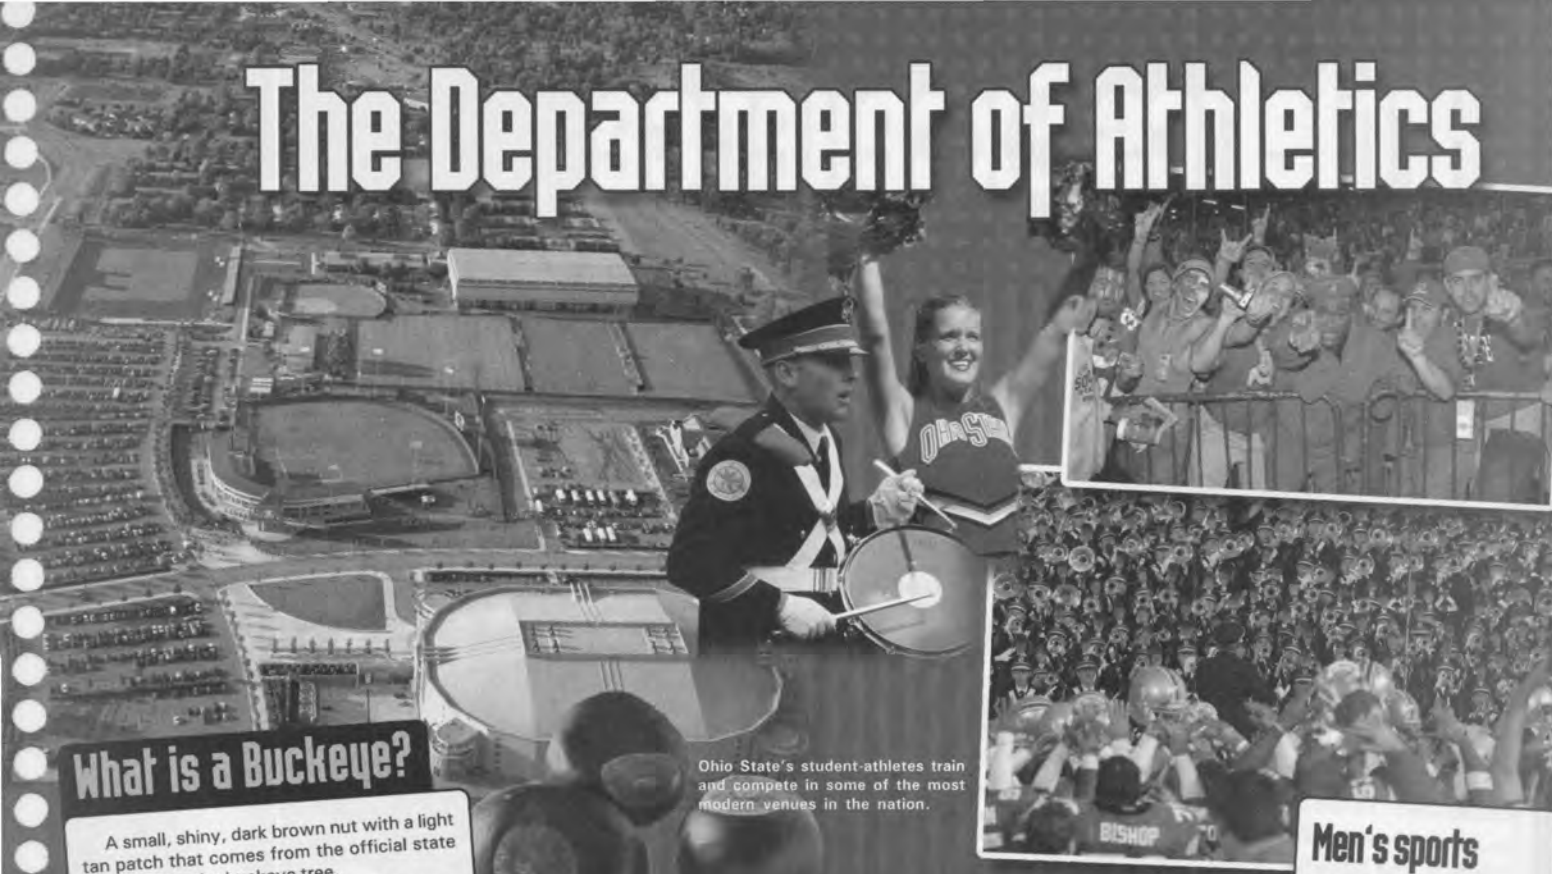
Geiger believes the whole of athletics success starts with success of the individual parts. Those individual parts worked, competed and prospered well enough to put Ohio State among the national leaders in the prestigious Director's Cup, given annually to the nation's most successful athletics program. Ohio State enjoyed its best finish (3rd) in 2002-03.

Annually among the Top 20 in the standings, Ohio State strives to contend for the award each year.

Teams, individual student-athletes, coaches, staff and administrators regularly claim championships, academic and athletics awards, recognition and praise for their tireless efforts as Ohio State Department of Athletics family members.

With rich tradition as a foundation and with the completion of Bill Davis Baseball Stadium, the Jerome Schottenstein Center, Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium, the Younkin Success Center and the Ohio Stadium renovation, the Buckeyes' outlook for the future appears even brighter than their glorious past.

The Department of Athletics



Ohio State's student-athletes train and compete in some of the most modern venues in the nation.

What is a Buckeye?

A small, shiny, dark brown nut with a light tan patch that comes from the official state tree of Ohio, the buckeye tree.

According to folklore, the Buckeye resembles the eye of a deer and carrying one brings good luck. "Buckeyes" has been the official Ohio State nickname since 1950, but it had been in common use for many years before.

The first recorded use of the term Buckeye to refer to a resident of the area was in 1788, some 15 years before Ohio became a state. Col. Ebenezer Sproat, a 6'4" man of large girth and swashbuckling mannerisms, led the legal delegation at the first court session of the Northwest Territory in Marietta. The Indians in attendance greeted him with shouts of "Hetuck, Hetuck" (the Indian word for buckeye), it is said because they were impressed by his stature and manner. He proudly carried the Buckeye nickname for the rest of his life and it gradually spread to his companions and to other local settlers. By the 1830s, writers were commonly referring to locals as "Buckeyes."

Athletics Excellence

Freshman fencer Adam Crompton won the national championship in men's sabre at the 2003 NCAA meet.

Another Banner Year

The 2002-03 athletics campaign was one to remember. From the football team's historic run to its first outright national championship since 1968 to the baseball team's Cinderella postseason run, the year will go down as one of the best in school history.

In addition, Ohio State placed third in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) 2002-03 Directors' Cup. The third-place finish by the Buckeyes was the highest ranking in the department's history, topping the sixth-place finish in 2000-01. OSU collected 1,074.75 points to finish behind Stanford and second-place Texas.

The baseball team came up two wins shy of advancing to the 2003 College World Series. The Buckeyes captured their second-consecutive Big Ten tournament title and advanced to their second Super Regional in the last five years. Left-handed pitcher Scott Lewis was named a Louisville Slugger TPX first team All-American and Big Ten Pitcher of the Year.

In 2003, Natalia Diea became the first platform diving national champion in Ohio State history.

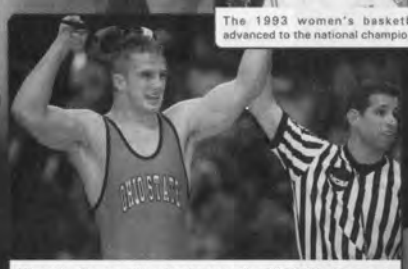
Dan Taylor was named the 2003 Big Ten Indoor and Outdoor Athlete of the Year as 10 outdoor track and field Buckeyes earned bids to the 2003 NCAA Championships.

The field hockey team won the 2001 Big Ten regular season and conference tournament championships.

Junior Stacy Gordon, Ohio State's 2002 Female Athlete of the Year, was a first team AVCA All-American and the Big Ten Player of the Year.

The 1993 women's basketball squad advanced to the national championship game.

The 2002 women's soccer team caught fire at the right time, winning six of its last eight matches before capturing the Big Ten tournament title, the first in program history, and receiving the team's first berth to the NCAA tournament.



Wrestler Tommy Rowlands won the 2002 Big Ten and NCAA heavyweight championships and became the fourth Buckeye to earn three-time All-America honors with a Top 6 finish in 2003.

The men's tennis team won the 2002 Big Ten Tournament title and followed up that season by advancing to the 2003 NCAA Round of 16. Vince Ng claimed the Big Ten Indoor title and was named 2003 Big Ten Player of the Year.

Athletics Excellence

ne rowing team won the 2002 Big Ten championship. xi Meissner and Karla Fiservoa were named 2003 First am All-America, All-Central Region and All-Big Ten.

The men's hockey team advanced to the Frozen Four in 1998 and made the third NCAA appearance in program history in 2003. Junior R.J. Umberger was a finalist for CCHA Player of the Year honors and the Hobey Baker Award while junior goalie Mike Betz picked up CCHA Goalie of the Year accolades.

The 2002 softball season produced a school record 55 wins, the Big Ten Player of the Year Wendy Allen and first team All-American Anna Smith (above).

The men's gymnastics team won its third NCAA title in 2001 and was runner-up in 2002 and 2003. Jamie Natalie (above) won the Nissen-Emery Award during the 2001 campaign.

The 2003 men's lacrosse team captured a share of the GWLL title and made its first appearance in the NCAA tournament. Junior goalie Tony Russo was named the conference player of the year, while sixth-year head coach Joe Breschi picked up league coach of the year honors.

Two-time OSU Athlete of the Year Donica Merriman became the first OSU female track and field athlete to capture a national championship in an indoor and outdoor event in the same year. She won four-consecutive Big Ten titles in the 60-meter hurdles, was an indoor and outdoor All-American and named the 2001 Big Ten Indoor Athlete of the Championship and the 2001 Big Ten Indoor Athlete of the Year.

The Ohio State University

Among its many treasures, Ohio State offers a magnificent environment for learning at one of the largest universities in the country.

Points of Pride

- U.S. News and World Report continues to rank Ohio State among the nation's best in its rankings of America's Best Colleges. It is a Top 25 public institution and its graduate programs are rated as the best in Ohio and remain among the top programs in the country.
- Ohio State was ranked in the Top 5 in granting doctorate degrees to African-Americans during the period 1995-1999 and also was listed among the top 20 institutions for granting doctoral degrees to American-Indians and Alaskan Natives.
- The Ohio State University Libraries are ranked as the 19th strongest research library out of 122 in North America by the Association of Research Libraries.
- Fourteen Ohio State University Medical Center physicians are among 4,000 nationally listed in the recently released book, America's Top Doctors.
- Physicians at Ohio State's Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Richard J. Solove Research Institute have developed a new method of killing breast cancer with heat which may one day lead to the elimination of surgery for thousands of women.
- With nearly 2,000 staff and faculty members who are veterans at the university, Ohio State is the only unversity/college in the nation with a Veterans Affairs office to assist employees.

For many central Ohioans, not to mention for people all over the world, The Ohio State University holds a special place in their hearts and their minds. It is a place where they experienced the excitement of new ideas, faced new challenges, met life-long friends, and enriched themselves in knowledge that has served them well.

With more than 300,000 living alumni worldwide, Ohio State is Columbus' most valuable educational and cultural asset, attaining an international distinction in education, scholarship, and public service. Its extensive range of quality academic programs attracts students and faculty from the world over.

Recognized as a leading research and comprehensive teaching university, Ohio State partners with public and private organizations that are improving health, education, business and industry, and the quality of life throughout the state. Ohio State touches every corner of the state through its 19 academic colleges and seven schools in Columbus; regional campuses in Lima, Mansfield, Marion and Newark; the Agricultural Technical Institute; Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center in Wooster; statewide Ohio State extension offices; and its 130-year commitment to public service.

In Its Own Class

Ohio State offers a superior environment for learning. The top-ranked public university in Ohio, Ohio State also consistently ranks among the top national public universities for undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs. Ohio State is a student-centered research university that provides a well-rounded experience both inside and outside the classroom. Few universities can match the range of academic offerings at Ohio State, which includes more than 170 undergraduate majors, 200 graduate fields of study, and more than 90 professional programs. Ohio State faculty members are internationally known for their academic credentials, real-world experience, and leading-edge research and are confronting timely and important societal problems, including preventing and treating disease and assessing global climate changes.

The student-to-faculty ratio is 13:1, similar to that found at smaller schools. In fact, 89 percent of first-year classes have fewer than 50 students, and only five percent have more than 100. Staff in hundreds of campus offices provide one-on-one instruction for students, including Student Affairs, Minority Affairs, Disability Services, and the Center for the Study and Teaching of Writing. Outside of the classroom, the residence halls provide academic programs and assistance, including tutoring, study sessions, computer labs, and quiet time.

The Ohio State University

Notable Facts

- 5-7 minute walk to most classes
- 500 student organizations
- 13:1 undergraduate student to faculty ratio
- 176 undergraduate majors
- 220 graduate fields of study
- 310,000 alumni living worldwide
- 27 living-learning environments
- The nation's largest intramural sports and recreation program

The myth

Big school, big classes. Actually, 89 percent of OSU's first-year classes have 50 or fewer students and only 5 percent have more than 100.

When you think college classroom at Ohio State, think outside the box.

Ohio State is a Top 15 campus nationally for transportation services.

A Dynamic Research Environment

As a premier research university, Ohio State provides opportunities for students to work with some of the world's leading experts and scholars. More than 1,500 undergraduates work on research projects funded by agencies such as the National Science Foundation, National Institutes of Health, the U.S. Department of Education, and the National Endowment for the Humanities. The university's location in Ohio's capital city and its ties to government, business, and industry provide career, research, and internship opportunities for students. Ohio State's Science and Technology Campus is home to the Ohio MicroMD Laboratory, a world-class bioMEMs facility, and laboratory space for Honda America R&D and fosters collaboration between the university and the business community.

Student research happens inside and outside the classroom, on and off campus, and covers the spectrum: from de-musseling Lake Erie and unraveling string theory to building an air-friendly SUV and teaching children to read. Ohio State provides countless opportunities for students to participate in the community by working on research projects with real-world implications. Students also can hone real-world skills such as networking, public speaking, and grant writing through on-campus leadership initiatives, including the John Glenn Institute for Public Service and Public Policy and the Mount Leadership Society.

Living-Learning Environments

Students can also extend their research and learning—and make lasting friendships— through 25 living-learning communities, including nursing, engineering, Spanish, first-year communities, and Honors communities. These residential programs bring together students with similar career interests and majors, as well as preferred lifestyle and cultural preferences. In addition, first-year students can take part in Ohio State's Scholars Programs, which enable students to attend selected classes together and live in specially designated residence halls. Academically selective, the Scholars Programs offer living-learning environments in health sciences, biology, international affairs, leadership, tomorrow's teachers, arts, communications, and humanities.

Exceptional Student Class

One of the best indicators of a university's quality is the caliber of its incoming class. The quality of Ohio State's most recently enrolled freshman class is the best in terms of academic profile. Nearly 70 percent of the Class of 2002 comes from the Top 25 percent of their high school class, and 34 percent comes from the elite 10 percent. In 2001, Ohio State ranked in the top 20 in the nation with more than 110 National Merit/National Achievement/ National Hispanic Scholars in its admitted class.

The Ohio State University

University Fun Facts

- On Sept. 17, 1873, 24 students met at the old Neil farm just two miles north of Columbus. In 1878 the college's name was changed to The Ohio State University. In that same year the first class of six men graduated, and in 1879, the university graduated its first woman.
- Ohio State rests on the 40th latitude, which measures distance north or south of the Equator. Ohio State is 40 degrees north, the same latitude that passes through Boulder, Colo., Philadelphia and Toledo, Spain.
- Ohio State is believed to be the only major university that still presents actual diplomas to individual graduates at its commencement ceremony.
- Orton Hall is home to the campus chimes, 12 bells in E-flat. First played June 15, 1915, they were acclaimed to be the best in the country. The chimes mark each quarter hour and hour and can be heard for three miles.
- An 1893 master plan of campus proposed a gro ing of buildings around a central open space, which became today's Oval. The first recorded refere to this space as the Oval came in 1910, with name becoming official in 1929. The Long Walk the sidewalk that crosses the Oval.
- An Ohio State tradition says that if you walk complete length of The Long Walk hand-in-hand with your significant other, the two of you will together forever.
- The remains of Herbert "Hub" Spencer Atkinson, former trustee, are located behind a plaque on th second floor of Bricker Hall. A 1913 gradua Atkinson was a member of the Board of Trustees from 1925-48. Upon his death in 1952, his ash were placed in the Administration Building, now Bricker Hall, as he requested. Buildings on camp believed to be haunted are: Bricker, Dracket Hopkins, Orton and Pomerene Halls.

Ohio State-of-the-Art Facilities

Ohio State provides resources that are not available at many other universities. The Ohio State University Libraries house the largest collection in Ohio and one of the largest academic library collections in North America, with more than five million print volumes and access to more than 600 million volumes through Ohio LINK and World Cat. Ohio State is home to the nation's largest medical teaching facility and the Midwest's only freestanding cancer hospital.

Along with the many historic and traditional buildings on campus, there are hundreds of new facilities, as well as many others scheduled for completion in the next few years, including the Life Sciences Research Building, the World Media and Culture Center and the Knowlton School of Architecture. One of the most impressive new developments is the Fisher College of Business' six-building mini-campus, which features satellite uplink capabilities, nearly 3,000 computer ports, an investment laboratory, and a recently completed luxury hotel, The Blackwell at Fisher College.

Diversity and Opportunity

Ohio State prides itself on diversity—from the range of academic opportunities and student organizations to the vibrant makeup of the student body. There is no such thing as a typical Ohio State student. Students come to Ohio State from all over the nation and from more than 100 countries around the world. At Ohio State, diversity and individuality are recognized and valued, and equality of opportunity is a basic commitment. One of the university's missions for the 21st century is to continue to celebrate and build upon the strength of its diversity—from the intellectual enrichment and cultural understanding gained from such diversity to a community outreach philosophy built on a sense of shared destiny and civic responsibility.

Not only does Ohio State promote a university environment that celebrates individual difference, but no other single campus can match the opportunities and resources available here. Undergraduate students can choose from more than 170 major areas of study and nearly 10,500 available courses. Ohio State offers countless opportunities for exposure to a high-profile guest list with campus visits from well-known political leaders, lecturers, and top-name entertainers in the arts, music, and dance. The university offers hundreds of student activities and organizations, the largest intramural and recreational sports department in the country, the excitement of Big Ten athletics, opportunities for community involvement, and a wide range of cultural events.

Exceptional Academics

One-third of the entering freshmen this past fall ranked in the top 10 percent of their graduating high school class, Two-thirds ranked in the Top 25 percent.

The Best Facilities

One of the most impressive new developments is the Fisher College of Business' six-building mini-campus, which features satellite uplink capabilities, nearly 3,000 computer ports and an investment laboratory.

Ohio State has six regional campuses including the Stone Laboratory on Gibraltar Island at Put-in-Bay, home to the Ohio Sea Grant program. One of 29 under the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, the program provides information on critical environmental and resource issues.

Ohio State is home to the nation's largest medical teaching facility and the Midwest's only freestanding cancer hospital, The James.

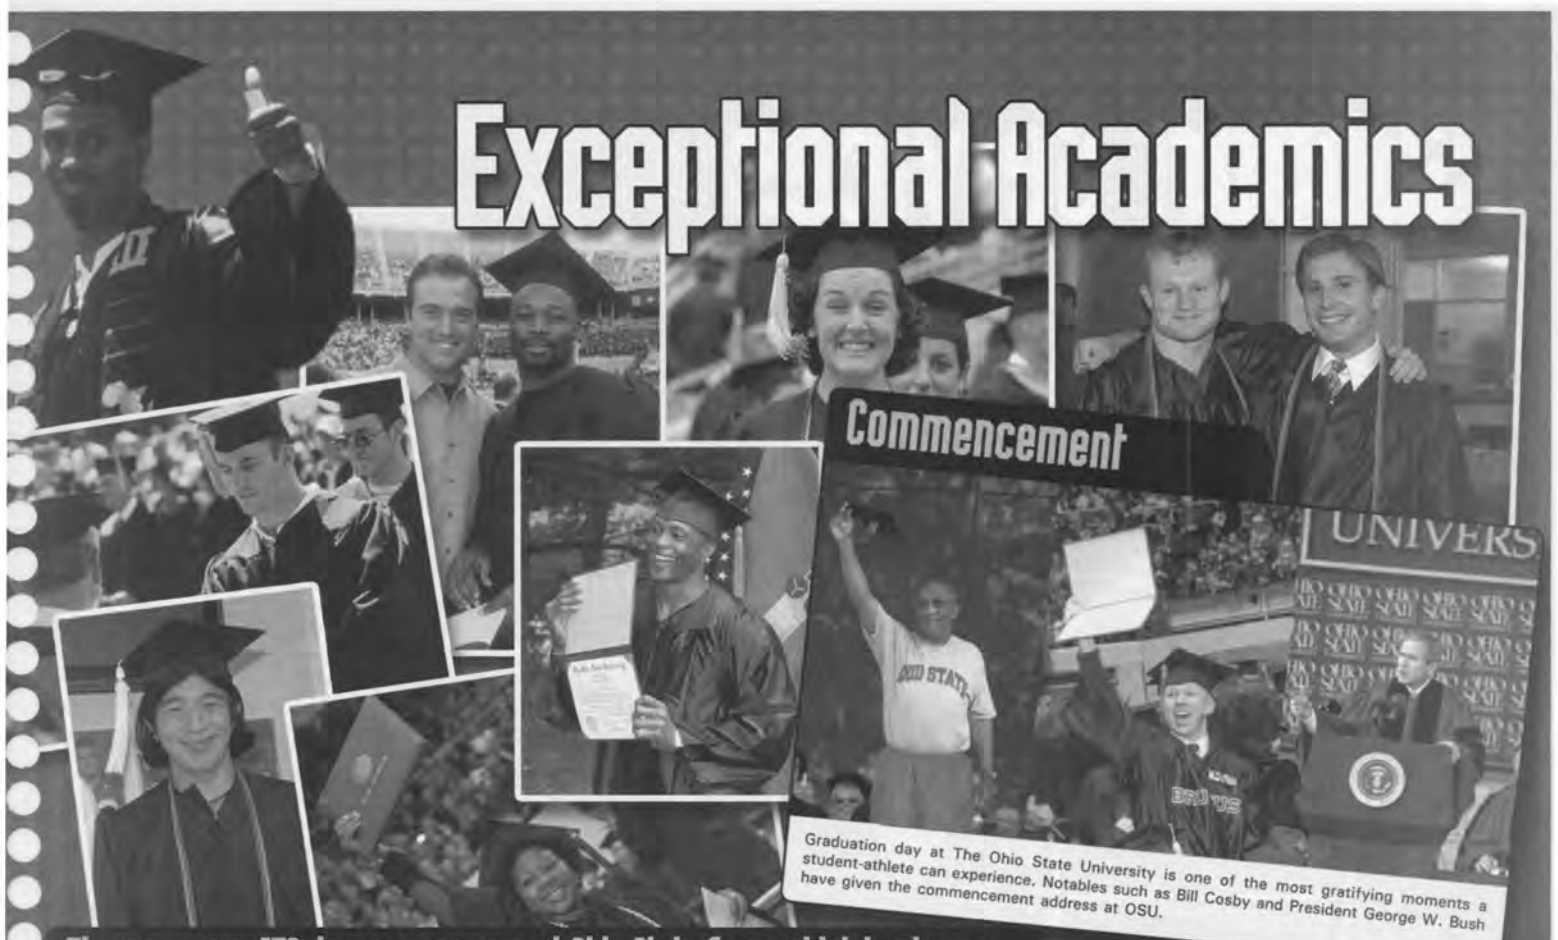
I will give my all for Ohio State every day.

College Life...

isn't just about going to practice and class.

At Ohio State, education extends beyond the classroom and the practice field. Many students enhance their academic and career experiences through our numerous co-op, internship, and more than 100 study abroad opportunities. Many other students get involved in innovative research projects that have a lasting and direct impact on the community. What are you into? Chances are, one of Ohio State's 500 student organizations is right up your alley.

Exceptional Academics



Graduation day at The Ohio State University is one of the most gratifying moments a student-athlete can experience. Notables such as Bill Cosby and President George W. Bush have given the commencement address at OSU.

There are over 170 degree programs at Ohio State from which to choose.

Under the direction of Dr. Kate Riffee, the Student-Athlete Support Services Office's (SASSO) staff of five academic counselors, academic resource coordinators, life skills coordinators and graduate assistants assist more than 1,000 student-athletes in all areas of academic support, from career counseling and planning to honors placement, early registration and course selection. Students are provided tutors, access to computers, study tables and instruction in studying and time management to help reach academic goals. Additionally, an academic counselor is assigned specifically to each team to ensure every student-athlete receives individualized attention.

Kate Riffee directs Ohio State's Student-Athlete Support Services Office.

413 Scholar-Athletes

After the 2002-03 academic year, an Ohio State-record 413 student-athletes were honored as Ohio State Scholar-Athletes for their success in maintaining cumulative grade point averages of 3.0 or better. Each year, the outstanding students are recognized at the Ohio State Scholar-Athlete Awards Banquet.

Last year, the department presented The Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor to Vincent Ng (men's tennis) and Victoria Bowen (synchronized swimming).

In addition to the Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor, outstanding student-athletes in the graduating class are eligible to apply for a number of postgraduate scholarships. Among the scholarships given are the Corwin A. Fergus Memorial Award, the Leann Grimes-Davidge Award, the A.K. and Judith A. Pierce Award and the Irving and Melvin Schottenstein Award.

Awards Abound

In addition, Ohio State student-athletes have the opportunity to receive Academic All-Big Ten honors. In the past seven years, the Buckeyes rank second in the conference with 1,324 honorees. The Buckeyes had a conference-record 250 recipients in 2002-03.

Outstanding OSU student-athletes also receive Verizon Academic All-America and All-District honors each year. During the 2002-03 school year, 18 Buckeyes earned academic all-district honors. The Buckeye honorees included: Raj Bhavsar (gymnastics), Derrick Butler (cross country/track and field), Dustin Fox (football), Simon Fraser (football), Sjaan Gerth (cross country/track and field), Ben Hartsock (football), Krista Keir (track and field), Craig Krenzel (football), Emma Laaksonen (ice hockey), Jennifer Miller (soccer), Vincent Ng (men's tennis), Terry Pettorini (baseball), Greg Prenger (baseball) Jason Rogers (fencing), Alexandra Shklar (fening), Scott Titus (hockey), Kristen White (golf), Katie Virtue (volleyball). Ng went on to earn All-America first-team honors, while Hartsock, Krenzel and Rogers earned second-team All-America accolades and Bhavsar was named to the third team.

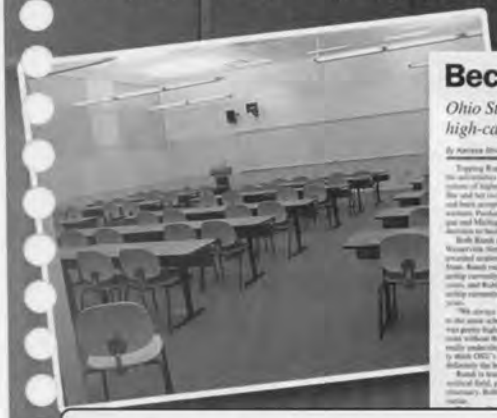
The District IV team is made up of student-athletes from Division I schools in Alabama, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and Tennessee. To be nominated, student-athletes must be a starter or important reserve and carry a cumulative grade point average of 3.20 or higher. Team members are selected by a vote of members of the College Sports Information Directors of America within the district. All athletes that earn first-team

Support Services

The state-of-the-art Younkin Success Center, located on Neil Avenue near the center of campus, provides students and student-athletes alike with the tools for success. It houses career services, counseling and consultation services, the Student-Athlete Support Services Office and the faculty and teaching assistant development office. Services in the building include tutoring, career planning tailored to the needs of each student, counseling services, an 80-station computer lab and time management and test-taking assistance.

This collaboration of learning support programs helps ensure that all students, regardless of their background, interest and talents, find personal and academic success.

The Younkin Success Center was dedicated in Spring 2000. A "one-stop learning mall," it is one of the most unique learning facilities in America.



Becoming Buckeyes

Ohio State attracts high-caliber students

By Aimee Hicks

Topping Rondi Wittmyer's list of reasons she attended only some of the best institutions of higher education in the Midwest. She said her mom, Robin, had applied and been accepted to Ohio State, Notre Dame, Purdue, the University of Michigan and Michigan State before making the decision to become Buckeyes.

Both Rondi and Robin, graduates of Westerville North High School, were awarded academic scholarships from Ohio State. Rondi received a Presidential Scholarship currently valued at $31,604 for four years, and Robin received a Medallist Scholarship currently valued at $16,548 for four years.

"We always knew that we wanted to go to the same school," Rondi said. "And OSU was pretty high up in the running and we...even without the scholarship, because I am really undecided about my major I definitely think OSU's going to fit me perfectly. It's definitely the best place for me to go."

Rondi is leaning toward a career in the medical field, possibly physical therapy or chiropractic. Robin plans to become a veterinarian.

honors move onto the ballot for All-America recognition.

C.H.A.M.P.S.

Ohio State student-athletes are encouraged to become involved in more than just athletics. One of the most innovative and noteworthy initiatives fueling this effort is the C.H.A.M.P.S. (Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success) Life Skills Program which affords students the opportunity to grow and develop in the areas of academic and athletic excellence, community service, health and wellness and personal and career development.

The Ohio State C.H.A.M.P.S. program is a leader at the national and conference levels. Ohio State SASSO has been recognized by the Division I-A athletics directors' association as a "Program of Excellence" for implementing innovative and comprehensive support services for student-athletes. An advisory board member with this association, Ohio State also serves as a support and advisory school to other NCAA Life Skills programs. SASSO was recognized by The National Consortium for Academics and Sport with its "Degree Completion Award."

Students have a chance to take a leadership role with the Student Athlete Advisory Board (SAAB). The organization meets monthly, providing team representation to the department of athletics and input on department policy and programming.

Membership consists of representatives from each of Ohio State's 36 varsity sports, who act as liaisons between the SAAB and their team. The Executive Committee consists of a board of officers, the chairpersons of five sub-committees, editorial board of The Buckeye Flash and athletics department advisors.

The major goals of the SAAB are to promote effective communication between the department of athletics administration and the student-athlete population and to provide the student-athletes with an opportunity to have input into the educational/personal development programs which serve their needs. The SAAB promotes academic achievement, health promotion, social responsibility and general awareness of departmental issues.

Ohio State is serious about the role it plays in the lives of its student-athletes and for that reason has systematically designed programs to meet their needs. Upon graduation, students will receive more than just a handshake and diploma. Backed by one of the largest alumni associations in the nation, an OSU degree will be their ticket to career opportunities around the world.

Conference Medal of Honor

The winners of the 2003 Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor were men's tennis player Vince Ng and synchronized swimmer Victoria Bowen.

Each member institution in the conference gives the award annually to the male and female athletes in the graduating class who have attained the greatest proficiency in both academics and athletics.

The Big Ten Conference office established the award in 1914 and an additional award for the top female was instituted in 1982. This honor includes a $5,000 postgraduate scholarship for the recipients who would like to pursue a graduate or professional program at Ohio State.

Benchmark Facilities

Ohio State's Value City Arena is a nationally-renowned on-campus athletics and entertainment facility giving students a chance to see their favorite acts in their home arena.

From Field of Grass to Field of Dreams

Ground was broken April 2, 1996, for Value City Arena at The Jerome Schottenstein Center and the building opened in November, 1998 - a testament to the vision of The Ohio State University Department of Athletics to provide modern, top-notch facilities for students, student-athletes, coaches, staff, supporters and fans - a commitment to excellence. First and foremost the home of the Ohio State University men's and women's basketball teams as well as men's ice hockey, the $115 million multipurpose facility also hosts a wide variety of special events, concerts, family shows and touring productions.

With no major public funding committed to the project, private support, contributions from alumni and friends - was a critical element in the Jerome Schottenstein Center's funding. Named as the result of a generous $12.5 million lead gift, the Center pays tribute to Jerome Schottenstein, late Columbus businessman, philanthropist and founder of Schottenstein Stores Corp. Additional building "partners" in the truest sense of the phrase include Huntington Banks, after which the venue's luxurious second level, The Huntington Club, is named - the result of a $5 million gift; The Kroger Company which pledged $2.5 million to help create The Ohio State University Hall of Fame; and Nationwide Insurance, which contributed $1.5 million toward the venue's extraordinary terrazzo floorscapes.

Over $40 million was raised through naming gifts and private donations from loyal Buckeye supporters. Almost half came from the sale of 4,500 personal seat licenses and leases for the Center's 52 luxury boxes. Remaining costs were covered by bonds. Although the University did receive $15 million from the state legislature for an initial design study, no tuition money, student fees or University General Funds were used for the building.

With the opening of the Center new attendance records were set for men's basketball, women's basketball and ice hockey. Ice hockey alone saw its average attendance grow from 1,500 per game to almost 9,000 per game. A focal point for recruiting, the Center also developed a reputation as housing some of the loudest fans in the Big Ten, cheering the men's basketball team on to its first Final Four appearance in almost 30 years and leading the women's basketball team to three postseason appearances.

The future looks equally as bright. The Jerome Schottenstein Center has become a nationally renowned sports and entertainment center. This Fall/ Winter (2003), the Center proudly commemorates its fifth year with a yearlong celebration of "Five Years Forward."

There are 52 suites that encircle the arena bowl at club level. Also, within the Center are 4,562 seats set aside for Personal Seat Licenses. A 1,370-square foot Hall of Fame contains pictures of all inductees to the Hall of Fame as well as a video presentation on the history of Ohio State Athletics. The "Official Team Shop," features the latest in Buckeye apparel, gift ideas and accessories. A unique feature of the Center is the terrazzo (a composite of marble or stone chips set in mortar and polished) floor.

Value City Arena Fun Facts

- The Jerome Schottenstein Center is the largest arena in the Big Ten and one of the largest capacity university arenas in the world - 17,500 for hockey, 19,200 for basketball and up to 21,000 for concerts.
- If filled with Coca-Cola, the arena would hold 133,187,970 gallons. If filled with basketballs, the arena would hold 17,714,000.
- The Jerome Schottenstein Center measures more than 700,000 square feet. (St. John Arena would fit inside more than twice.)
- The arena can be converted from hockey to basketball in about 4-5 hours, and from basketball to hockey in 3.5-4.5 hours. A record of 2.5 hours was set for the double-header Feb. 2, 2002, when the arena switched from men's basketball vs. Northwestern to men's ice hockey vs. Michigan State.
- The single largest attended OSU athletic event was a men's basketball game vs. Penn State Nov. 20, 1998, with 19,500 attendees.
- TOP GROSSING EVENTS – The Rolling Stones, Pavarotti, Bruce Springsteen and Paul McCartney are all honorary members of THE MILLION DOLLAR CLUB.
- The fastest sellout ever recorded – the Backstreet Boys in 9.5 minutes!

Columbus, Ohio

Noted as America's premier inland city of excellence, Columbus, Ohio, has many services to offer.

Columbus, the largest city in Ohio, is the 15th largest city in the country. The state capital, Columbus continues to enjoy widespread development. Recent growth includes two state-of-the-art multi-purpose arenas, OSU's Jerome Schottenstein Center and Nationwide Arena, and the relocation of Ohio's Center of Science & Industry to its new home on the Scioto Riverfront.

Mayor Michael B. Coleman

The heart of the city features visual and performing arts and numerous festivals including Red, White & Boom, the Columbus Arts Festival, the Jazz & Rib Fest and Cruisin' on the Riverfront. The arts festival was named first in the nation for its crafts and fifth in the country in fine arts by Sunshine Artist magazine.

A flood of new entertainment acts and shopping districts, a unique partnership between professional and collegiate sports teams and a major expansion of its convention center make Columbus one of the fastest growing cities in the Midwest. Recently, Nation's Restaurant News named Columbus one of the Top 50 cities across the country that "sizzle."

The area also features a number of unique neighborhoods. German Village, just south of downtown, is the largest privately-restored historical district in the United States. Brick streets are lined with shops and restaurants and are home to the city's annual Oktoberfest celebration.

Just north of downtown, the Short North features scores of art galleries, restaurants and boutiques. On the first Saturday of each month, the galleries stay open late for the popular Gallery Hop. The Brewery District, south of downtown, and the Arena District, north of the city's center, continue to grow in popularity. New additions in the Arena District include Promowest Pavilion, an intimate indoor and outdoor concert venue, and the Arena Grand Theatre, a state-of-the-art motion picture theatre that offers moviegoers a whole new experience.

Shopping opportunities abound in and around Columbus. The city was ranked seventh in the nation by the National Research Bureau for the amount of retail space per person, ranking ahead of New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Miami and Boston. Those rankings do not include the newest shopping areas - The North District at Easton Town Center and Polaris Fashion Place.

Easton Town Center on the northeast side features hundreds of shops, restaurants and nightclubs, including the AMC Experience, the Cheesecake Factory and Steven Spielberg's GameWorks. Polaris Fashion Place on the north side includes 50 retailers new to the area, including Lord and Taylor, Saks Fifth Avenue and Kaufmann's. Columbus City Center downtown and the Mall at Tuttle Crossing on the northwest side also feature hundreds of shops and restaurants.

Columbus also features a stable economy with low unemployment and headquarters of major businesses, including Nationwide Insurance, Wendy's and The Limited. The Greater Columbus area also is home to no fewer than 15 colleges and universities, including OSU, Columbus State Community College, Ohio Dominican College and Capital and Franklin universities.

The Columbus Zoo and Aquarium has more than 700 wildlife species from all regions of the world and is one of only three locations outside of Florida to exhibit the rare marine mammal, the manatee. "Jungle Jack" Hanna (above) has served as ambassador of the attraction for over 20 years.

One of Columbus' most famous natives was Alice Schille (below), a watercolorist whose circle of friends included the famous painter Pablo Picasso, the sculptor Rodin and many of the leading writers of the 1920s and 1930s.

Ohio has 74 state parks that offer a variety of outdoor experiences. Over 25 of these are located within an hour of downtown Columbus. Many festivals and attractions are available to residents year round.

A proponent of Columbus, Arnold Schwarzenegger brought the Schwarzenegger Classic and Fitness Expo and the Inner City Games to the area.

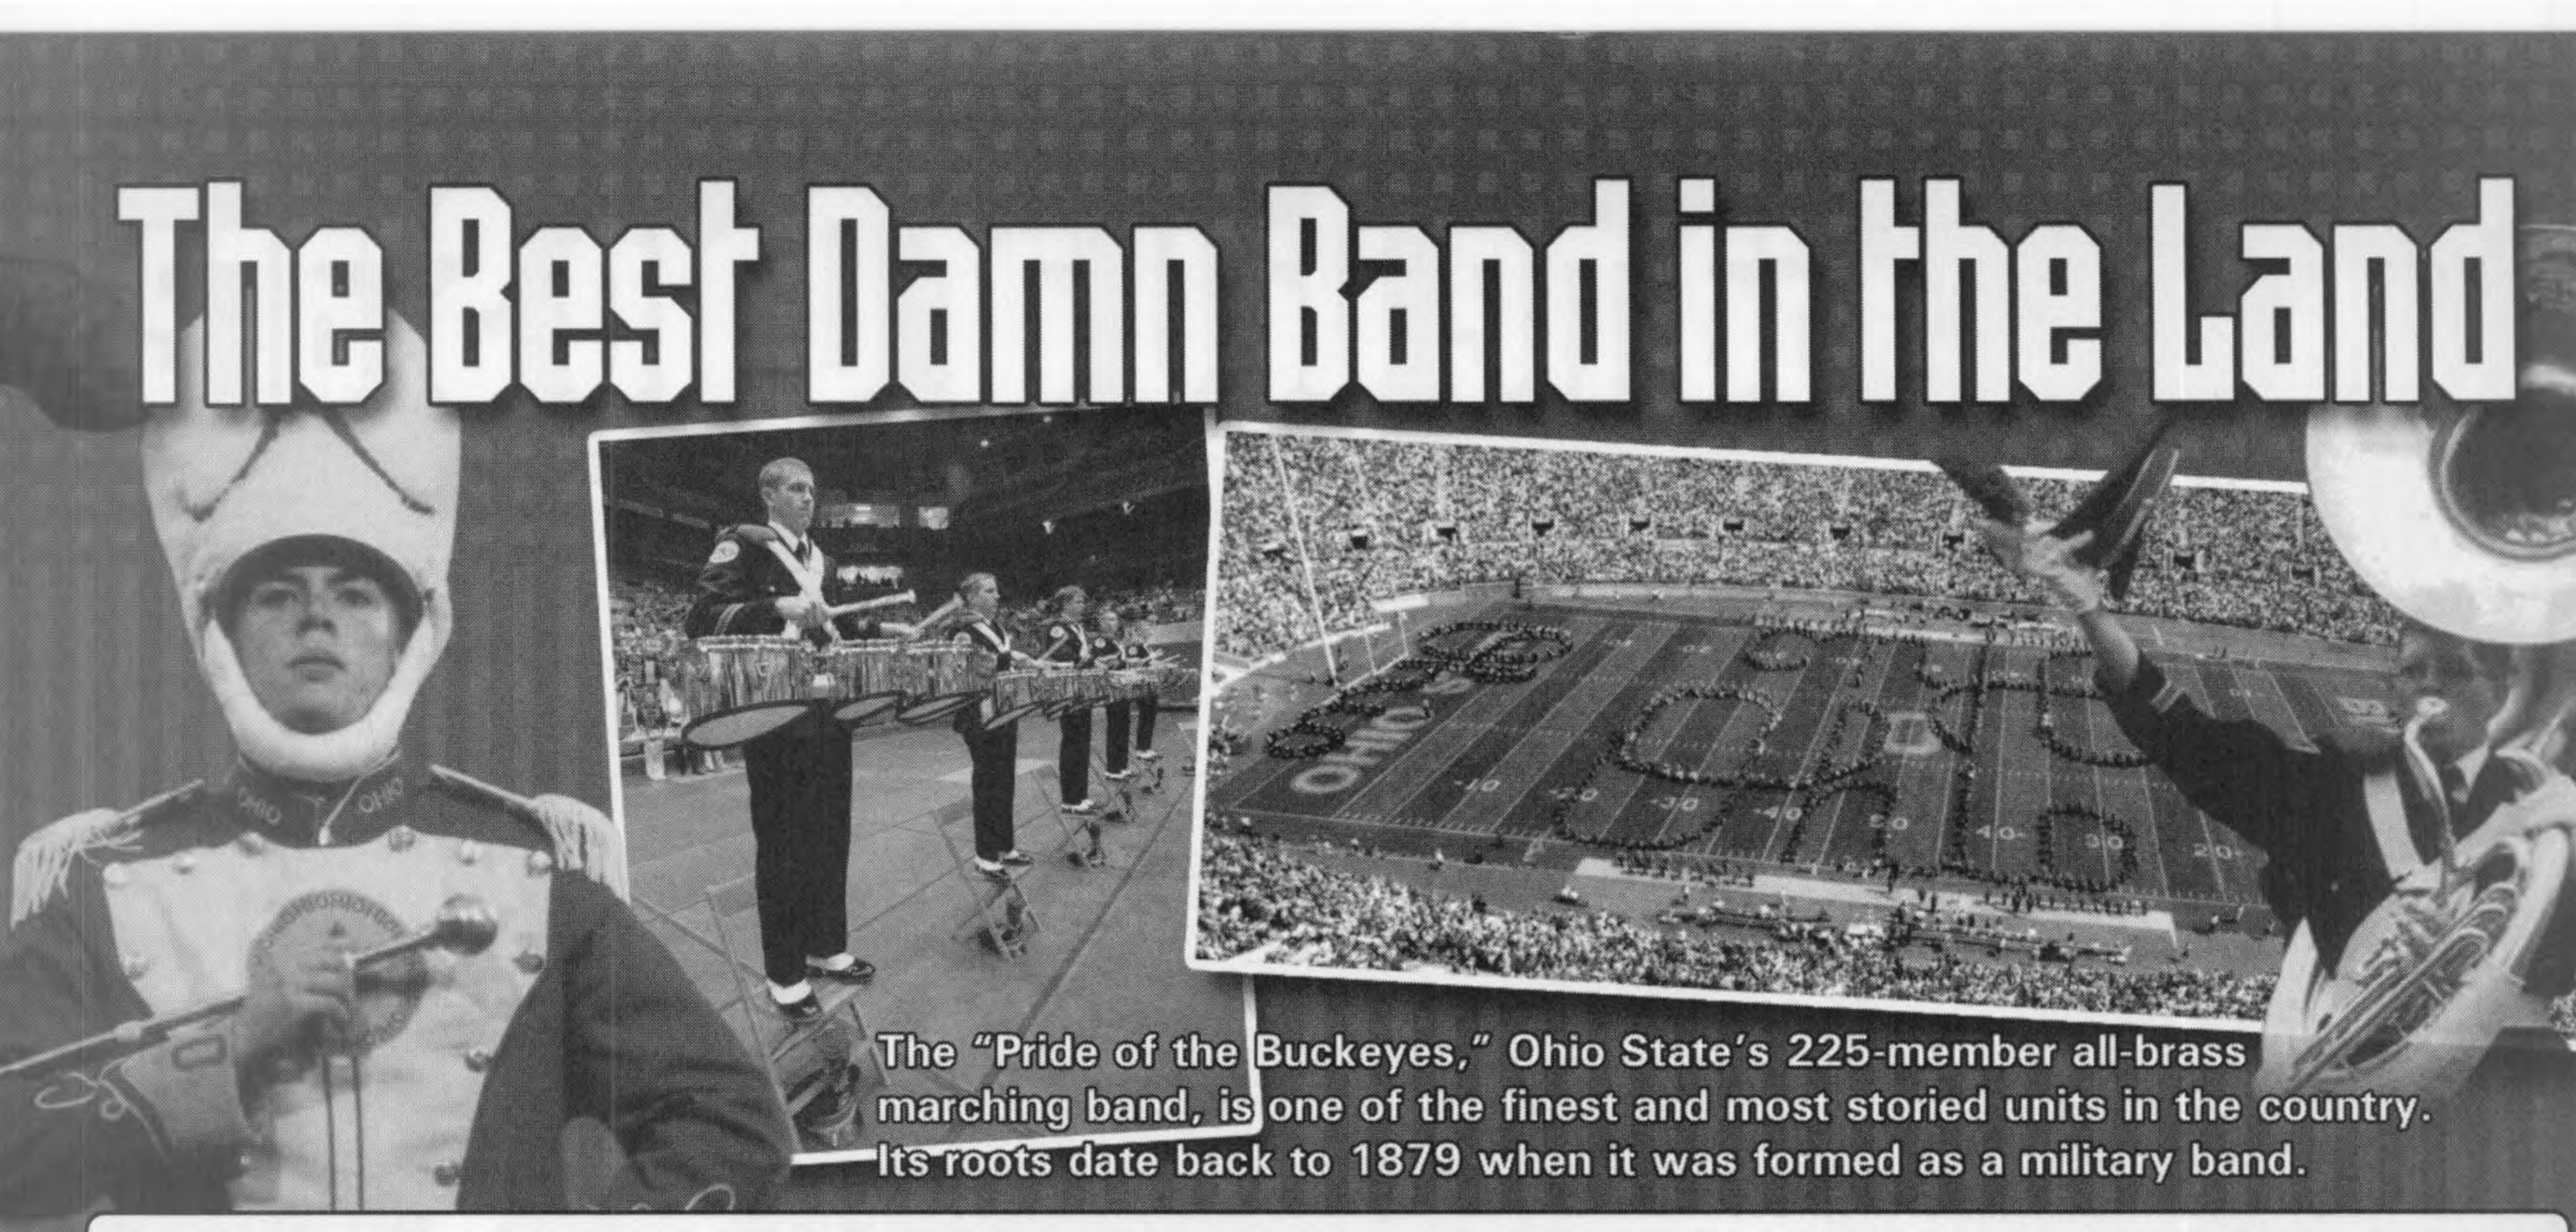
The Best Damn Band in the Land



The "Pride of the Buckeyes," Ohio State's 225-member all-brass marching band, is one of the finest and most storied units in the country. Its roots date back to 1879 when it was formed as a military band.

SKULL SESSION

In 1932 Eugene J. Weigel enhanced the band's performance by having members completely memorize music before the game each week. By doing this bandsmen could concentrate more on the marching maneuvers without sacrificing the music. Weigel then scheduled a final rehearsal of the music before game time so the band could play and think through the show one last time - one last "Skull Session." In the old Rehearsal Hall there was room for a few hundred parents and fans to sit and listen. Eventually, watching this rehearsal became so popular tickets were issued to bandsmen to make sure their parents had seats. After St. John Arena was built in 1957, Jack Evans requested its use for the last rehearsal before game time. Athletics Director Richard Larkins was happy to oblige, as he was eager to show off the new facility. The skull session was changed to a concert/pep rally atmosphere by Dr. Paul Droste which continues today. Skull session starts one and a half hours before kickoff of every home football game. It is a popular concert/pep rally, with over 10,000 fans in attendance. Seats for skull session are in high demand and it is not unusual for dedicated fans to arrive up to two hours before the band.

RAMP ENTRANCE

The Ramp Entrance dates back to 1928, when it was introduced by band members Bill Knepper and Elvin Donaldson. The entire sequence survives today virtually unchanged and is one of the single most defining elements of The Ohio State University Marching Band.

Following their performance at Skull Session, the band forms outside St. John Arena and marches across Woody Hayes Drive in ranks of 12 to drum cadence. The band enters Ohio Stadium and assembles on the ramp which leads to the field.

The percussion section leader stands at the base of the ramp, setting the tempo of 180 beats per minute. At the appointed time, he screams to his section "Drums on the side!" The percussionists then take the field, chanting "O-H-I-O, OHIO, O-H-I-O, OHIO..." Band members take their spots on the ramp as the percussionists leave and the Stadium comes to life as the drums hit their mark. The drums roar to life as the first trumpets emerge, executing a precise arm swing and carrying their instruments at their side, maintaining perfect two step spacing.

THE BACK BEND

Once the ranks fill up, a whistle sounds and the entire band turns and the introduction to "Buckeye Battle Cry" is played.

The drum major struts through the middle of the band and comes to the front of the ranks to execute a back bend. As the major's plume touches the grass, a cheer fills the stadium and the band breaks into two choruses of the fight song while storming toward the South Stands. The drum major reaches the end zone, performs a goal post toss and the band finishes the downfield march, executes an about-face maneuver and stands motionless awaiting the raising of the flag and the performance of the national anthem.

SCRIPT OHIO

The signature formation of the Ohio State Marching Band performed before, during halftime or after home games is Script Ohio.

Each time the formation drill is performed, a different fourth- or fifth-year sousaphone player has the privilege of standing as the dot in the "i" of "Ohio."

HISTORY OF THE "i"-DOT

At its first performance, the Script Ohio's "i" was dotted by a trumpet player, John Brungart (1933-36). The march from the top of the "o" to the top of the "i" was just another movement to complete a formation but over 60 years later, the honor of dotting the "i" is known throughout the world.

In the fall of 1937, Glen R. Johnson, a sousaphone player, was ordered to switch places with the trumpet player in the formation.

The familiar kick, turn and bow by the sousaphone player at the top of the "i" was an innovation introduced by Johnson at a game in 1938. "(The turn) was an impulse reaction when drum major Myron McKelvey arrived three or four measures too soon at the top of the "i"," Johnson explained, "so I did a big kick, a turn and a deep bow to use up the music." The crowd roared when this happened, and it became part of the show thereafter.

WHO DOTS THE "i"

To be eligible to dot the "i", a sousaphone player must at least be a fourth-year member. Fifth-year members also are eligible to dot the "i", but only after all fourth-year members have been chosen. At postseason performances (usually double scripts), fourth and fifth-year members compete for the open dots in what is called a "dot-off", in which eligible members perform their routine for the entire sousaphone section. Members watch two rounds of competition and vote for the best two candidates.

HONORARY "i"-DOTTERS

Woody Hayes and Bob Hope are among the select few non-band members who have had the honor of dotting the "i." This is considered the greatest honor the band can bestow to any non-band person and is an extremely special (and rare) event.

HOW TO DOT THE "i"

At exactly 16 measures from the end of "Le Regiment," the drum major struts out toward the top of the "i," with the sousaphone player high-stepping a couple of paces behind. As the crowd's cheering crescendos, the drum major stops and dramatically points to the spot, and the sousaphone player assumes the post of honor, doffs his hat and bows deeply to both sides of the stadium.
